The vast majority of photos in this media guide were taken by Mark Philbrick.

The 2004 BYU Football Media Guide has been designed to provide local, regional and national media with useful information about the BYU football program, its history and tradition. We trust many of your questions will be answered within the pages of this publication.

Should you require additional information, such as photographs, videotapes or additional media guides, please contact the BYU Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-8948. We sincerely appreciate your coverage of BYU football and look forward to working with you this season.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for credentials to cover BYU football should be sent on company letterhead to: Jeff Reynolds, Associate Director, Athletic Communications, 30 SFH, Provo, UT 84602. Fax requests may be sent to (801) 422-0633.

All single-game credential requests should be received no later than one week prior to the date of the game.

Requests received later than noon on the day prior to the game will not be accepted. Credentials for working media, including print and electronic (radio & television) media outlets, are restricted in accordance with BYU, Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules and guidelines. It is our intention to ensure proper, professional use is made of the space available for credentialed media.

Credentials, complete with parking pass (if requested), will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits, or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Otherwise, all credentials will be available at the Media Will-Call window, located at the ticket office west of the stadium.

PRESS BOX

Working press box credentials shall be issued only to accredited newspapers, radio and television reporters only. Requests from other media sources shall be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. Reporters representing newspapers with next-day editions, daily editions, national magazines, wire services, live television and radio broadcasts and television and radio stations covering for nightly news shall be given priority. Spouses, dates, children and other non-working persons will not be credentialed and are not allowed in the working media areas during the game as dictated by NCAA guidelines.

Credentials must be displayed prominently throughout the game, including pre- and post-game coverage. Credentials must be displayed at all times. Pregame interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstances. Properly credentialed media representatives shall be allowed field access with four minutes remaining on the game clock. Interviews with players and/or coaches may not be conducted until the NCAA-mandated 10-minute cooling off period has expired. Individuals or organizations violating this policy may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium.

on assignment. Television organizations shall be restricted to one camera operator and one reporter on the field at all times, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office. Freelance and amateur photographers not on assignment are not eligible for sideline credentials, except by prior approval from the BYU Athletic Communications office.

All Mountain West Conference and NCAA rules shall be enforced regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yardlines. Sideline supervisors will patrol both sidelines to make certain all rules are enforced. Live or taped pregame interviews with players and/or coaches will not be permitted under any circumstance. Individuals or organizations violating sideline policies may be required to surrender their credentials and be removed from the stadium. For additional questions regarding photography guidelines, please contact University photographer Mark Philbrick at (801) 422-7322.

MEDIA SERVICES

The working media area is located on the third floor of the press box, situated on the west side of LaVell Edwards Stadium. Access to the press loge may be obtained via the north or south elevator.

The BYU Athletic Communications staff will provide working media with game notes, season stats, depth charts, flip cards, programs and media guides for both BYU and the visiting team prior to the game. Additional information, such as lineup and roster or jersey changes will be distributed as the information becomes available. An official statistical package complete with individual and team stats, play-by-play, scoring summaries, quotes, end-of-quarter stats and defensive stats will be distributed following the game. "Quickie Stats" will be available during timeouts and at the end of each quarter.

With four minutes remaining on the game clock, media are invited to take the south elevator to ground level in preparation for the post-game press conference. BYU head coach Gary Crowton and selected players will be available in the media room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The BYU locker room is closed to all media. The media room is located next to the BYU locker room under the southeast corner of the east grandstands. Quotes from both coaches and selected players will be available in the final stats package.

Several courtesy telephones (with campus extensions) will be available in the working area of the press box, while a limited number of phones will be available in the media room. All phones are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Phone lines can be purchased for your organization's exclusive use on a season-long basis. Collect or credit card calls can be made from each of these telephones.

PARKING

LaVell Edwards Stadium is located on the northwest corner of the BYU campus, just off Canyon Road (200 East) and University Parkway (1650 North) in Provo. Media parking is in Lot No. 2, immediately west of the stadium. Parking passes are required and must be obtained in advance.

INTERVIEWS

During the season, all player and coach interviews must be scheduled through Jeff Reynolds in the Athletic Communications office at (801) 422-4909. Interview requests must be made 24 hours in advance. Interviews with players and coaches may be conducted following selected practices during the week. Practices will be closed to media on Thursday and Friday prior to a Saturday game. Interview schedules will be adjusted for Thursday or Friday games. Players and coaches will not be available for interview prior to practice. Telephone interviews, for out-of-town media, can be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. Interviews with players on the day prior to the game, as well as game day, are not permitted. No player interviews will be conducted during regular class hours.

WEEKLY MWC TELECONFERENCE

A teleconference, featuring the head coach from each Mountain West Conference school, will be conducted each week during the season. For more information, including times and schedules, visit the official Mountain West Conference website at www.themwc.com. Media outlets may also contact Bob Buida at the MWC office for additional information.

WEB SITES

To have access to athletes, coaches, practice games, etc., Internet sites must be held to the same professional standards required of traditional media. Web site personnel must show caution, restraint and good judgement in covering potential student-athletes and the recruiting process. Proper judgement and an understanding of NCAA rules must be displayed at all times. Initial access will be provided for weekly interviews on a limited basis and reviewed regularly. Additional access may be granted to web sites that display professionalism over a period of time. Access will be determined on a case-by-case basis depending upon space and availability. Failure to adhere to the standards and regular media policies established by the BYU Communications office may result in the loss of privileges. Live, real-time updates will not be permitted.

SPORTS RADIO

All interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. The Athletic Communications office will not facilitate the broadcast of live guests during regular class hours. All interviews for sports talk radio must be conducted with players after practice or during the weekly media luncheon. Radio stations will be responsible for attending practices and for providing their own equipment (i.e. tape, digital recorders, telephones, etc). All sports talk radio stations will be issued one credential per home game.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each Wednesday, Coach Crowton and selected players will be available for interview purposes from noon until 1 p.m. All live electronic interviews, during the luncheon, must be arranged in advance with the Athletic Communications office. The luncheon is for credentialed media only. The weekly luncheon will be catered by a local restaurant and will be held in the new Student Athlete Building.

DISCLAIMER

The Brigham Young University Athletic Media Relations department reserves the right to revoke or deny working media credentials and/or access to any individual or organization at any time for any reason. All credentials are the property of Brigham Young University and must be surrendered upon request.

MEDIA COVERAGE

NATIONAL & REGIONAL TV

On February 1, 1999, ESPN, Inc., signed a seven-year contract with the Mountain West Conference, giving ESPN exclusive national television rights to football and men's basketball beginning with the 1999-2000 academic year. ESPN will also televise the Mountain West Conference Women's Basketball Championship game and one regular season game on the network.

An average of 21 football games will be televised per year, three of which will be broadcast on Thursday nights. Last season, ESPN televised three BYU football games while ABC televised two.

LOCAL TELEVISION BROADCASTS

KSL has been televising BYU football games since 1984. Now KSL-TV has pioneered a new and unique sports production entity — Bonneville SportsWest Productions. SportsWest broadcasts are produced by an award winning team and serve as the benchmark for the market and beyond.

Voice of Cougar football: Greg Wrubell

SportsWest has an agreement with BYU for local market broadcast rights to BYU athletic events that have not been acquired by ESPN.

KSL television (Channel 5) also hosts the weekly "Gary Crowton Show" every Sunday night at 11:15 p.m.

RADIO

The exclusive radio home of BYU Football and flagship of the Cougar

Sports Network is 50,000-watt KSL Newsradio 1160 in Salt Lake City. The "Voice of the Cougars" is Greg Wrubell, now in his 4th season as play-by-play commentator. A BYU alum, Wrubell joined the broadcast crew in 1992 as the sideline/locker-room reporter. He began calling BYU basketball games in 1996.

Joining Wrubell is game analyst and former BYU quarterback Marc Lyons. Lyons is a 23-year veteran of Cougar football broadcasts, and contributes to KSL's extensive midweek and gameday coverage.

Bill Riley is back for his fourth season covering Cougar football and second season as the sideline reporter for KSL. Riley, who anchors "Sports Final" nightly on KSL, also hosts the midweek "Gary Crowton Show" (Wednesdays 7 p.m.).

Chief Engineer John Dehnel returns for his 19th season, while veteran statistician Ralph Sokolowsky and spotter Doug Martin complete the lineup in the booth.

COMING TO PROVO

TO SALT LAKE CITY

Just 44 miles north of Provo lies the major metropolitan area of Salt Lake City; home of the 2002 Olympic Games.

Just 45 minutes northeast of Provo, on Highway 189, lies the winter resort mecca of Park City—home of the Sundance Film Festival and many events during the 2002 Winter Olympics.

Provo is also a major gateway to six national parks, seven National Monuments, two National Recreational areas, six National Forests and 44 State Parks.

Directions to LaVell Edwards Stadium from Salt Lake International Airport: Leave airport and head east on I-80 towards Salt Lake City/Provo. Exit I-80 Southbound on I-215. Follow I-215 around belt route until I-15 exit. Take I-15 Southbound towards Provo. Follow I-15 until Orem University Parkway Exit #272. Exit on University Parkway and head east. Follow University Parkway past University Avenue in Provo until you reach LaVell Edwards Stadium.

NATIONAL TELEVISION EXPOSURE

MEDIA ATTENTION

From national publications to live television broadcasts, BYU football is one of the more visible programs in the country. Since its first national television appearance in 1974, BYU has posted a 62-37-2 record while playing in front of a national audience, including a 24-16 mark on ABC and a 27-22-2 mark on ESPN. Dating back to 1980, the Cougars have appeared on national television an average of three times per season. The Cougars have played at least five games on national T.V. over seven different seasons, including the 2003, 2002, 2001, 2000, 1998, 1996, 1988 and 1985 seasons. Since 1980, BYU has played in at least one nationally-televised game per season. On Sept. 1, 1984, Robbie Bosco (right) led BYU to a 20-14 victory over Pitt in the first live ESPN College Football broadcast. Last year BYU played in one ESPN game (Boise State), two ESPN2 match-ups (Colorado State and Georgia Tech), two ABC games (USC and UNLV), and one NBC game (Notre Dame).

BYU has been a regular on ESPN's Thursday Night Game of the Week in recent history. The Cougars have compiled a 11-6 (.647) record in ESPN Thursday Night games.

COUGAR FOOTBALL – A GREAT CHOICE

BOWL GAMES Few teams can compare to BYU's bowl history. Since 1974, BYU has played in 23 bowl games, 19 of them as conference champion. At its highest, BYU's bowl streak had reached 17 straight games. The Cougars look to start another streak under coach Gary Crowton.

BIG GAMES Averaging nearly seven games on national television each of the last five years, BYU continues to establish itself as a national football power. With upcoming games against the ACC, PAC-10 and Notre Dame, the Cougars are ready to display their talents to a national audience against some of the nation's best competition.

BIG CROWDS There is nothing quite like Edwards Stadium, where over 64,000 screaming fans electrify the game-day experience. Rated the best stadium atmosphere in the Mountain West by Sporting News (April, 2000), BYU is home to some of the most loyal fans in the country.

BIG PLAYS How else can you rack up 7,057 yards in a season? Known for its offensive attack, BYU is always striving to improve, breaking offensive records for yards in a season, first downs and rushing yards during the 2001 season.

BIG WINS Under Lavell Edwards' 29-year reign, BYU claimed the League championship 20 times. Crowton's first year as head coach at BYU saw the Cougars claim their first outright Mountain West Conference Championship, after sharing the 1999 title. BYU's excellence on the field has reached outside the conference as the Cougars have posted wins over Miami, Washington, Notre Dame, Penn State, Texas, UCLA, Oregon, Kansas State and Texas A&M.

BIG TIME With a regular national audience, one of the nation's most prolific offenses and one of the most storied histories in college football, there's no better place to play football than BYU. Coach Gary Crowton is committed to taking the Cougars to even greater heights and adding to the tradition that is BYU football. Get ready.

"I love BYU because its mission is clear: To prepare young men and women to become leaders and influences of good in their communities. I know what it has done for me. I desperately want it for my own children and anyone who might have that opportunity. For those who have the opportunity to come to BYU, they are about to enjoy a life-changing experience. It's going to be a great ride.

— Vai Sihakema, Two-time all-pro NFL Veteran and Current Sports Anchor NBC-10 Philadelphia

FACILITIES: BYU has invested millions over the past three years to upgrade all of its football facilities. A new weight room, indoor practice facility, football offices and team meeting rooms, athletic training facilities, artificial turf practice field, and locker rooms at both 64,045-seat LaVell Edwards Stadium and in the new Student Athlete Building.

NFL PREPARATION: Although nicknamed the quarterback factory, BYU has had first-round selections at linebacker and offensive linemen in the past six years. Eight Cougars in the last three years have been selected in the NFL Draft, two in the second round. 27 former BYU players are currently on NFL rosters.

ACADEMICS: With 21 players on the 2003 All-Mountain West Conference Academic team to lead the MWC, BYU has demonstrated where its academics are headed. Assisted by SAAC Director E. J. Caffaro and academic coach Jim Hamblin, the Cougars look to stay on top of the MWC not only on the field but also in the classroom.

UNIQUE ATMOSPHERE: BYU provides an opportunity for athletes to grow mentally, physically and spiritually. Sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, BYU encourages religious learning in addition to a secular education, while BYU's honor code requires a drug and alcohol-free commitment from its students, helping them to focus on academic and athletic endeavors.

WINNING TRADITION: Along with 23 bowl appearances since 1974, the Cougars have had only two losing seasons in the last 30 years, while helping LaVell Edwards become the sixth winningest coach in college football history. Coach Gary Crowton looks to continue the Cougars' winning tradition as he enters his fourth season seeking his second Mountain West Conference Championship.

COACHING STAFF: The Cougars are led by a young and excited coaching staff headed by Gary Crowton, one of the finest offensive minds in the game. The coaches expect excellence, and much to the fans' delight, the players have responded. Behind Crowton's innovative and often daring play calling, the Cougars led the nation in total offense and scoring throughout the 2001 season.

ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE: BYU's 10 NCAA team championships, 998 All-Americans, and 273 conference championships have created a tradition of excellence. Today, success thrives in 21 varsity sports. Each of the past eight seasons, BYU has been ranked among the best all-around athletic departments in the nation.

SCHEDULE: Having faced the likes of Miami, Texas A&M, Florida State, USC, Notre Dame, and Washington, BYU always looks to take on top competition. The Cougars' upcoming schedule will bring UCLA, Arizona State, Florida State, Washington, USC and Notre Dame to LaVell Edwards Stadium.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE: With 33 nationally and regionally televised games over the last five years BYU football is in the spotlight. With a strong national following and winning tradition, together with the Cougars' high-profile schedule in the upcoming years, the national exposure of BYU Football is sure to increase.

GAME DAY AT EDWARDS STADIUM

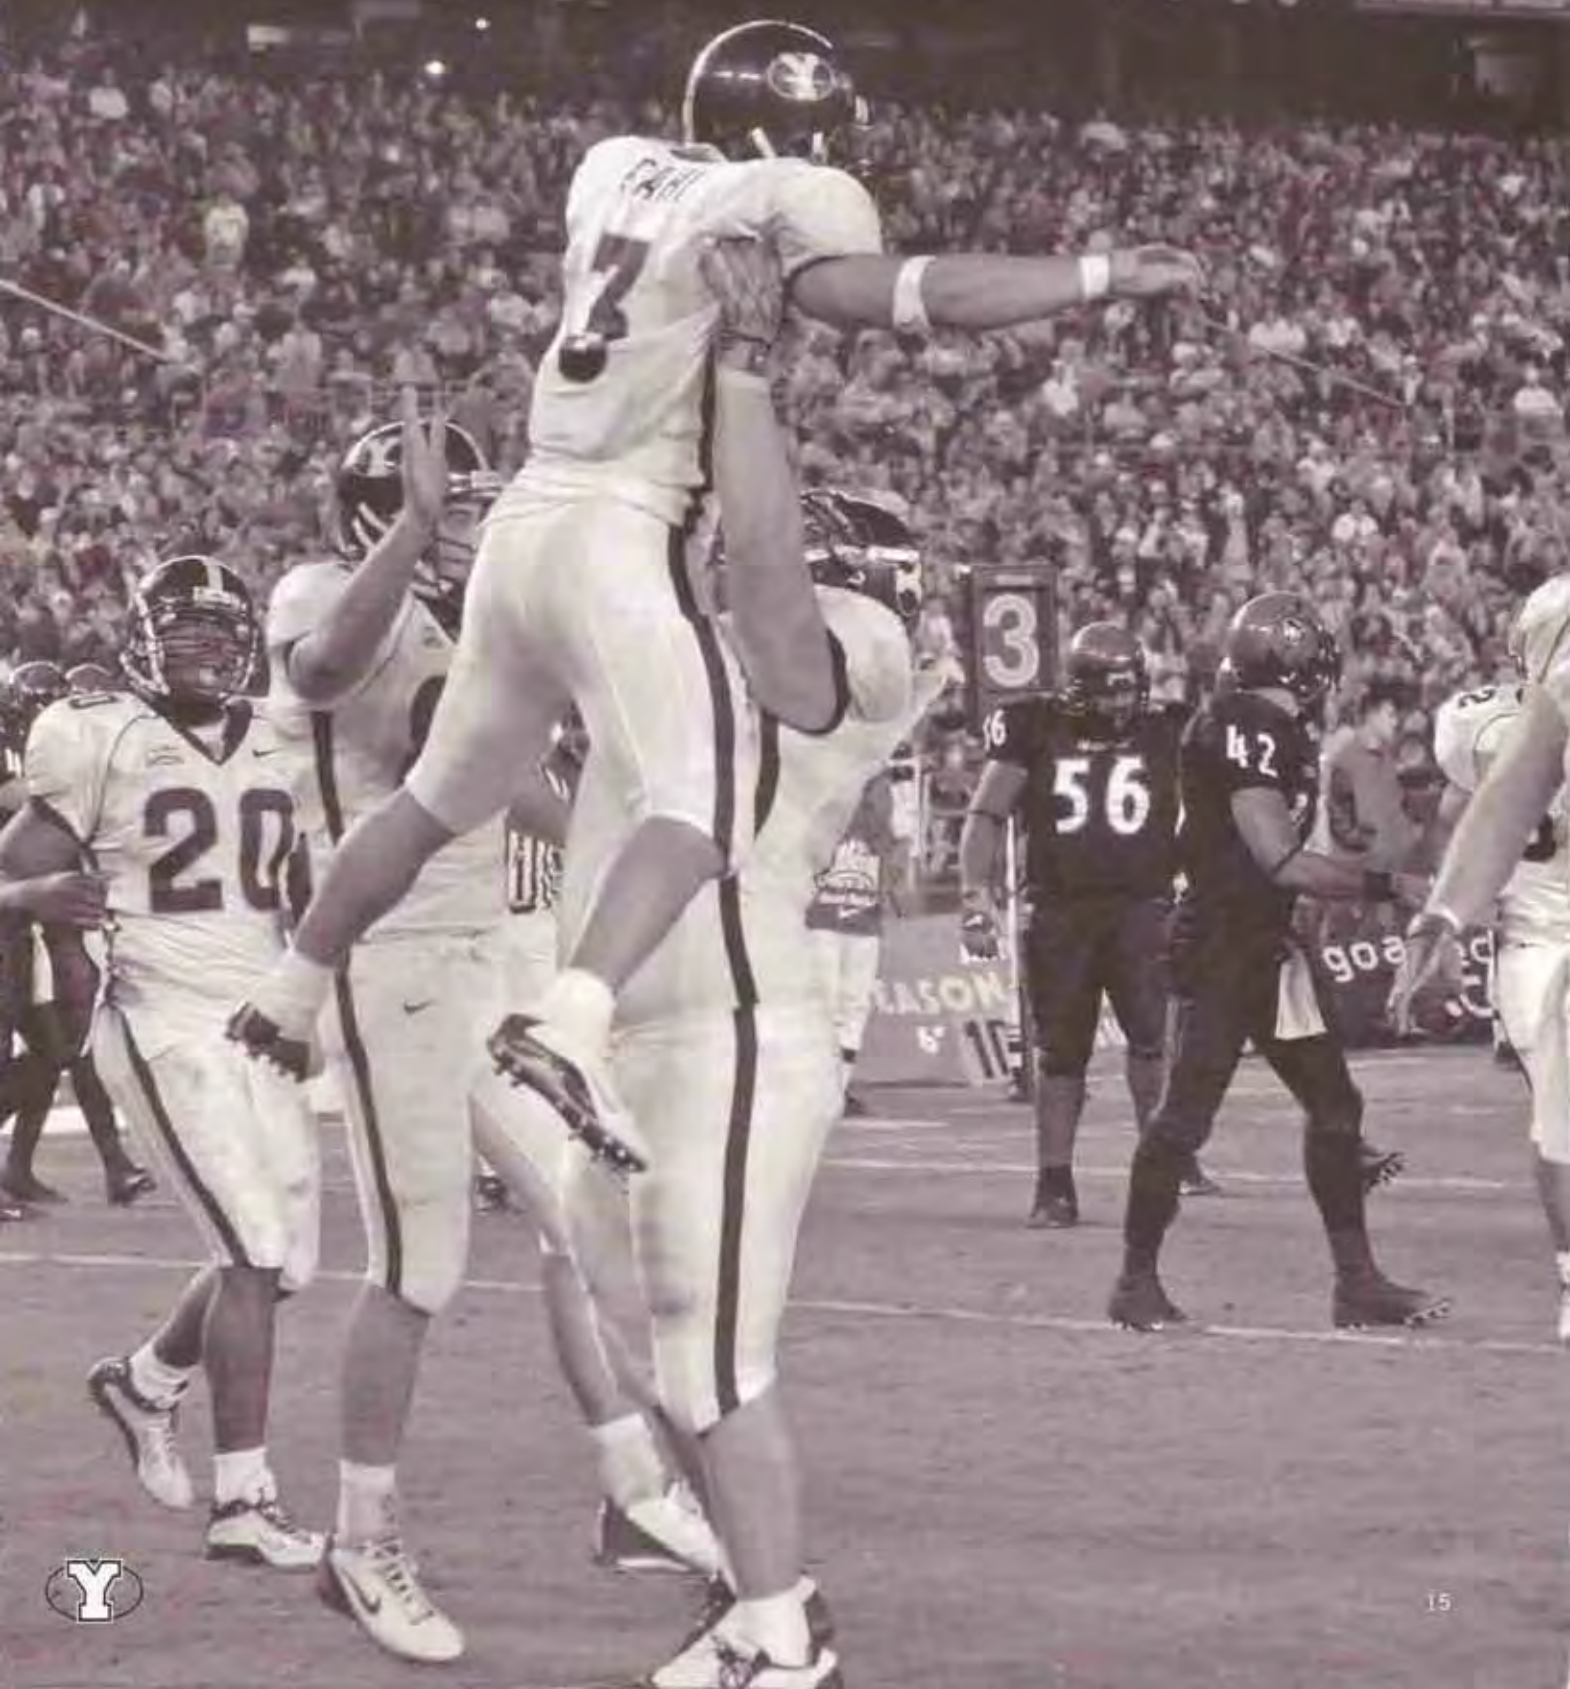

With 64,000 screaming fans and a stadium atmosphere that is hard to beat, LaVell Edwards Stadium is rated as one of the premier settings for college football in the country.

2004 SEASON PREVIEW

AN IN-DEPTH LOOK AT THE 2004 EDITION OF BYU FOOTBALL

COUGARS LOOK TO BOUNCE BACK FROM DIFFICULT 2003

Coming off back-to-back losing seasons for the first time since the 1970-71 seasons, the Cougars are anxious to get back to their winning ways. In a season that marks the 20th anniversary of the 1984 National Championship, there is no time like the present.

"We don't want to finish like we did last year," BYU head coach Gary Crowton says. "We made a lot of mistakes last year, but we've had the opportunity to evaluate those mistakes and correct them. With the returning players we have, with their experience, along with the new talent we have coming in, we have a chance to move forward. We've addressed some areas that we think will help us this season and make us a better football team."

Last season the Cougars were plagued with turnovers and at times, the inability to execute. Crowton says those issues have been addressed.

"We have so many goals," Crowton says. "As a team, we want to establish the ability to take care of the football. Next, we want to become a more physical football team. We're also going to improve our play execution. To accomplish these things, we've emphasized the basic part of the football game so we can execute well and take care of the football. We accomplished a lot of this during the spring."

The Cougars have a total of 30 letterwinners returning this season, including 17 on offense, 13 on defense and one special teams member. BYU welcomes back as many as 10 offensive players with starting experience, along with seven players who have starting experience on defense.

"I think the strength of this team will be its experience," Crowton said. "The experienced players will be able to help move our new recruits along. I'm also excited about the new players we have coming in. We have some very talented players who we have recruited from the junior college ranks, as well as some incoming freshmen who will be able to contribute from the very beginning."

"We have a good influx of new players along with the returning players, which gives us more depth and experience going into the season. We have the potential of being a much better team. I feel like we're heading in the right direction."

THE SCHEDULE

The Cougars will kickoff the 2004 season against one of the most storied college football programs in the country, Notre Dame will return to Provo—for the first time since the 1993 season—on Saturday, Sept. 4. Last season, the Fighting Irish came out on top, outlasting the Cougars 33-14 in South Bend.

When opening the season in Provo, the Cougars have had tremendous success over the years. During the Crowton era, BYU has posted a perfect 3-0 record in season opening games, outscoring opponents by an average 22.3 points per game. Since 2001, the Cougars have recorded wins over Tulane (70-35), Syracuse (42-23) and Georgia Tech (24-13).

In week two of the season, BYU will make its first-ever trip to Stanford. In a re-match of last season's 18-14 Cardinal victory, the Cougars will be looking to avenge a heart breaking loss.

On Sept. 18, the defending National Champions USC Trojans will make their first-ever appearance in Provo. While BYU fans still remember the magic that led to a monumental upset of top-ranked Miami (Fla.) in 1990, the Trojans remember a close, hard-fought victory in Los Angeles last season. Many Cougar faithful are thinking, "It's happened before, it could happen again." The Trojans know they will have to bring their 'A' game in order to leave Provo with a victory.

"I like playing Notre Dame and USC at home," Crowton says. "We have an opportunity to play against two of the most storied football programs in the history of college football, and we get to play them on our own field."

The Cougars will make their first-ever trip to Boise, Idaho on Friday, Sept. 24 for yet another non-conference rematch. Last season, a high-powered Bronco offense gave BYU all it could handle on a cold, snowy evening in Provo.

"I like our schedule," Crowton says. "It's going to be challenging, but we don't have to prepare for anyone new. We have seen all these teams before, so there's a familiarity that we can build from. It gives us a bit of a head start."

In Week 5, BYU will kickoff the MWC season with a return trip to the not-so-friendly confines of Hughes Stadium in Fort Collins, Colo. The Cougars have not won a game at Colorado State since the 1995 season. The following week, BYU will return to Provo for a Friday night contest against UNLV. A week later, BYU will play host to Wyoming. After back-to-back home games, the Cougars will travel to Air Force on Oct. 23.

Following a week off, BYU will host San Diego State (Nov. 6) and New Mexico (Nov. 13) before rounding out the regular season with a quick trip to Salt Lake City to take on its rivals from the North.

"This will be a challenging schedule," Crowton says. "But with having Notre Dame and USC, as well as four conference games at home, I like the advantage that can give us. We'll have to work hard and remain focused throughout the entire season. There are no easy games. We'll have to play hard each and every week."

OFFENSIVE PREVIEW

After leading the nation in scoring and overall offensive production in 2001, the Cougars have struggled to regain that same offensive production as of late. Thanks to a promising recruiting class—including a hearty dose of speed and skill from the junior college ranks—and experience at key positions, the Cougars will look to get the high-powered BYU offense rolling once again.

Last season, the Cougars ranked 102nd nationally in total offense, averaging an uncharacteristic 314.58 yards per game. In the scoring department, the Cougars posted just 16.33 points per contest, ranking 109th in the country.

"We want to move back in the direction we were moving in 2001, when we led the nation in scoring and total offense," Crowton says. "I'm not saying we're going to be that successful to begin with, but that's the direction we're trying to move. We're going to move toward a fast-paced, aggressive style of offense that BYU has always known."

In order to move in that direction, it's no secret the offense will need to make significant improvements in limiting the number of penalties and avoiding sacks, turnovers and dropped balls.

In 2003, the Cougars ranked last in the MWC with a negative 1.17 turnover margin per game. BYU also ranked eighth in allowed sacks, giving up 35 for 247 yards. The Cougars also finished eighth in the league in penalties with 87 for an average of 63.8 yards per game.

"We have to limit the number of penalties, sacks, turnovers and dropped balls," Crowton says. "We have to be better and more consistent at making plays. Improving in those areas will help us to be more efficient on offense and give us the ability to have more big plays. That is going to be our focus."

QUARTERBACK

With John Beck and Matt Berry competing for the starting job during spring drills, BYU Head Coach Gary Crowton indicated during the off-season Beck would be listed as the starting quarterback going into fall camp. However, with Berry recovering well from a hand injury, and junior-college transfer Jason Beck making strides, Crowton will have a tough decision to make before the season opener against Notre Dame on Sept. 4.

"I feel like it's such a competitive situation right now," Crowton says. "They all feel how competitive it is, and I think that will help us get better."

In addition to the competition factor that many attribute to a player's development, Crowton says it's a good thing to have two quarterbacks with starting experience competing for the job.

"I see a lot of growth in our quarterbacks because of the game experience they received last year," Crowton says. "I can see an improved understanding of the game. It's always good going into a season with quarterbacks who have experience."

While Berry started eight games as a sophomore, including five games with an injured throwing hand, Beck was able to gain valuable experience as a true freshman. He played in a total of eight games as well, including starts against Stanford, Air Force, San Diego State and Colorado State. With both quarterbacks entering the season with starting experience, it can only mean good news for the BYU offense.

Berry entered the 2003 season as the starting quarterback and led the Cougars to a season-opening victory against Georgia Tech, a respectable outing against USC and a league victory over New Mexico. However, near the end of the first half against the Lobos, Berry suffered a hand injury that required surgery, and limited him through the remainder of the season.

Despite the injury, Berry will return in 2004 as the Cougars' top producer from a season ago, posting 1,445 yards on 147-of-235 attempts. He completed a team-leading 62.6 percent of his pass attempts and had seven touchdown completions.

While Berry was out, Beck became only the second true freshman in BYU football history to start a game at quarterback. He gained valuable experience as a starter in four straight games, and saw action in eight of the Cougars' 12 games during the season. Beck posted 864 yards on 73-of-145 attempts and completed 50.3 percent of his attempts with five touchdowns.

Newcomer Jason Beck will also fit into the mix. Jason Beck comes to BYU from the College of the Canyons where he led the Cougars to an 11-1 record and earned unanimous All-Western States first-team honors. He threw for more than 2,000 yards and completed over 77 percent of his pass attempts.

"He's a bright player," Crowton says. "He's got 20 games under his belt as a starter under two different offenses at the junior-college level. He has a good feel for the game. He's had two years of recognizing defenses and getting the ball off."

With just over three weeks to go before the start of fall camp, senior Todd Mortensen announced he was transferring to the University of San Diego, making room for quarterbacks Jackson Brown and Greg Mortensen to move up the depth chart.

Brown saw action in two games during the 2003 season, completing 8-of-18 attempts for 93 yards. He posted a season-high five completions for 57 yards against Boise State. Mortensen comes to BYU after transferring from Mesa Community College where he completed 98-of-176 attempts for 1,431 yards and 12 touchdowns as a sophomore.

RECEIVER

Perhaps the position that received the most attention during recent recruiting efforts, the receivers will rely on increased height, speed and big-play potential.

"The thing we felt we needed to address going into recruiting was the need to increase our play-making ability," Offensive Coordinator Todd Bradford says. "We need to have the ability to turn short gains into big plays."

"We also needed to increase the depth of our receiving corps to allow us the ability to run the entire offense and not be so limited. We want to run plays that fit the abilities of our players and attack the defense and expose their weaknesses. With the depth we have now, we should be able to run anything we want. We should be able to run our entire offensive package."

Among the many new faces, the Cougars will rely on veterans Jason Kukahiko, Chris Hale and Rod Wilkerson for leadership and experience. Hale, a 5-foot-9, 175-pound junior is the team's top returning receiver after totaling 286 yards on 22 receptions last season. Wilkerson, a 6-foot-3, 190-pound senior had 21 receptions for 274 yards a year ago, while Kukahiko, a 6-foot-1, 190-pound senior posted 11 receptions for 139 yards. Hale and Wilkerson are listed as the top two receivers at the "Z" position entering fall camp, while Kukahiko is listed as the starter at the "F" position.

"We'll look to the veterans for their leadership and knowledge," Bradford says. "Their talents will continue to be a big part of what we're doing. They will be counted on heavily for our success."

Other receivers who have been in the program and will look to contribute include Brett Cooper (5-11, 186, So.); Cody Fommesbeck (5-8, 155, So.); Zac Collie (6-0, 185, So.); Matt Smith (6-2, 185, So.); David Gooch (6-3, 210, Jr.) and Matt Allen (6-0, 180, Fr.).

"These guys are all good enough to play," Bradford says. "Some are coming off redshirt seasons, others have had to overcome some injuries. We're expecting all of these guys to contribute and make an impact."

During the junior college signing period, the Cougars inked three receivers who arrived on campus in January. Each made an immediate impact during spring drills and are expected to play a significant role. Todd Watkins, a 6-foot-3, 185-pound junior, headlines the group of mid-year transfers, while Michael Morris, a 6-foot-1, 182-pound junior, adds big-play ability. Riley Weber, a 6-foot-1, 190-pound junior, also signed during the early signing period and brings experience to the roster. Watkins will enter fall camp as the starter at the "X" position, while Morris is listed as the No. 2 receiver at the "F" position, behind Kukahiko.

"These guys should be ahead of the curve," Bradford says. "Each had a solid spring. We feel like Todd really has a chance to be a big play receiver with his size and speed. He has the ability to go over the top and run by guys. Michael is a guy who can turn short plays into big plays. He's very athletic. We're going to do what we can to get him the ball and let him do what he can to turn it into a big play."

The Cougars also added three promising recruits from the high-school ranks, including Austin Collie (6-1, 185, Fr.); Antwain Harris (6-0, 195, Fr.) and Michael Reed (6-2, 190, Fr.). Joe Griffin is another junior-college transfer who will enter fall camp after recently graduating from Grossmont JC. Griffin posted 47 receptions for 901 yards last season and was credited with seven touchdowns.

"All four of these guys will be given a chance to prove they are ready to play right away. If they are, they will be right in the mix from the very first day,"

Bradford says.

TIGHT END

While BYU has long been known as

"Quarterback U", the success the Cougars have had in producing tight ends over recent years has not gone unnoticed. In what is quickly becoming a tradition, the Cougars appear to be stocked with talent at the tight end position.

After earning Freshman All-America honors last season, Daniel Coats returns and is listed as the starter entering fall camp. Coats, a 6-foot-3, 250-pound sophomore recorded 30 receptions for 378 yards and four touchdowns last season, ranking as the top tight end on the BYU roster.

Coats, a Freshman All-American in 2003, led all tight ends and ranked third on the BYU roster with 30 receptions for 378 yards and four touchdowns last season. Coats was named the Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Week after helping BYU to a 24-13 victory over Georgia Tech in last year's season-opener. He led the nation with six receptions for 93 yards and two touchdowns in his first game as a Cougar.

"Daniel had an outstanding freshman season," Offensive Coordinator Todd Bradford says. "We're expecting great things from him. He works hard; he does the things we've asked of him, both on and off the field; he's a dedicated husband and father; he stands for everything we're looking for in a player at BYU."

The John Mackey Award candidate will be joined in the stables by sophomore Phillip Niu. Like Coats, Niu also had a solid freshman season. He saw action in seven games before suffering a season-ending injury. The 6-foot-5, 243-pounder recorded eight receptions for 152 yards and two touchdowns, including what turned out to be the game-winner against New Mexico. Recovering from surgery, Niu was unable to compete during spring drills.

"Daniel and Phillip have some valuable game experience and we'll be counting on them for their knowledge of our opponents and for their leadership," Tight End Coach Mike Empey says. "They both had a solid season last year and we're going to look for them to continue to improve."

The Cougars will also look to sophomore Jeremy Gillespie and freshman Dennis Pitta for added depth at the position. Gillespie saw action throughout the 2003 season as a redshirt freshman, while Pitta had an outstanding spring and has moved his way up the depth chart. Pitta will compete this season before leaving on his mission to the Dominican Republic in January.

Others who will add depth to the position include Andrew Stacey, a 6-foot-3, 215 pound sophomore and Jonny Harline, a 6-foot-4, 235 pound sophomore, who has just returned from a Church mission.

After graduating in 2003, Aisaac Aiono has elected to forgo his senior season and will instead pursue career opportunities. Aiono, competed in seven games last year.

RUNNING BACK

With the loss of key players at running back, the Cougars will enter the season with two experienced and highly talented players to carry the load; however, running backs coach Lance Reynolds says having the necessary depth at running back is going to be a key issue he will need to address throughout the season.

DANIEL COATS

KORIE KEELE

"Our challenge this season will be to overcome our lack of depth," Reynolds says. "We may need to look at some things that will allow us to help us with our depth situation. We'll be looking for opportunities to help supplement the loss of some key players as we go through the season."

Entering fall camp, there is no question who the Cougars will rely on most often. While depth may in fact be an issue, Reynolds has a great deal of confidence in returning backs Fahu Tahi and Curtis Brown. Tahi and Brown are listed as the top two running backs entering fall camp. Reynolds says both players will be used early and often in the re-tooled BYU offense.

"While we could use a little more depth, I feel good about the players we'll have in camp," Reynolds says. "Fahu has starting experience and there isn't really anything Curtis Brown can't do. Those two are experienced, returning players who will be our primary backs."

Tahi was the Cougars' leading rusher as a true freshman in 1999 and returns as the top ball carrier from the 2003 season. Following his return from a Church mission in Florida, and a redshirt season in 2002, Tahi saw significant playing time and was a part-time starter for the Cougars last season. The 6-foot, 230-pound bruising back from West Valley City, Utah, gained 77 yards on 34 carries last season, and was credited with 14 receptions for 144 yards.

"Fahu gives us some effective options," Crowton says. "Because of his size and speed, we can use him as a running back or a fullback. He can run the ball well, he has the ability to catch the ball out of the backfield and can pass block. The big thing though, he gives us experience in the backfield."

Like Tahi, Brown also saw significant playing time as a true freshman in 2002, racking up 299 yards on the season. Cougar fans got a glimpse of Brown's talent against Utah State that season, leading BYU to a 35-point come-from-behind victory over the Aggies—the largest come-from-behind victory in school history. The 6-foot, 200-pound back racked up a career-high 217 yards on 33 carries with three touchdowns to earn MWC Player-of-the-Week honors.

Brown effectively gained 15 pounds during his redshirt season (2003) and looks to be faster and even more physical entering the 2004 season.

"Curtis gives us so many options," Crowton says. "He's gained some weight, so he's going to be more physical, but he's also quick. He did a great job last year giving our defense a workout as a member of the scout team. He really worked hard and we're expecting he will play a big role for us."

Reynolds said others will be expected to contribute at running back, including Bryce Mahuka, Eric Watterson and Nathan Mickle. Moa Peaua made the switch from defensive line to fullback during spring and will also look to play a role in specific situations.

"Moa Peaua is another player who will contribute," Reynolds says. "He's big and physical. He can run and is very athletic. The challenge for guys like Moa and Bryce [Mahuka] will be to get ready and be ready to contribute when we need them."

Mahuka returned from a Church mission earlier this year and participated in spring drills. Initially listed as a receiver, Mahuka moved to running back to help with the Cougars' need for depth.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Losing three starters from an offensive line can generally spell trouble.

JASON KUKAHIKO

Typically, in that scenario, it's time to rebuild. However, knowing Brandon Stephens, Scott Jackson and Quinn Christensen would be gone after the 2003 season, Crowton began rebuilding the offensive line long before losing three starters would become an issue.

The Cougars not only will benefit from having a returning starter in sophomore Jake Kuresa but also will have several players who are listed as returning, part-time starters. In addition, there are also others who have significant playing experience. Add to these key factors a high-intensity, effort-oriented philosophy that demands accountability and responsibility—courtesy of new assistant coach Jeff Grimes—and the offensive line can be expected to help the Cougars return to their prolific ways.

"It's difficult right now to say who the starting five offensive linemen will be," Grimes says. "The group is motivated to work hard right now because they all know they have to compete. I want to maintain that mindset throughout the season."

After moving from linebacker, junior Lance Reynolds has effectively bulked up to a stout 293 pounds and will anchor the offensive line at center. The only other player listed as a starter entering fall camp is senior guard Scott Young. The 6-foot-5, 312-pounder also made the transition from defense and redshirted in 2003 to prepare for his final season.

According to Grimes, others who will compete for starting jobs include Kuresa, Gary McGiven, R.J. Willing and Eddie Keele at tackle; along with Brian Sanders and Ofa Monetau at guard. Kuresa started all 12 games last season, while Keele and Monetau earned starts throughout the season.

The Cougars' projected starting offensive line averages 6-foot-4 and weighs in at an average 316.8 pounds per man.

"We're going to be big up front," Crowton says. "We're going to be a little bigger, a little stronger, a little quicker and a little older on the offensive line."

"This year we're more experienced with another year in the weight room and a little more maturity going into the season. We're not going to be playing all freshmen. We'll have some experience out there. These guys have a better feel for what's going on. It gives us a little more depth so we don't have to rely so heavily on the younger guys."

Other linemen expected to compete for playing time include junior college transfer Nick Longshore and junior Scott Tidwell at center; senior Hanale Vincent and junior Nate Hall at guard; and sophomores Paul Fisher and David Soliani at tackle.

According to Grimes, there will be other linemen in camp, however, he will need to become more familiar with their effort and skill levels before determining where they will fit in to the mix.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Under the direction of first-year defensive coordinator Bronco Mendenhall, the Cougars finished the season ranked 14th nationally in total defense. Mendenhall's defense, known for its aggressive style and multiple formations, finished ranked eighth in pass defense and 33rd in rushing defense. With totals like that, one might think such lofty rankings might be difficult to obtain two years in a row, especially when you consider the Cougars will be without the services of all three linebackers, a starting nose tackle, two corners and a safety from last year's team.

"Last year was a baseline," Mendenhall says. "It's a place for us to start. I don't know how you can have a new coach come in, teach a new system to the defensive staff and the players, under difficult circumstances, all within a year, and not expect to improve on that."

"Now that the returning players and coaches have a year under their belts, the teaching methodology, the mindset and the expectations are clear. I would expect last year to serve as a starting point."

"By no means are we satisfied with our performances last year. I expect us to be better."

While there are those who will enter fall camp with a year of experience under their belts, the fact is the BYU defense will be without at least 12 players who contributed last season, including the likes of Jemaro Gifford, Colby Bockwoldt, Mike Tanner, Levi Madarieta, Josh Brendon, Mo Pili, Chad Barney, James Allen, Kip Nielsen, Jared Meibos and Bill Wright—just to name a few.

"Even though we are losing 12 players who contributed to some degree, there are a significant number of returning players who have playing experience," Mendenhall says. "Experience is going to be a strength, but our depth is not. We have addressed our needs for depth in the recruiting plan."

Under Mendenhall's system, players who work hard, know their assignments and consistently make plays will see action, and plenty of it. That motivational model will provide Mendenhall the depth he needs to rotate as many as 20 players per game.

"The depth will be provided by the new faces," Mendenhall says. "How much depth we have will be determined by how ready they are when they show up for fall camp. Knowing the standard in which we prepare is an extreme standard, whoever can hang on and survive will become our depth."

For that reason, many of the second- and third-team assignments have yet to be determined.

"The depth at each position is wide open," Mendenhall says. "I'm not comfortable at all with our second- and third-team players right now. I'm comfortable with our first-team, so the newcomers are going to have to come in ready to compete and provide us the depth we need."

DEFENSIVE LINE

One position that will benefit from a wealth of talent and experience is the defensive line.

"I think the defensive line will be the strength of the defense, both in experience and depth," Mendenhall says. "When you look at the players, from the starters on down, there are a number of guys who are going to contribute at some level."

Entering fall camp, John Denney, Daniel Marquardt and Brady Poppinga are listed as the starting linemen. The trio combined for 114 tackles last season, including 20 tackles for a loss. Poppinga has been listed as a candidate for the Bronco Nagurski award, honoring the top defensive player in the country.

"The defensive line, when you look at leadership, experience and depth, that's why I would view that as the strongest position we'll have," Mendenhall says.

That depth will come from redshirt

"Those guys have very little baggage," Mendenhall says. "Carlson-Maddux played between 18 and 30 plays per game last season, and Michael Marquardt had a nice spring coming off a mission. He was a nice surprise."

Sophomore Hala Paongo, junior Manala Brown and newcomer Vince Feula will have the opportunity to add depth at nose tackle.

LINEBACKER

Normally, the thought of losing all three linebackers to graduation would be reason enough to wave a white flag. However, there is a great deal of optimism surrounding the stable of linebackers the Cougars have entering fall camp.

The Cougars will benefit from the return of three-year starter Paul Walkenhorst at outside linebacker. Walkenhorst sat out last season with an injury and is 100 percent for his final season. He will be joined by redshirt freshman Cameron Jensen at middle linebacker and junior Bryant "The Silencer" Atkinson. Atkinson gained valuable experience last season, recording 14 tackles in 10 games throughout the year. He is quietly making his presence known. Jensen worked out with the scout team last season after returning from a Church mission just prior to the start of fall camp. He will enter fall camp as the first-team middle linebacker after having an outstanding spring.

"Paul has a great deal of experience, but not experience in this system," Mendenhall says. "Jensen had a nice spring and has an impressive work ethic. Atkinson played last season as a back-up. So, I wouldn't say we have a great deal of experience, but I do see some talent. Depth is also an issue. There are a lot of questions, in terms of depth. We're hopeful we will have guys step up and do what needs to be done to improve our depth."

Junior college All-American Justin Luettergrod missed spring ball due to an injury, but is healthy now and expected to compete for a starting job at outside linebacker. Newcomers Richard Nehring, Gary Lovely and William Turner will also have a chance to add depth and compete for playing time. Returners Lawrence Cowan and Markell Staffieri will also look to contribute at linebacker.

K.C. BILLS

SAFETY

It goes without saying that senior Aaron Francisco is one of the major keys to the BYU defense. After all, he only racked up 116 tackles last season. Aaron will return as the starter at the Cougarback position and will anchor the defensive secondary.

"He's one of the keys to our defense," Mendenhall says. "He is a very good player."

Francisco will be joined at the Katback position by two-year starter Jon Burbidge. Burbidge hasn't garnered a great deal of attention, but his on-field performance has not gone unnoticed. Burbidge racked up 32 tackles last season, produced four tackles for a combined loss of 14 yards, had a 15-yard interception return, four pass break-ups, a quarterback hurry and a recovered fumble.

"He is a heady, tough football player who is continually improving," Mendenhall says.

The left Katback position has some question marks. That position was vacated by James Allen, and taken over by Kellen Fowler. After spring ball, Fowler decided to leave for a Church mission, leaving the position wide open. Junior Spencer White took over the position during spring and made an immediate impression.

"Spencer is steadily improving," Mendenhall says. "He outperformed other players in every scrimmage during spring. You might say he inherited the position to begin with, but he has since earned it through a lot of hard work."

To help add depth at Katback, K.C. Bills has made the move from middle linebacker to safety. That's a move you won't see every day, but according to Mendenhall, Bills has the athletic ability to play just about anywhere.

"He's one of the best athletes on the team," Mendenhall says. "He played quite a bit at middle linebacker last year, but he is such a tremendous athlete, that's why we've moved him to safety. When I looked at the defense to see who was our best athlete, K.C. was the guy."

Others who are expected to add depth include Dustin Gabriel and Quinn Goodrich, along with newcomers Ibrahim Rashada, Billy Skinner and Karlend Bennett.

CORNERBACKS

Knowing the Cougars would be losing both starting cornerbacks to graduation, the team got a dose of good news during the off-season when senior corner Brandon Heaney was given an additional year of eligibility. Heaney had suffered through shoulder problems during the 2002 season. Heaney went down with a season ending shoulder injury halfway through the first game of the 2003 season.

"There aren't enough guys like Brandon Heaney," Mendenhall says. "We will benefit from his experience and leadership at corner. The thing with him is not what kind of a player he is, but will he be durable enough? He's been working hard."

Heaney will enter fall camp as the starter at right corner, while junior Nate Soelberg will enter camp as the starter at left corner. Soelberg saw increased playing time throughout the season and was credited with 13 tackles, including a season-high four stops against Notre Dame.

"The last two or three games he played, he was outperforming the other these new guys will start moving up the depth chart. Greg Lovely was recruited because of need. He has three years to play three and he is a tremendous cover player. B.J. Mathis has a lot of speed and he will be able to help us. Kayle Buchanan is back from a mission and Ryan Beck is someone we think can help out as well. We'll learn a little more about these guys as fall camp progresses."

SPECIAL TEAMS

For the third straight season, much of the success of the special teams will be carried upon the able shoulders of senior Matt Payne. Payne will handle the duties at kicker and punter for the Cougars again this season.

As one of the top kickers/punters in the nation, Payne averaged 44.0 yards per punt last season and converted on 14-of-18 field goal attempts and 20-of-20 extra-point attempts.

"It's good to have Matt," Special Teams Coordinator Paul Tidwell said. "He is very reliable. I don't ever have to worry about him. It means a lot to him to be successful. He takes his job seriously and does the things necessary to keep getting better."

"We build around Matt. We've got to make sure we build around him in our punting game, especially."

Defensive end John Denney will enter the season as the starting long snapper, for both punting and field goal attempts, while the search will continue for someone to hold. Entering fall camp, Riley Weber and Matt Allen are listed as the probable holders.

per punt last season and converted on 14-of-18 field goal attempts and 20-of-20 extra-point attempts.

"We need to be more pressure oriented," he says. "We want to apply more pressure and block more punts. We also need to get down field and cover better. We've been given the green light to use more experienced guys to help us out on these cover teams. We've also changed some things around and we're going to do some things a little differently."

Tidwell said part of his off-season duties has been to find a way to improve the Cougars' kick- and punt-return numbers. Last season, BYU averaged just over 20 yards per kick return and only 8.0 yards per punt return.

Entering fall camp Brett Cooper and Nate Soelberg are listed as the top two kick returners. Tidwell says he expects to try some of the newcomers as well, and he expects Todd Watkins, Michael Morris, Antwain Harris and B.J. Mathis will contribute.

"I think Harris and Mathis are going to be very, very good," Tidwell says. "They will compete for the starting job

A LOOK AT BYU FOOTBALL'S COACHES AND STAFF

GARY CROWTON

BYU'S HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Gary Crowton, entering his fourth season as the head coach, has guided the Cougars to a 21-17 record since arriving in Provo in 2001. This season Crowton will lead the Cougars against top teams such as Notre Dame, Stanford, USC and Boise State, as well as a tough Mountain West Conference schedule.

In his first season as head coach at BYU, Crowton constructed the nation's top-rated offense, posting a 12-2 record, including 12 straight victories to start his BYU career. For his efforts, he was named the MWC Coach of the Year as the Cougars won their first-ever outright MWC championship.

Crowton, the former offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears and previous head coach at Louisiana Tech, was introduced by Brigham Young University President, Merrill J. Bateman in December 2000, as the 13th head football coach at BYU.

Crowton, a native of Orem, Utah, took over a BYU program that had been under the direction of college football's sixth all-time winningest coach, LaVell Edwards. Edwards took over the program in 1972, coaching the Cougars to a 257-101-3 (.716) record over 29 seasons.

"He's the most phenomenally innovative offensive mind to come around in a long time. He has a brilliant ability to pick people apart, including very experienced defensive coordinators."

— Dr. Jerry Punch, ESPN Analyst

Crowton, 47, came to BYU with a long and proven list of coaching accomplishments. Prior to serving as the offensive coordinator with the NFL's Chicago Bears, where his offense ranked third in the NFL in passing yardage during the 1999 season, Crowton was head coach at Louisiana Tech from 1996-1998. There he guided the Bulldogs to a 21-13 (.618) record over three seasons, including a 9-2 mark in 1997.

Competing as an independent for three straight years, Louisiana Tech recorded wins over the likes of Mississippi State, Cal and Alabama. Using its Crowton-designed, high-powered offense, the program also recorded impressive wins by scoring 50-or-more points against eight different opponents, including games of 60-or-more points in five different games.

Crowton's offense ranked third in the nation, both in passing and total offense, while the Bulldogs racked up 12,746 yards passing in three years, an average of 4,249 yards per season. The prolific Tech offense also produced 115 touchdown receptions, averaging 38.3 TDs per season.

Gary Crowton's powerful offense averaged an amazing 46.7 points per game and 543 yards per game to lead the nation in scoring and total offense in 2001.

Under Crowton, NFL first-round draft pick Troy Edwards recorded a Tech-record 280 receptions and 4,352 yards receiving. Over a span of 34 games, Crowton's offense at Louisiana Tech engineered 22 different 300-yard passing games, including a school-record 10 300-yard outings during the 1998 season. In 1998, Crowton's final season at Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs combined for a school record 4,943 yards passing.

Crowton's coaching career actually began in 1982 as a student assistant under LaVell Edwards at BYU. While at BYU, he worked with current Seattle Seahawks head coach Mike Holmgren and future NFL Hall of Famer, Steve Young. From BYU, Crowton moved on to Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he coached from 1983-86. While at Snow College, Crowton moved from defensive backs coach to offensive coordinator. Under his offensive leadership, the Badgers won the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship in 1985.

From Snow College, Crowton moved to Western Illinois, where he directed the Leathernecks' passing game for a single season. In 1988, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at New Hampshire, where the Wildcats were the top-rated passing team in the Yankee Conference from 1988-90.

In 1991, Crowton was hired as the quarterback coach at Boston College under head coach Tom Coughlin. There he helped develop quarterback Glenn Foley as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy. After three successful seasons with the Eagles, Crowton was hired as the co-offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where his offense led the Yellow Jackets to a No. 21 national ranking in 1994. In 1995, Crowton was hired as the offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he became the head coach the following season.

Crowton was an all-league quarterback at Orem High School before earning All-American honors at Snow College. Crowton transferred to Colorado State, where he finished his career. Following an LDS Church mission to South Korea, Crowton attended Idaho State, where he ran track for the Bengals. After returning to BYU in 1982, Crowton earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983.

Crowton, who was the first-ever head football coach at BYU to have served an LDS Church mission, is married to the former Maren Peterson of Bountiful, Utah. The couple was married on August 3, 1985. The Crowtons have seven children, including Dane (18), Tara (16), Jenessa (13), Quinn (10), Mikauli (8), Toriana (4) and Macloud (2).

BYU head coach Gary Crowton became only the second coach in BYU Football history to win 12 games in a single season. Crowton's previous single-season best record was 9-2 at Louisiana Tech during the 1997 season.

"I'm excited about his intensity that he brings, his discipline, his focus and his knowledge of the game."

—BYU Defensive Coordinator Bronco Mendenhall

"He's so confident, he makes you feel the same level of confidence. He knows how to talk with players on their level."

—Marcus Robinson, Chicago Bears wide receiver

"Gary has always struck me as a coach that had the kids' interest at heart. I know his players loved playing for him and not just because of the wide-open offense he ran which made the games a lot of fun for them. The student-athletes at Louisiana Tech had tremendous experiences under his guidance."

—Craig Thompson, Mountain West Conference Commissioner

Playing Career: Played on the 1984 Ricks Junior College team that played for the national championship in the Valley of the Sun Bowl. Played defensive back for Southern Utah with an 8-3 senior year.

Education: Southern Utah (1986); Ricks Junior College (1984), Granite H.S.

Hometown: Salt Lake City, Utah

MIKE EMPEY

Recruiting Coordinator Tight Ends

Years Overall: Entering 11th

Prior to BYU: 1994-96 graduate assistant at BYU; 1997-98 tight end coach at UNLV; 1999 head coach at Snow College.

Bowl Games Coached: 3

NFL Players Coached: 7

Of Note: Signed as a free agent with the Dallas Cowboys ... as head coach at Snow, Empey led the Badgers to a 7-3 record, finishing tied for third in the Western States Football League. The Badgers were ranked as high as No. 10 during the season and led the nation in passing, averaging 351 yards per game. Snow also ranked second in the nation in total offense, producing 486 yards per game ... joined BYU's staff full-time in Spring 2000, and also assisted with the offensive tackles ... coached two tight ends taken in the 2002 and 2003 NFL drafts, with TE Doug Jolley being selected in the second round of the 2002 draft ... served an LDS Church mission to San Jose, Calif.

Playing Career: All-WAC as an offensive tackle at BYU in 1993 ... 2 time WAC scholar athlete ... started during part of 1991 and all of 1992 ... played for BYU (1987, 91-93) ... helped lead the Cougars to four straight bowl appearances, including the All-American Bowl in 1987, the Aloha Bowl in 1992 and the Holiday Bowl in both 1991 and 1993.

Education: BYU (1996 M.S. in exercise science; 1994, B.S. in athletic training).

Hometown: Pocatello, Idaho

Family: Wife (former Stephanie Wright), daughters (Makenzie, Savanna and Haven) and son (James).

JEFF GRIMES

Assistant Coach
Offensive Line

Years at BYU: Entering First Year

Prior to BYU: Running game coordinator at Arizona State (2003); offensive line coach at Arizona State (2000-03); offensive line coach at Boise State (2000); offensive line coach at Hardin-Simmons University (1998-99); graduate assistant at Texas A&M (1996-98); graduate assistant at Rice University (1995-96); offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at Riverside High School in El Paso, Texas (1993-95).

Bowl Games Coached: 2 (2002 Holiday Bowl, 2000 Humanitarian Bowl)

NFL Players Coached: 5

Of Note: Under Grimes, ASU's 2001 offensive line, led by NFL draft choices and All-Pac-10 selections Scott Peters and Levi Jones, helped ASU finish fourth in the Pac-10 in rushing, averaging 167.1 yards per game. Four of Grimes' offensive linemen were taken in the 2001 NFL Draft for the first time in school history. Having four linemen selected in a single draft marked only the second time that had been done at any school since 1993—the first year the NFL adopted the seven-round draft format. After losing four offensive linemen to the NFL, Grimes assembled a new offensive line in 2002 that protected the ninth-rated passing offense in the country. In 2003, Grimes' offensive line helped Loren Wade break the ASU freshman rushing record and lead the Pac-10 in yards per carry. At Boise State, Grimes' offensive line helped the Broncos lead the nation in scoring offense and accumulate 175 rushing yards per game.

Playing Career: Spent time in training camps with the Los Angeles Raiders of the NFL and the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League. A four-year letterman as an offensive tackle at UTEP (1986-90), Grimes played under current ASU head coach Dirk Koetter when Koetter was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Miners (1986-88). As a sophomore and junior at UTEP, Grimes played under current Philadelphia Eagles' head coach Andy Reid.

Education: Texas A&M (1997, M.A. in education administration); UTEP (1991, B.A. in education), Lakeview Centennial High School (Garland, Texas, 1986)

Hometown: Garland, Texas.

Family: Wife (former Sheri Hermesmeyer), daughter Bailey and son Garrison

JAY OMER

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

Years Overall: Entering 20th

Prior to BYU: Omer came to BYU after spending eight seasons at Georgia Tech as the Director of Player Development, responsible for overseeing the strength and conditioning program for Tech's 16-sport athletics program.

Bowl Games Coached: 4

Of Note: Omer is responsible for implementing and directing team weight training and conditioning programs for each of the University's 21 intercollegiate sports. In 1997, Omer was honored by the National Strength and Conditioning Association as the Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year for the Atlantic Coast Conference. Omer joined the Yellow Jacket staff in January of 1993 after three years as the strength and conditioning coach at Washington State in Pullman, Wash. He previously served as Director of Strength and Conditioning at East Carolina University from 1987-90. Omer also worked as an assistant strength coach at Tulane University from 1985-87 and as a graduate assistant at Auburn University from 1984-85. From 1976-84, Omer was the head football coach and athletic director for the Duchesne School District in Roosevelt, Utah for Union High School.

Playing Career: In 1969, Omer was an all-conference offensive lineman for Snow College.

Education: Auburn (1985, Master's degree in education with an emphasis in exercise physiology and strength training); Southern Utah (1972); Orem HS (1967).

Hometown: Orem, Utah

Family: Wife (former Vicki Reynolds) and daughters (Nissa, Keely) and sons (Joe, Travis).

SPEED, STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The fourth quarter is winding down. BYU has the ball, but Mississippi State has the lead as Luke Staley takes the hand-off and runs off-tackle right. The defense is expecting Staley to carry the ball and reacts to his every move. There's a linebacker waiting for him as he turns the corner at the line of scrimmage. The rest of the defense is closing in. With no where to go, Staley lowers his shoulder and meets the linebacker head on. They rise like two waves crashing against each other. For a split second it seems like a standstill, then the linebacker buckles and falls backwards as Staley plows ahead.

Four yards later, after the defensive end and cornerback that he carried on his back are off of him, Staley picks himself up off the linebacker and jogs back to the huddle. Staley won the battle and BYU is four yards closer to winning the war.

In war, only the strong survive.

While head coach Gary Crowton creates the battle plan, it's up to Jay Omer to make sure the troops are strong enough to carry it out. Brought on by Crowton shortly after the head coach's hiring, Omer brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the Cougar training program that BYU's athletes and coaches have bought into.

"I've had nothing but high praise from every athlete I've spoken to about Jay," said BYU athletic director Val Hale. "The athletes have responded to him and his program."

"It's the most excited and committed I've seen my players in the weight room since I've been here," said Cougar basketball coach Steve Cleveland.

"He's loyal, he cares and he works very hard," said Crowton. "His only concern is to see the players improve themselves, see the team get to its potential and see us win games. That's it."

As director of strength and conditioning, Omer is responsible for the development and implementation of training programs for athletes in all of BYU's 21 intercollegiate sports. Conditioning encompasses all facets of physical performance. From speed and quickness, to cardiovascular endurance and brute strength, Omer creates programs designed to increase them all. Training programs are sport-specific and position-specific within each sport, allowing athletes to focus on what they need to succeed in their individual competitive endeavors.

In no sport is the need for strength more evident than in football. Each game, each play can be decided by who tires first. Week in and week out, players give and take a beating and are expected to come back for more of the same the next week. Less than a year after his arrival, Omer's subjects were seeing huge returns on their investment. Most players had increased their personal lifts 15-25 percent. Mike Tanner, a linebacker who was bench-pressing 330 pounds when Omer arrived, was lifting 400 at summer's end.

Conditioning also increases the production of athletes as it helps to prevent injury. In 2000, the BYU football team was riddled with injuries as they went through four games over a 19-day period. Although football is a contact sport where injuries are common, proper conditioning can help to avoid major injuries and reduce the recovery time of minor injuries. An athlete in top condition tends to recover faster and be better able to withstand the rigors of physical activity.

Not only does the conditioning program improve each player as an individual, but it also improves the team as a whole. Working and sweating with each other in the weight room helps bring the players together. Seeing each person sacrifice and succeed in the off-season builds a camaraderie that carries over to the field as players work to make each other and the team better.

"He [Omer] has brought us a feeling of team chemistry, working out together and being accountable," said Teag Whiting, an former offensive lineman. "There's nothing we're going to see on the football field this season that's any tougher or harder than we're facing in our workouts. It makes us close."

The results BYU players have realized have come from dedication and sacrifice. It's a time-consuming and

"He's the most different kind of coach I've ever been around in my life. He gets you to do stuff. He never yells, he never berates you or is demeaning in any way. There's just a presence about him that gets you to do it. It's like he's a Vulcan or Yoda or something. You find yourself doing it, you find yourself pushing yourself and you don't know why. You don't want to disappoint him because it means something to you and your teammates."

— Jason Seakane, Offensive Lineman 1998-2001

2001 Doak Walker Award Winner
Luke Staley and many others have maximized their athletic potential under the direction of head strength conditioning coach Jay Omer.

"I like to see kids work hard, make something of themselves and improve their abilities. That's the joy of this job. I'm also on the same page with coach Crowton. We believe a team can only be successful if it prepares well and has team chemistry. You can have a team of super stars, but I'd rather have a team of less talent that works hard, cares about each other, has team chemistry and will go to war because they believe in each other. That's what it's all about and that's what we're trying to get done here."

— Jay Omer, BYU Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

often painful process in which athletes push themselves to higher levels of performance, and Omer is there to watch over them the whole time.

"The man is a sadist," said former offensive guard Jason Scukanec. "[but] you find yourself doing it, you find yourself pushing yourself and you don't know why. You don't want to disappoint him because it means something to you and your teammates."

Each fall when the Cougars take the field, they carry with them the hopes of BYU fans across the nation. With each passing week and after every win, those hopes get bigger and weigh more on the players. Arriving at the gym before most people are out of bed and staying until long after most people have gone home for the night, Jay Omer takes those hopes very seriously. It's his job to make sure the players are strong enough to carry those hopes to one more victory, one more title, one more bowl.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

The toughest challenges a BYU football player will face while in college may not line up across from him in a different color jersey. Splitting their time between the classroom, the weight room, the training room and the field can make academic success a more difficult challenge than any they will face on the field.

The BYU student athlete is not alone in his quest for academic excellence. As a team surrounds him in the field to help him reach another championship, a different team is in place to help him attain his academic goals.

E. J. Caffaro, brought on by head coach Gary Crowton shortly after his own arrival, is the new director of the Student Athlete Academic Center and is in charge of monitoring players' success in the classroom and their progress toward graduation. "Coach" is more than just a title for Caffaro as he earned the honorific outside of his current position. He has coached football and basketball for the past 15 years at Snow College and Ricks College before coming to BYU.

"Coach Crowton wanted someone in this position that had been a coach previously," said Caffaro. "A coach can better understand the players, what they go through day to day and how to deal with them."

Caffaro is assisted by academic coach Jim Hamblin, another former football coach. Both serve as mentors to the players and are active participants in their academic careers from the time they arrive.

"We talk schedules with the freshmen and try to get them into certain classes to help get them acclimated to the workload," said Caffaro. "We want to emphasize good structure and support in their academics."

As mentors, they monitor players' progress from registration through finals. They have access to players' grades and, should signs of problems arise, they try to solve them before they become serious. Tutors are available through the Student Athlete Center at any time, yet the athlete must take the initiative to arrange it. Should an athlete's GPA fall below 2.5, Caffaro and the other mentors will take a more active role in that athlete's academics by placing the athlete on study table.

Once on the study table program, an athlete will be under a rigorous system of checks and balances to ensure that they are getting their class work taken care of. Caffaro and the other mentors take it upon themselves to arrange tutors for athletes on study table and follow up with the tutors to make sure the work is getting done.

Each Monday morning, all study table athletes meet at 7 a.m. to plan their week, giving time for classes, workouts, team meetings and homework. Caffaro also requires athletes to attend study hall between four to six hours a week. In addition, runners are sent to classes to make sure the athletes are attending so they don't fall behind.

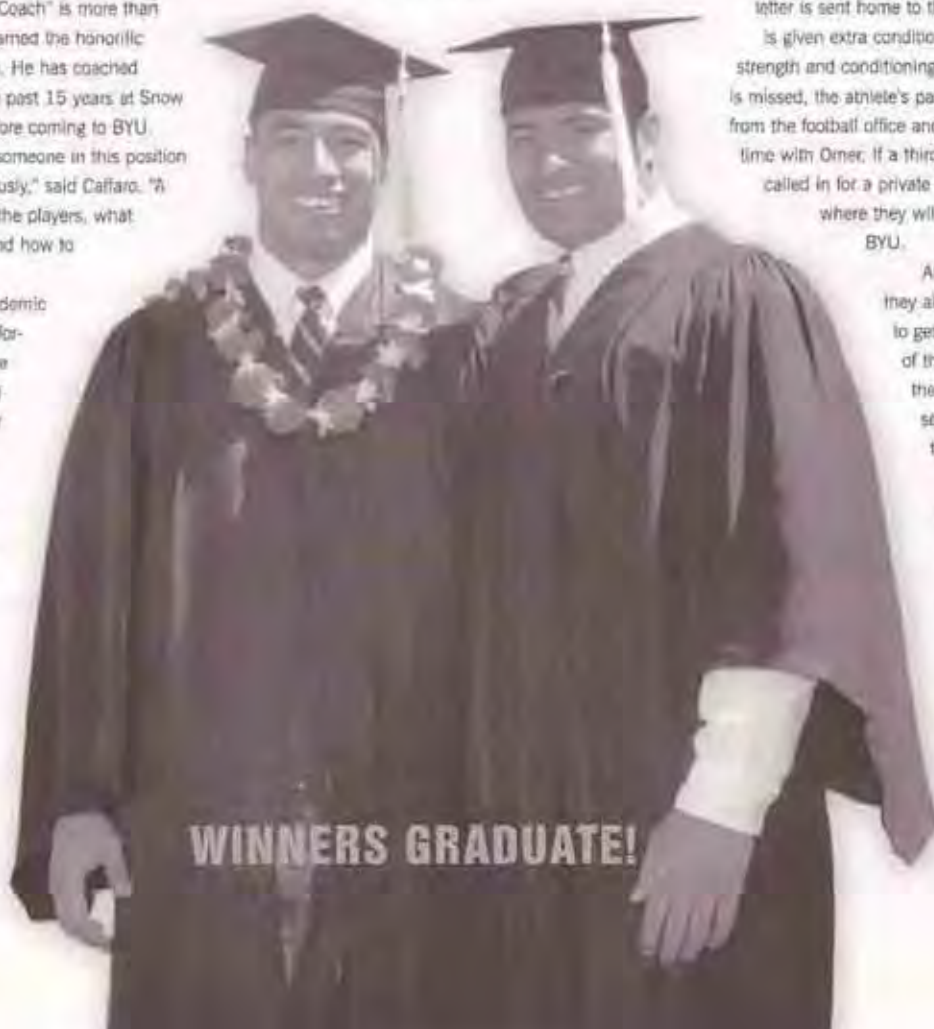

"It's weird," said defensive back Brandon Heaney. "but it gives me a set time to do my homework and we have coaches in there watching and making sure we get our work done."

Should an athlete on study table miss a class, a letter is sent home to their parents while the athlete is given extra conditioning time with Jay Omer, the strength and conditioning coordinator. If a second class is missed, the athlete's parents will receive a phone call from the football office and the athlete is given more time with Omer. If a third class is missed, the athlete is called in for a private interview with coach Crowton where they will discuss the athlete's future at BYU.

Although many find it "weird" they also find it a strong motivation to get their academics in order. Half of the athletes on study table make their way off it after just one semester. Helping them get there is coach Caffaro.

"Coach Caffaro sincerely cares about each of us and is willing to do anything to help us succeed," said former cornerback Jemaro Gilford.

WINNERS GRADUATE!

The success of the study table program can be seen in the team GPA, which has gone up steadily each semester since it was started. At the end of fall semester 2001, the team GPA was nearing 3.0.

Looking at a list of graduating seniors also demonstrates BYU's commitment to academic excellence and the graduation of its players. Sixteen of 23 seniors from BYU's 2001-2002 squad graduated by April, 2002 in fields such as accounting, communications, economics, finance, health sciences, history, management and psychology.

The future will see BYU's student athletes reach new levels of success with the new outstanding facilities in the new Student Athlete Building. Thanks to the help of donors, BYU now has the facilities and resources to give its student athletes the very best tools and support.

BYU's name resonates from East to West, thanks in no small part to the efforts of more than 600 student-athletes competing at the highest levels. In 2003-04, Cougar teams won nine league championships, 15 teams advanced to NCAA play, and BYU teams achieved 11 top-25 finishes, the most since the 1993-94 season. This success, however, isn't limited to the field of play. During 2003-04 a conference-high 92 BYU student-athletes were named Mountain West Conference Scholar-Athletes—19 more than any other institution.

JIM HAMBLIN

Academic Coach

Former BYU graduate assistant football coach Jim Hamblin joined the Student Athlete Academic Center staff in fall 2002 as academic coach for the football team. In his position, Coach Hamblin is responsible for tracking the student-athletes' academic progress and ensuring each member of the football team is working towards graduation. Before returning to BYU, Hamblin was the head football coach and an English teacher at East High School in Salt Lake City. Prior to his appointment at East, Hamblin spent two years as a graduate assistant coach with the Cougar football program. He also spent seven years at Murtaugh High School in Murtaugh, Idaho coaching football, boy's track, girl's basketball and serving as athletic director. During that time, he garnered two District IV Football Coach of the Year awards, led the Murtaugh high school football team to a championship in 1994 and was named the 1994 State of Idaho A-A Football Coach of the Year. Hamblin and his wife Shannon live in Orem with their three children.

SAAC Director

As the director of the Student Athlete Academic Center, Caffaro directs the activities of the Student Athlete Academic Center, which includes providing support and resources for student-athletes to be successful in their academic and athletic pursuits, personal and career development, and transition into the university system. He acts as advisor to Cougar Council (SAAC) Student Athlete Advisory Council, the voice of the student athletes. Before he was hired as the director, he came to BYU as the academic football coach. Prior to coming to BYU, Caffaro was an assistant football coach and the offensive and defensive coordinator at Ricks College (now BYU-Idaho) in Rexburg, Idaho, from 1991 to 2001. He was also an assistant basketball coach for the Vikings. Before his stint at Ricks, Caffaro was a member of the football coaching staff at Snow College, in Ephraim, Utah, where he was an assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1986 to 1991. Caffaro holds a master's degree in physical education (emphasis in athletic administration) from Idaho State University (1994) and a bachelor's degree, also in physical education, from Brigham Young University (1984). In addition to his coaching duties, Caffaro has taught classes in Intermediate Algebra and College Algebra at both Ricks College and BYU. He and his wife, the former Shari Quale, live in Orem with their four children.

In December 2003 the Student Athlete Academic Center moved into the third floor of the new Student Athlete Building.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

STEVE MCKANE

Graduate Assistant, Defense

McKane, raised in Mesa, Arizona, is entering his first season at BYU as a graduate assistant. He started for two seasons at center for the University of Utah's offensive line, where he graduated with a Bachelor's of Science majoring in Exercise and Sports Science. He will be pursuing a Masters degree in physical education at BYU. Before coming to Provo, McKane coached for two seasons as the defensive coordinator, linebackers and offensive line coach at Independence High School in Glendale, Arizona where he was also a physical education teacher. Steve and his wife, Kami are the proud parents of one son, Parker and are expecting another child in January.

KEVIN MCGIVEN

Graduate Assistant, Offense

A native of Orem, McGiven is entering his third season with the Cougars as a graduate assistant. He is a graduate of Mountain View High School in Orem, and attended Louisiana Tech in 1998 as a wide receiver before he was injured. McGiven received a B.A. in business management from UVSC in 2001, and is working on his masters degree at BYU.

Before coming to BYU, McGiven coached tight ends and receivers at Mountain View High School. He and his wife Lindsey are the parents of three children, Peyton, Jaxon and Beau.

DUANE BUSBY

Director of Football Operations

Busby joined the football program in 1996 and served as an administrative assistant to coach Edwards for five years. In 2001 he was named the director of football operations at BYU. He was born and raised in Arizona and attended Northern Arizona University and later received a B.A. in English in 1984 from Arizona State. He spent five years as the equipment manager and video coordinator at Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho. Busby taught at Madison High in Rexburg, where he was a football and basketball assistant coach. Busby was an assistant to Arizona Governor Bruce Babbitt and was managing editor of The Wickenburg Sun.

MICK HILL

Football Equipment Manager

Mick, a native of Corvallis, Ore., has been with the department since 1981. He attended Orem High and went on to graduate from BYU with degrees in business and physical education. His primary responsibilities are with football, although he manages the Equipment for the baseball team as well. He serves on a number of advisory boards including Nike. He is a certified Equipment manager through the A.E.M.A. and is married to Melanie Goodrich. They have two daughters who are married and two sons, one serving a mission and the other an active member of the USMC.

KEITH KEARL

Video Coordinator

Kearl became a part of the athletic program in February 2003, serving as the football video coordinator. Coming from a background of software testing, video training and sales with a mechanical engineering firm and a spinoff software company, he is particularly prepared for his responsibilities here, including acquisition, editing and production of videos for game preparation and review. A local product, Kearl attended both Provo High School and Timpani High School before going on to UVSC and BYU. He served a mission in Columbus, Ohio. He lives in Pleasant Grove with his wife, Pam, and eight children.

SHIRLEY JOHNSON

Executive Assistant to Head Coach

A native of Salt Lake City, Johnson is entering her fourth season with Coach Crowton, after having served with Coach LaVell Edwards for 21 years. After graduating from BYU in English and teaching for a short time, she returned to BYU to work with the graduate students in Educational Psychology. She was there for eight years before moving to football. She was the recipient of a President's Appreciation Award in 1990.

ROSELYN DALEY

Assistant to Recruiting Coordinator

Daley was raised in Benjamin, Utah and graduated from Spanish Fork High School. She worked for Farrer Junior High in Provo 11 years prior to coming to BYU and is now in her 26th year in the football office. She is married to former Provo City Councilman Jim Daley and they have two daughters and five grandchildren.

CAMIE RASMUSSEN

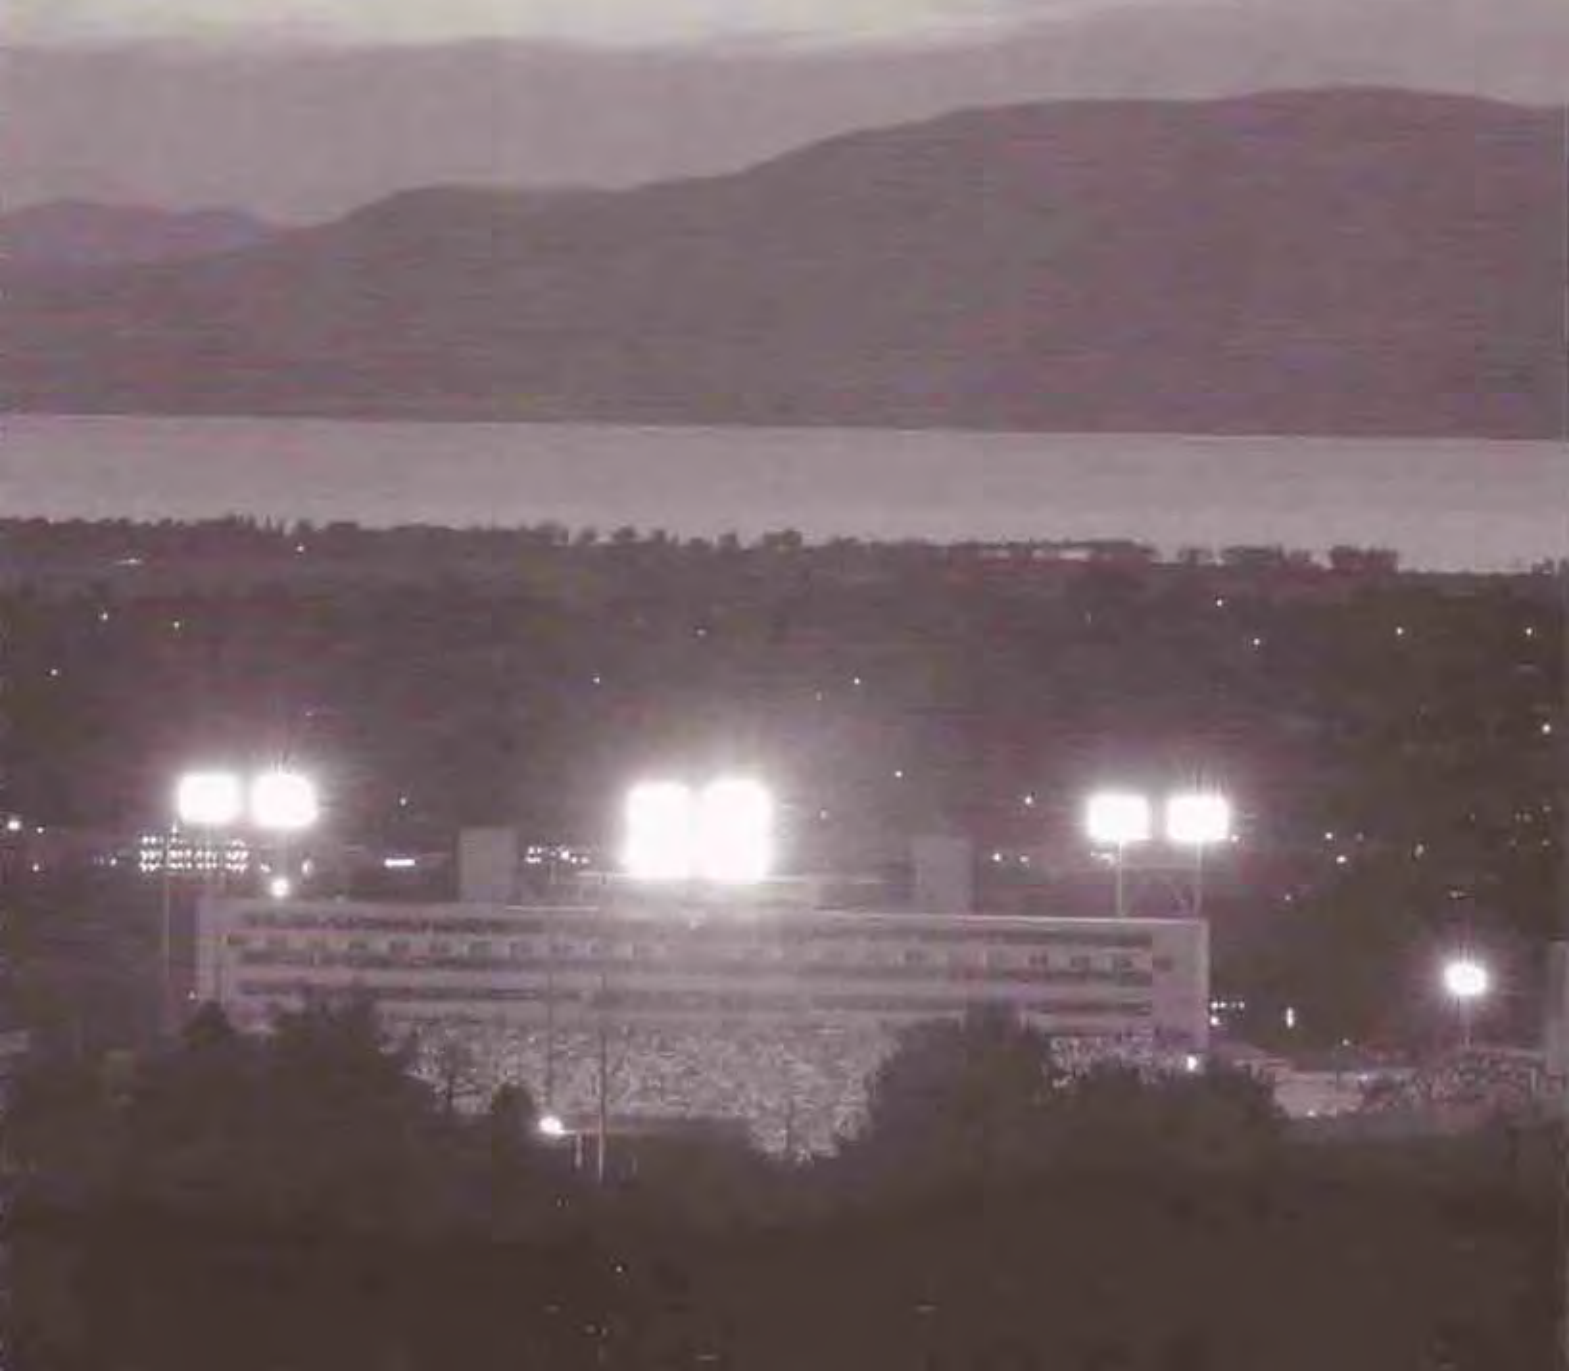

Personal Assistant to Head Coach

Camie was raised in Warrenton, Virginia. She graduated from Brigham Young University in April 2002 with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education and a minor in English. Prior to working in the Football Office she was a secretary in BYU's Student Athlete Center. She is married to Greg Rasmussen.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

A PREMIER UNIVERSITY WITH A PASSION FOR COUGAR FOOTBALL

WORLDWIDE, WORLD-CLASS UNIVERSITY

Welcome to Brigham Young University, where more than 30,000 students gather from more than 130 countries and all 50 states. The university is internationally known for its multicultural and academically minded student body, world-class teaching, wide-ranging foreign language programs, talented performing arts ensembles, outstanding sports programs, beautiful mountain location and devotion to combining solid scholarship with the principles of the restored gospel of Jesus Christ. BYU has an additional 2,800 part-time and 1,000 evening students, as well as 2,400 students enrolling at BYU-Hawaii and 10,000 others attending BYU-Idaho. Founded in 1875, BYU is the largest privately owned, church-sponsored university in the United States.

EXCELLENT LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

The 2002 National Survey of Student Engagement places BYU in the 93rd percentile for its level of academic challenge, also ranking it in the 99th percentile in providing a supportive campus environment — one that fosters active and collaborative learning. It's no surprise that our graduates leave BYU with the skills and desire to make meaningful contributions all across the globe. Furthering their education in a highly supportive environment, an impressive number of undergraduates have the chance to become involved in research that enhances their course work. The BYU experience ensures that students are well prepared to pursue advanced degrees, enjoying strong acceptance rates into leading graduate programs. BYU graduates are also highly recruited among top employers.

EXCEPTIONAL ACADEMICS

BYU ranks among the top 20 in National Merit scholars enrolled; among the nation's leaders in National Science Foundation fellowships (and fellows who go on to earn science and engineering doctorates); third among accounting programs; fourth in the number of Advanced Placement examination scores; and among the top 10 percent in nursing programs. BYU students garner distinction as Fulbright scholars, Mellon fellows, and Barry M. Goldwater scholars. The University consistently achieves national recognition. U.S. News & World Report ranks BYU's law and business schools among the top 40 in the United States. In the July 2002 edition of the Chronicle of Higher Education, BYU was recognized as the best in the nation at turning research dollars into inventions and new companies.

QUALITY PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION

A strong curriculum delivered by outstanding faculty is key to the academic excellence of BYU graduates. From business management to nursing, from the humanities to engineering, the University's 11 colleges—supported by comprehensive offerings from religious education—continue to be internationally recognized for the quality of their education and the professional preparation they provide. In addition to the challenging course work and hands-on research, numerous programs offer academic and service outreach opportunities. Study-abroad centers, distance-learning courses, and worldwide performing-arts tours are a few of the offerings that enrich BYU's academic experience.

A BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS SETTING

BYU is located 45 miles south of Salt Lake City in Provo, Utah, a city of more than 110,000 situated 4,500 feet above sea level. The campus sits at the western base of the Wasatch Mountains, part of the Rocky Mountain Range. Surrounded by mountains, Provo is at the heart of Utah Valley with a combined population of more than 377,000. Utah Valley is framed by the 23-mile-long Utah Lake on the west and 11,750-foot Mount Timpanogos on the east. BYU also has campuses in Laie, Hawaii (Brigham Young University-Hawaii) and Rexburg, Idaho (Brigham Young University-Idaho) serving an additional 12,000 students. The main campus sits on approximately 600 acres at the foot of the Wasatch Mountains and includes 333 buildings. Additional facilities include the BYU Jerusalem Center, the BYU Salt Lake Center, LDS Business College, and the Missionary Training Centers around the world.

"THIS INSTITUTION IS UNIQUE. IT IS REMARKABLE. IT IS A CONTINUING EXPERIMENT ON A GREAT PREMISE THAT A LARGE AND COMPLEX UNIVERSITY CAN BE FIRST-CLASS ACADEMICALLY WHILE NURTURING AN ENVIRONMENT OF FAITH IN GOD AND THE PRACTICE OF CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES."

— Gordon B. Hinckley, President, Board of Trustees of BYU

OUTSTANDING STUDENT BODY

BYU students arrive with superb preparation. The entering class has an average high school GPA of 3.76 (on a 4.0 scale) and an average ACT score that ranks in the 89th percentile nationally. The University consistently places in the top 20 for enrollment of National Merit Scholars. In addition to their academic excellence, students bring and share high values and ideals. Students come to BYU from all 50 states and more than 130 countries, bringing many international cultures and experiences to the campus.

Nearly half of these scholars have lived outside the United States, and three-fourths are fluent in at least two languages. The variety of cultures and backgrounds, coupled with an institutional commitment to the gospel of Jesus Christ, adds to an already rich academic experience that challenges the mind while feeding the spirit.

INTERNATIONAL CENTER OF LEARNING

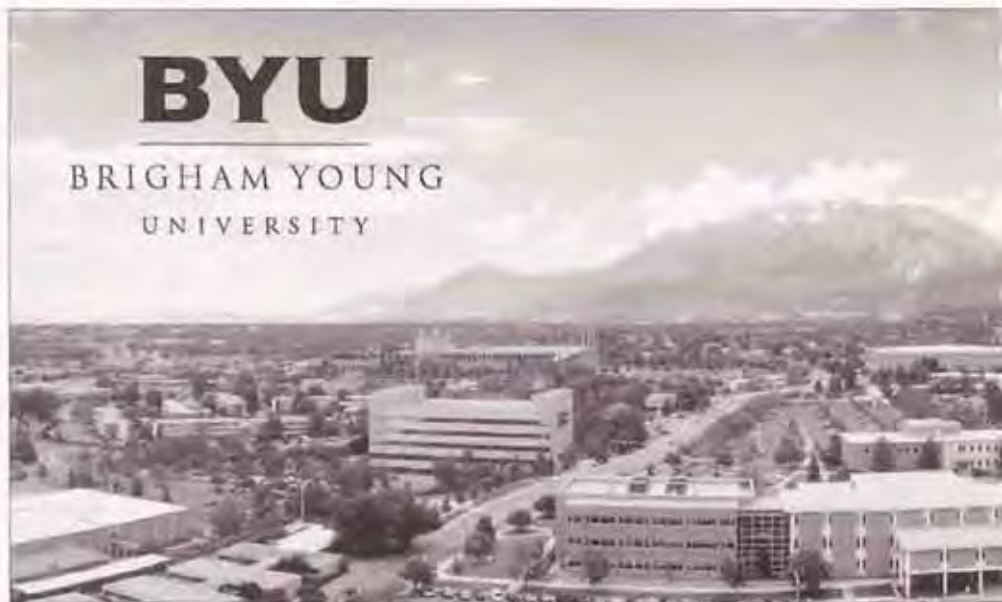

BYU has been selected as a Center for International Business Education Research (CIBER), a program designated to promote the competitiveness of United States business through an integrated international curriculum, faculty and student international research and outreach programs. BYU's David M. Kennedy Center for International Studies provides support to colleges and departments in pursuing their international interests.

BYU runs the largest study abroad program in the United States, with satellite centers in London, Jerusalem, and Paris, as well as more than 20 other sites. The Institute of International Education ranks BYU as the number one university in the US to offer students study abroad opportunities; nearly 2,000 students take advantage of more than 50 BYU study abroad programs yearly. BYU's motto is "The World is Our Campus."

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Faculty members hold advanced degrees from universities around the world. Their achievements are compelling and broad-ranging as they pursue consequential research-work that is making a real difference. Alleviating hunger worldwide through more efficient agriculture, finding low-pollution energy alternatives, and making significant contributions to the strengthening of families are among their many pursuits. Faculty members are regularly called upon to head national and international professional organizations and to consult with corporate and governmental entities. Above all, these high-principled men and women share an unmatched devotion to bringing the best possible education to their students.

NATIONAL RANKINGS AND RECOGNITION

U.S. News and World Report gave BYU high marks in several categories in its 2002 "America's Best Colleges" issue, ranking BYU in the second tier in the category of "Best National Universities," 30th in the "Great Schools at Great Prices" among national universities with doctoral programs and among the top 10 with the least student-incurred debt.

In U.S. News and World Report's "Best Graduate Schools" issue, BYU's Marriott School of Management ranked 29th in the nation, while in the "America's Best Colleges" issue the School's business program ranked 38th. In The Wall Street Journal's 2003 ranking of top business schools worldwide, BYU's business school moved from 38th to 26th. When U.S. News and World Report ranked national graduate programs in March 2002, the J. Reuben Clark Law School was ranked 37th among the top 50 law schools in the nation.

BYU College of Nursing graduates are consistently among the top 10 percent in the country with student pass rate in the National Council Licensure Examination to become registered nurses, according to the NCLEX Report. Six BYU students were recently awarded scholarship money by the National Science Foundation. According to NSF, BYU ranks 29th out of more than 2,000 universities in the number of graduate students who go on to receive science and engineering doctorates.

TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANTAGE: BYU'S "WIRED" CAMPUS

Ranked among the top 50 of Yahoo! Internet Life's "America's Most Wired Colleges," BYU has 100 percent of its dorms and 60 percent of its classrooms wired for the Internet. BYU students have access to a wide range of technology products, services and support through the use of on-campus Ethernet connections and Technology Enhanced Classrooms (TEC Rooms). The law and business schools require students to own laptops. Prospective and current students have access to electronic application for admission, on-line transcripts, registration, and course schedules. BYU's supercomputing facility houses four supercomputers with a total of 460 processors, 456 gigabytes of memory and 22 terabytes of hard disk storage space. About 90 faculty members and 250 students using the supercomputers can process in days what would have previously taken a year. Funded by the University and donors, BYU's supercomputers are available at no cost to students and faculty members campus wide for projects such as 3-D visualization, molecular modeling, linguistics modeling, satellite visualization and medical imaging. The University also has a million-dollar virtual reality theater to enhance the output of much of the work done on supercomputers.

HONOR CODE

BYU exists to provide a university education in an atmosphere consistent with the principles of the Church of Jesus Christ. This environment is preserved through adherence to a code of conduct called the Honor Code that reflects those ideals. Initiated by students in 1949, the Honor Code emphasizes being honest, living a chaste and virtuous life, abstaining from alcohol and tobacco, using clean language and other values encompassed in the doctrines of the Church. The code is supplemented by additional guidelines on dress, grooming and housing. Students and faculty are attracted by the opportunity to study and work among those who share their faith and standards. In a survey of BYU alumni, 74 percent cited their desire to "obtain a spiritual, religiously based education" as a very important or extremely important factor in their decision to attend BYU.

MISSIONARIES

BYU is owned and operated by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The missionary emphasis of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is perhaps one of its most recognized characteristics. The program follows the Biblical pattern of sending out missionaries two by two.

Currently, approximately 61,000 Latter-day Saints are serving proselytizing missions around the world. Approximately 75 percent of the Church's proselytizing missionaries are young men between the ages of 19 and 26. Yet substantial numbers of single women (18 percent) and older couples (7 percent) also serve proselytizing missions. These missionaries serve for two years

(men) or 18 months (women and couples), teaching the restored gospel and its ordinances and engaging in community service.

The missionaries or their families donate money to the Church equal to the average cost of a missionary's expenses. After their missions, missionaries return to schooling, vocations or family.

CHURCH BELIEFS

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was officially organized on April 6, 1830 with six members. Today, congregations of the Church are found in more than 160 nations and territories. With more than 11 million members, it is one of the fastest growing religions in the world and one of the largest Christian churches in the United States.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is Christian but is neither Catholic nor Protestant. Rather, it is a restoration of the original church established by Jesus Christ.

The Book of Mormon: Another Testament of Jesus Christ is regarded as divinely inspired scripture, as is the Holy Bible. Both volumes are used by Latter-day Saints side by side. For more information on the beliefs of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, visit www.mormon.org.

"BYU IS A PREMIER UNIVERSITY THAT NEEDS PREMIER FACILITIES. THIS COMPLEX IS ANOTHER COMPONENT IN MAINTAINING OUR NATIONAL SUCCESS IN BOTH ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS."

— Steve Young (BYU '83) NFL MVP 1992, 1994

In December 2003 BYU Football moved into its new home in BYU's new Student Athlete Building. This new complex gives BYU some of the best athletic facilities in the nation.

"We have known for a long time that in order to maintain and continue our athletic success, we must provide the very best resources and facilities for our student-athletes. BYU's new athletic complex will achieve that objective," BYU's former President Merrill J. Bateman said.

Every detail was taken into consideration with this center. For example, the film room is built with a stadium seating structure, and the first two rows will have "extra-large" seats for linemen.

The weight room is two stories and has windows built all around to provide a view of the practice field. The locker room, patterned after the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles' is 75 yards long. There is a rehabilitation room, and three whirlpools adorn the complex. There is a special locker room for former BYU players who want to train in Provo during the off-season and a special office for NFL scouts.

Speaking of the new restaurant in the Student Athlete Center, Legends Grill, BYU Men's Athletics Director Val Hale said:

"It will have the feel of a sports bar with lots of seating and plenty of huge plasma televisions. It will be the new hangout in Provo, where fans can come and enjoy the restaurant," Hale said.

The complex includes a three-story atrium that will house trophies, plaques and memorabilia from past BYU teams (Athletics Legacy Hall).

"This will be a place where fans can come remember the past," Hale said.

PICTURE PERFECT

With its 64,000-seat capacity, huge video scoreboards and immaculate press boxes, LaVell Edwards Stadium is home to legendary BYU football. Since its expansion in 1982, the stadium has consistently ranked among the nation's top 25 in attendance every year. Some of the stadium's well-known features include a box-bowl seating configuration, a grass playing surface and a four-level press box.

THE FIELD

The field is covered with a sand-based natural turf capable of draining eight inches of rain per hour. The well-kept grass field is consistently deemed one of the best in the country.

THE EARLY YEARS

BYU football hasn't always had the luxury of LaVell

Edwards Stadium. When BYU began its football program in 1896, pasture lands and city parks were the playing fields. In the early 1900s, a rocky field was cleared and a grandstand erected where the Joseph Smith Building now stands. In 1928, the next Cougar playing field was built where the Stephen L. Richards Building now stands. By using the hillside for seating, the spectator accommodation was increased from a few hundred to five thousand. As BYU football increased in popularity, the university was forced to find yet another location for a new stadium. Groundbreaking for what is now LaVell Edwards Stadium commenced in October 1963. The initial seating capacity was set at 28,812 but soon increased to 35,000.

LAST EXPANSION

As a result of increased seating demands, BYU made yet another renovation in 1982, adding stands to the north and south end zones, lowering the field eight feet and removing the track surrounding the field (which hosted the 1967 and 1975 NCAA Track and Field Championships). The stadium expansion increased the seating capacity to over 65,000. The crowd of 64,253 that gathered for BYU's first game in the expanded stadium on September 25, 1982 was reportedly "the largest gathering ever in Utah history" at the time. In 2003 BYU added a luxury "Club Seating" area to the east stands taking the capacity of Edwards Stadium down to 64,045.

PRESS BOX

In 1982, 1988 and 1997, the Football Writers Association of America cited BYU for its "outstanding press box working area." Rising over 10 stories high, the four-level press box is located on the west side of the stadium and runs the entire length of the stands. Levels one and two of the press box contain 42 private loges, each equipped with 12 padded chairs, a television, radio, telephone, refrigerator, sink and game programs. The BYU President's box, which includes 163 padded chairs, five television sets and a buffet area, is also located on the first floor. Level three is reserved for the print and electronic media along with all the game operators. The statistics, public address, sound and scoreboard controls are all located on the third level. Altogether, approximately 300 people work on the third level during games. Level four is primarily used for television game filming.

"YOU GUYS WILL AGREE THAT [LAVELL EDWARDS] STADIUM IS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST SETTINGS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL. THIS STADIUM IS JUST UNBELIEVABLE."

— KIRK HERBSTREIT, ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ANALYST

VIDEO SCOREBOARD

In 1996, a 23 x 31 foot video scoreboard wall, showing both live action and instant replays, was added above the stands by the south end zone. A new animation board and sound system was also added to the scoreboard above the north stands.

OTHER EVENTS

Besides the regular season football games, Cougar Stadium is also used for a variety of other purposes. Music concerts have been hosted there as well as the annual "Stadium of Fire," the July 4th Spectacular held as part of America's Freedom Festival. High school playoff games and "the Rocky Mountain Band Competition" are also held on the field.

COUGAR ROOM

The BYU Athletic Hall of Fame in the Cougar Club Room is located in Edwards Stadium. The room is used for pre- and post-game activities as well as for meetings and banquets during the year. In addition to the many office areas, Edwards Stadium stores campus surplus furniture and maintenance vehicles.

UPGRADED FOOTBALL FACILITIES

UPGRADED BYU FOOTBALL LOCKER ROOM

The LaVell Edwards Stadium home locker room had 84 new hardwood oak lockers installed in 2003. The new lockers replaced the old ones that had been there since 1982, when the stadium was renovated.

The new lockers are bigger and have a footlocker in which players can store their belongings and can serve as the player's seat. Adorning the walls of the locker room are pictures of past All-Conference and All-American players. The room also features a big screen TV and lounging area.

"The installation of the lockers is being funded primarily by former football players," said Val Hale, BYU men's athletics director. "This is something we have done to let the former players help contribute to the program."

In the new lockers, a plaque is placed with the team logo, the jersey number of the player using the locker that year and the saying "Worn by Champions - Wear it with Pride."

Also, a list of names of those who have worn that particular number in the past and have contributed money to the new lockers appears on the plaque.

"One of the real benefits of this is that it bonds the past to the present," Hale said. "Every time a player puts on his jersey from now on, he will think of the players from the past who have worn that number. There is an affinity between them because they have worn the same number."

"Each time we send out a letter to the former players, we get a large group to contribute," Hale said. "Eventually, I would love to see every player donate. It is neat to see them want to help out."

Former players are not the only ones able to contribute. Anyone who would like to contribute, or find out more information, can call the BYU Athletics Department at (801) 422-8704 or Mike Middleton at the Cougar Club at (801) 422-2717.

BYU'S CLUB SEATING PROGRAM

In 2003 BYU introduced the Club Seating Program. This new section at Edwards Stadium provides individuals and businesses great seat locations combined with upscale amenities making every trip to Edwards Stadium a memorable one.

LEGACY CLUB SEATING

Located between the 35-50 yard lines, Section 34 has been remodeled to accommodate 1,100 chair-back seats that provide additional width and leg room. These seats come with a variety of amenities including, reserved parking, game program, and a hospitality area with food/beverages for pre-game, halftime and post-game. This new premium season ticket is available for $1,000 per seat in addition to an annual Cougar Club donation (currently Golden Cougar and above).

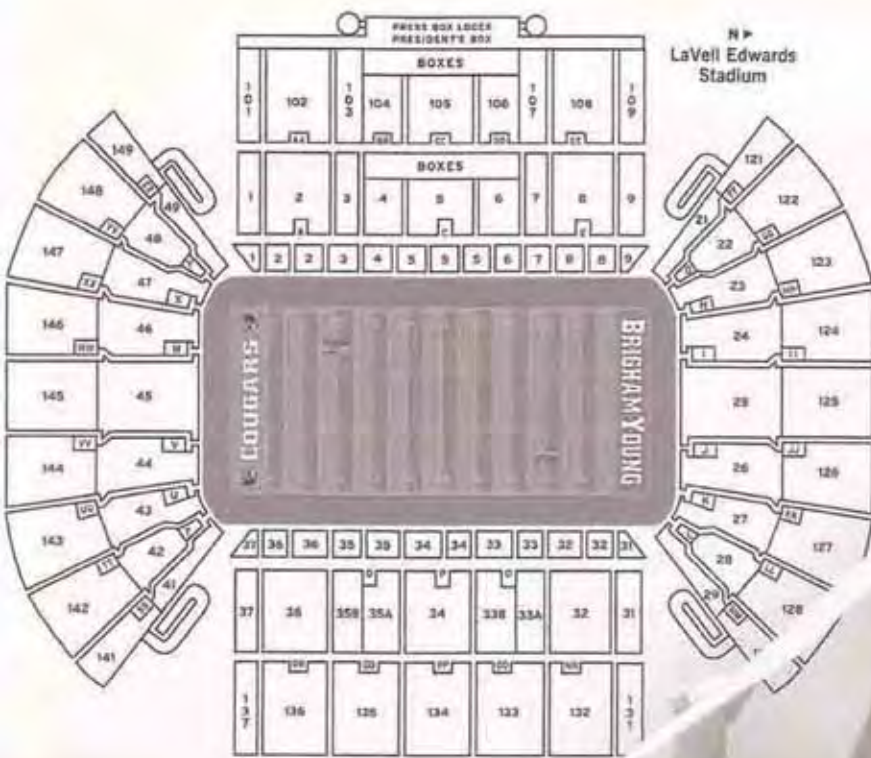

COUGAR CLUB SEATING

Located between the 25-35 yard lines, Section 33 and 35 include 700 new chair-back seats with additional width and leg room. These seats will include reserved parking and a game program. This new premium season ticket is available for $500 per seat in addition to a required annual Cougar Club donation (currently Silver Cougar and above).

Seat location in the Legacy Club and Cougar Club sections is based on the donor's Cougar Club level and historical athletic giving. For more information call the Cougar Club at (801) 422-2583 or 1-800-426-4298.

"Probably the loudest and best stadium is whenever things are going good for BYU, and their fans start beating on the metal bleachers. That can be a very tough place to play."

— Air Force head football coach Fisher DeBerry on why Edwards Stadium is one of the toughest places to play in the West.

"Running out of the tunnel before every game ... The first time I ran out, I felt like Rudy. You get the chills, you get the butterflies, you're running with the band and the fans are cheering. That's something that is special. And to be running with your brother is something else that's special and that's something that'll be remembered."

EDWARDS STADIUM ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Hours before kickoff, fans gather across the street from LaVell Edwards Stadium with food and soft drinks, sharing stories of past football heroics and anticipating another triumphant victory. With the Wasatch Mountains serving as a picturesque backdrop, the stadium is filled with 64,000 of some of the nation's best fans, young and old alike. The BYU marching band entertains the blue and white clad crowd with spirited tunes and the Cougar Fight song, amplified by the voices of BYU fans. The BYU cheerleading squad, Cosmo the BYU mascot, and halftime shows with the Cougarettes, the defending national champion dance team, all help make LaVell Edwards Stadium one of a kind. The offense is high-powered and the fans await the boom of the Army ROTC cannon after every scoring play.

BYU ATHLETIC TRADITIONS

Y MOUNTAIN

Preparations for placing the initials BYU on the mountainside began in April of 1906 when president George H. Brimhall commissioned surveyors for the letters "B," "Y" and "U." The letter "Y" was first laid out to ensure that the initials were properly centered on the mountain. Beginning in the early morning, students formed a line that zigzagged up the mountain. Standing eight feet apart, each student would carry a load up to the next and then return for another.

The project, which many expected to be completed by 10 a.m., lasted until 4 p.m. and only the "Y" was covered. After such a laborious day of work, plans to fill in the other two letters were scrapped. Covered with a thin layer of lime powder, the letter was in need of constant repair. Hoping to make it more permanent, a layer of rock was added in 1907. The next year, 20,000 pounds of sand and cement were carried up the mountain to form a three-foot high wall around the letter to hold it together. Several years later the letter underwent a facelift as the blocks, or serifs, were added to it to give it its current appearance.

A nationally recognized symbol of BYU, Y Mountain is a featured shot of almost every Cougar

BYU MARCHING BAND

The ground shakes beneath them as 225 players in blue and white storm the field at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The crowd cheers them on as they demonstrate the talents they've practiced throughout the week to get ready for the game. It's the "Power of the Wasatch"—not the football team, the BYU marching band.

An essential piece of the pageantry, tradition and atmosphere of BYU athletics, the BYU marching band takes its name from the stretch of Rocky Mountains that provides the beautiful backdrop for BYU's campus. The music of BYU's band has echoed off those mountains since 1908 when it first took the field under the direction of Robert Sauer, composer of the famous tune "When It's Springtime in the Rockies." The band has since evolved into the precision spectacle it is today.

The success of BYU's football team has allowed the marching band to gain national exposure. Playing at least at every home game and two away games each year, the "Power of the Wasatch" is almost guaranteed another performance as they've accompanied the Cougars to 19 bowl appearances in the past 24 years.

COSMO

The cougar, chosen as BYU's mascot by former coach Eugene L. Roberts in the early 1920s, has undergone a tremendous evolution since its inception to become what is now known as the feline phenomenon of Cosmo the Cougar. Beginning in 1924 when BYU purchased a pair of cougar cubs for 50 cents each to excite BYU fans at athletic events, five cougars prowled the sidelines of BYU games on a regular basis through the late 40s and on special occasions through the 60s.

The original cubs were housed on the south side of campus until 1929 when they managed to break out of their cage, kill two dogs and began stalking livestock on nearby farms. Both were recaptured later the same day. Three weeks later, one cougar died and the other was taken to the old Salt Lake Zoo. BYU procured its mascots from nearby zoos and local bounty hunters but never owned its own cougars again.

Cosmo the Cougar, the brainchild of pep chairman Dwayne Stevenson, made his first official appearance before BYU fans on October 15, 1953. At a cost of 73 dollars for the costume, Daniel T. Gallego, Stevenson's roommate, became the first man under the fur. The name given the big cat was derived from BYU's diverse student body.

"BYU was a very international, cosmopolitan school and that is where we got the name Cosmo," said Gallego.

Nearing a half-century of service to the BYU community, Cosmo has become an icon of Cougar sports to fans and foes across the country. Through Cosmo's Kids Club and Cosmo's Corner, he is helping raise another generation of BYU fans. Prowling the sidelines for the Cougars, his antics add to the experience of game day at BYU. Cosmo brings out the best of Cougar spirit in fans at athletic competitions both home and away.

THE COUGARETTES

One of BYU's lesser-known jewels, the Cougarettes are more than a sideline attraction at football games and other athletic events. Named one of the top 25 dance teams in the nation by Dance Spirit Magazine, the Cougarettes have earned national respect on the dance floor by claiming the National Collegiate Dance Team title in 1997, 1998, 1999 and again in 2001. They missed a five-year reign as national champions by a mere .02 points, placing them second in 2000. The Cougarettes have been credited with raising the level of competitive collegiate dance to a new and respected level.

Much to the relief of dance teams at other colleges, the Cougarettes opted out of national competition in 2002, choosing instead to perform at the Salt Lake City Olympics in front of an international audience.

Established in 1946, the Cougarettes became a part of BYU's athletic tradition in 2000 when they began working with the cheer squad at football and basketball games to enhance the overall game-day experience at BYU. Each year, more than 100 girls try out for this elite team of entertainers. Once pared down to 16 dancers, give or take one or two, the Cougarettes tackle a rigorous practice regimen that not only consists of choreographing their routines but also includes strength and flexibility training to prepare them for their performances at games, concerts and other special presentations.

An exciting and talented part of the pageantry that surrounds BYU's athletic success, the Cougarettes have reached an unprecedented level of achievement in their own field and are more than happy to bring their talents to the playing field for the Cougars.

THE BEEHIVE BOOT

First instituted in 1971, the Beehive Boot is the symbol of gridiron supremacy in the state of Utah. The idea for the rotating trophy originated with Dave Stulthess, former Sports Information Director (SID) of BYU, and was agreed upon by SIDs from Utah, Utah State and Weber State. As the trophy would represent dominance within the confines of the Beehive State, it was decided that the trophy should be symbolic of the people Utah was built by—the Mormon pioneers.

Finding a suitable pioneer boot for use as a trophy proved to be a difficult task. As pioneers wore their boots until there simply wasn't much left of them, there weren't many pioneer boots lying around. After an arduous search that included numerous personal calls and radio announcements, Tom Beasley, an antique dealer living in Cache Valley donated a pair of boots for use as the trophy. Estimated to be 100 or more years old, the Beehive Boot is an authentic piece of Utah history.

Awarded to the team with the best record against in-state opponents, the Beehive Boot lived its first four years at Utah State University. BYU then began a dominant run as it ascended into the realms of football's elite, claiming the Boot 19 times in the past 29 years. Utah and has won the boot eight times. The longest streak in the history of the Beehive Boot is a five-year span from 1983 to 1987 by BYU. After a two-year stint in Provo, the Boot currently resides in Salt Lake. The Cougars look to bring it back home this season.

sen by vote of the in-state media who covered the schools' games. This situation has occurred twice in the history of the boot (1973 and 1997) and Utah State was given the trophy each time.

The trophy became a memorial to Steve Smilanich, a former sports writer for United Press International, in 1979. A native Utahian, Smilanich was killed in an automobile accident in New York City in 1970. Prior to his death, he was the national college sports editor and assistant sports editor for UPI.

THE OLD WAGON WHEEL

The Latter-day Saints crossed the plains in the mid 1800s, many of them atop covered wagons that rolled creakily across the dry grass. Today a wagon's wheel continues to travel to and from Provo. It doesn't carry people; it carries the pride of the Cougar and Aggie faithful.

The Old Wagon Wheel became a part of the BYU-Utah State rivalry in 1948. Awarded by the Blue Key Fraternities of the two schools, the Aggies took it home for the first year after 20-7 defeat of the Cougars. Since 1948, the wheel has covered many a mile between the two schools as their rivalry has grown.

Although Utah State dominated the early years of the wheel's existence, taking 18 of the first 27 victories where the wheel was at stake, the tables have been turned in recent decades as the BYU football team has taken its place among college football's elite. The series now stands 30-21 in favor of the Cougars.

Winning the wheel on the field is only a small part of the battle between the two schools. Although not practiced anymore, the more entertaining tradition surrounding the wheel is its theft. In years past, the losing school has often sought to reclaim the trophy through less than legal means. Despite being done in the "all in good fun" spirit, this tradition has had its share of problems. The wheel has disappeared for years at a time after being taken by parties with no affiliation to either school.

The Wheel currently resides in the Marriott Center at BYU where the Cougars are working to make it a permanent resident.

After each Cougar score George Q cannon is fired by members of the BYU Army ROTC. The 75mm Howitzer is in its seventh year of electrifying Edwards Stadium.

COUGAR FIGHT SONG

Penned in 1932 by Clyde D. Sandgren, "The Cougar Song" is the anthem of BYU sports. Sung after each touchdown and field goal at football games, its words can frequently be heard ringing out across Utah Valley on Saturday afternoons in the fall. Traditionally, fans remain seated through the verse and then stand, chant and shout through the chorus. Carried by 64,000 voices "The Cougar Song" can be an intimidating musical number to an opposing team as LaVell Edwards Stadium thunders to its tune.

Although written and composed in 1932, the song was not copyrighted and presented to the University until 1947. In addition to "The Cougar Song" Sandgren wrote and composed "The Old 'Y' Bell" which was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower that housed the Victory Bell before it was moved its current location outside the Marriott Center.

A 1937 graduate of BYU, Sandgren went on to obtain a law degree from St. John's University. He then became a partner of the New York law firm Burroughs and Brown until 1947 when he decided to return to his native Provo to establish his own law practice. Sandgren later served as general counsel and vice president of BYU. Although he passed away in 1989, Sandgren's memory lives on through the voices of Cougar fans across the nation.

The Cougar Song
By Clyde D. Sandgren, 1932

*Rise all loyal Cougars and hurt your challenge to the foe.
You will fight, day or night, rain or snow.
Loyal, strong, and true
Wear the white and blue.
While we sing, get set to spring.
Come on Cougars it's up to you. Oh!*

*Rise and shout, the Cougars are out along the trail to fame and glory.
Rise and shout, our cheers will ring out.
As you unfold your victory story.*

*On we go, to vanquish the foe for Alma Mater's sons and daughters.
As we join in song, in praise of you, our faith is strong.
We'll raise our colors high in the blue,
And cheer our Cougars of BYU.*

THE VICTORY BELL

The original Y bell traveled across the plains with the early pioneers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and was used to call meetings among the saints and to announce any deaths in the community. Donated to the Brigham Young Academy in 1875, it was used to begin and dismiss classes until it was destroyed in a fire in 1884. The Academy went without a bell for the next 28 years, using instead a variety of instruments as a class bell.

Rung after each BYU victory, the bell was quieted in 1949 after a basketball win over rival Utah. Several overzealous students climbed the tower and vigorously beat upon the bell until it cracked. Repaired with a bronze patch in 1954 by Frank Hemingway, the bell was removed from the education building and mounted on a trailer so it could travel with BYU's teams to away games.

Its mobility proved its downfall as it was stolen in 1958 to be found six months later in a Springville field. The theft prompted the construction of a bell tower on BYU's upper-campus overlooking the Smith Fieldhouse.

Dedicated in 1959, the tower served well until 1973 when the bell fell while ringing in the dedication of the Marriott Center. The supporting yoke above the bell was broken and the bell shattered. The bell was soon repaired by Ray Mortenson of the BYU Maintenance shop using electric welding—miraculously maintaining its previous tone—and was remounted in the tower.

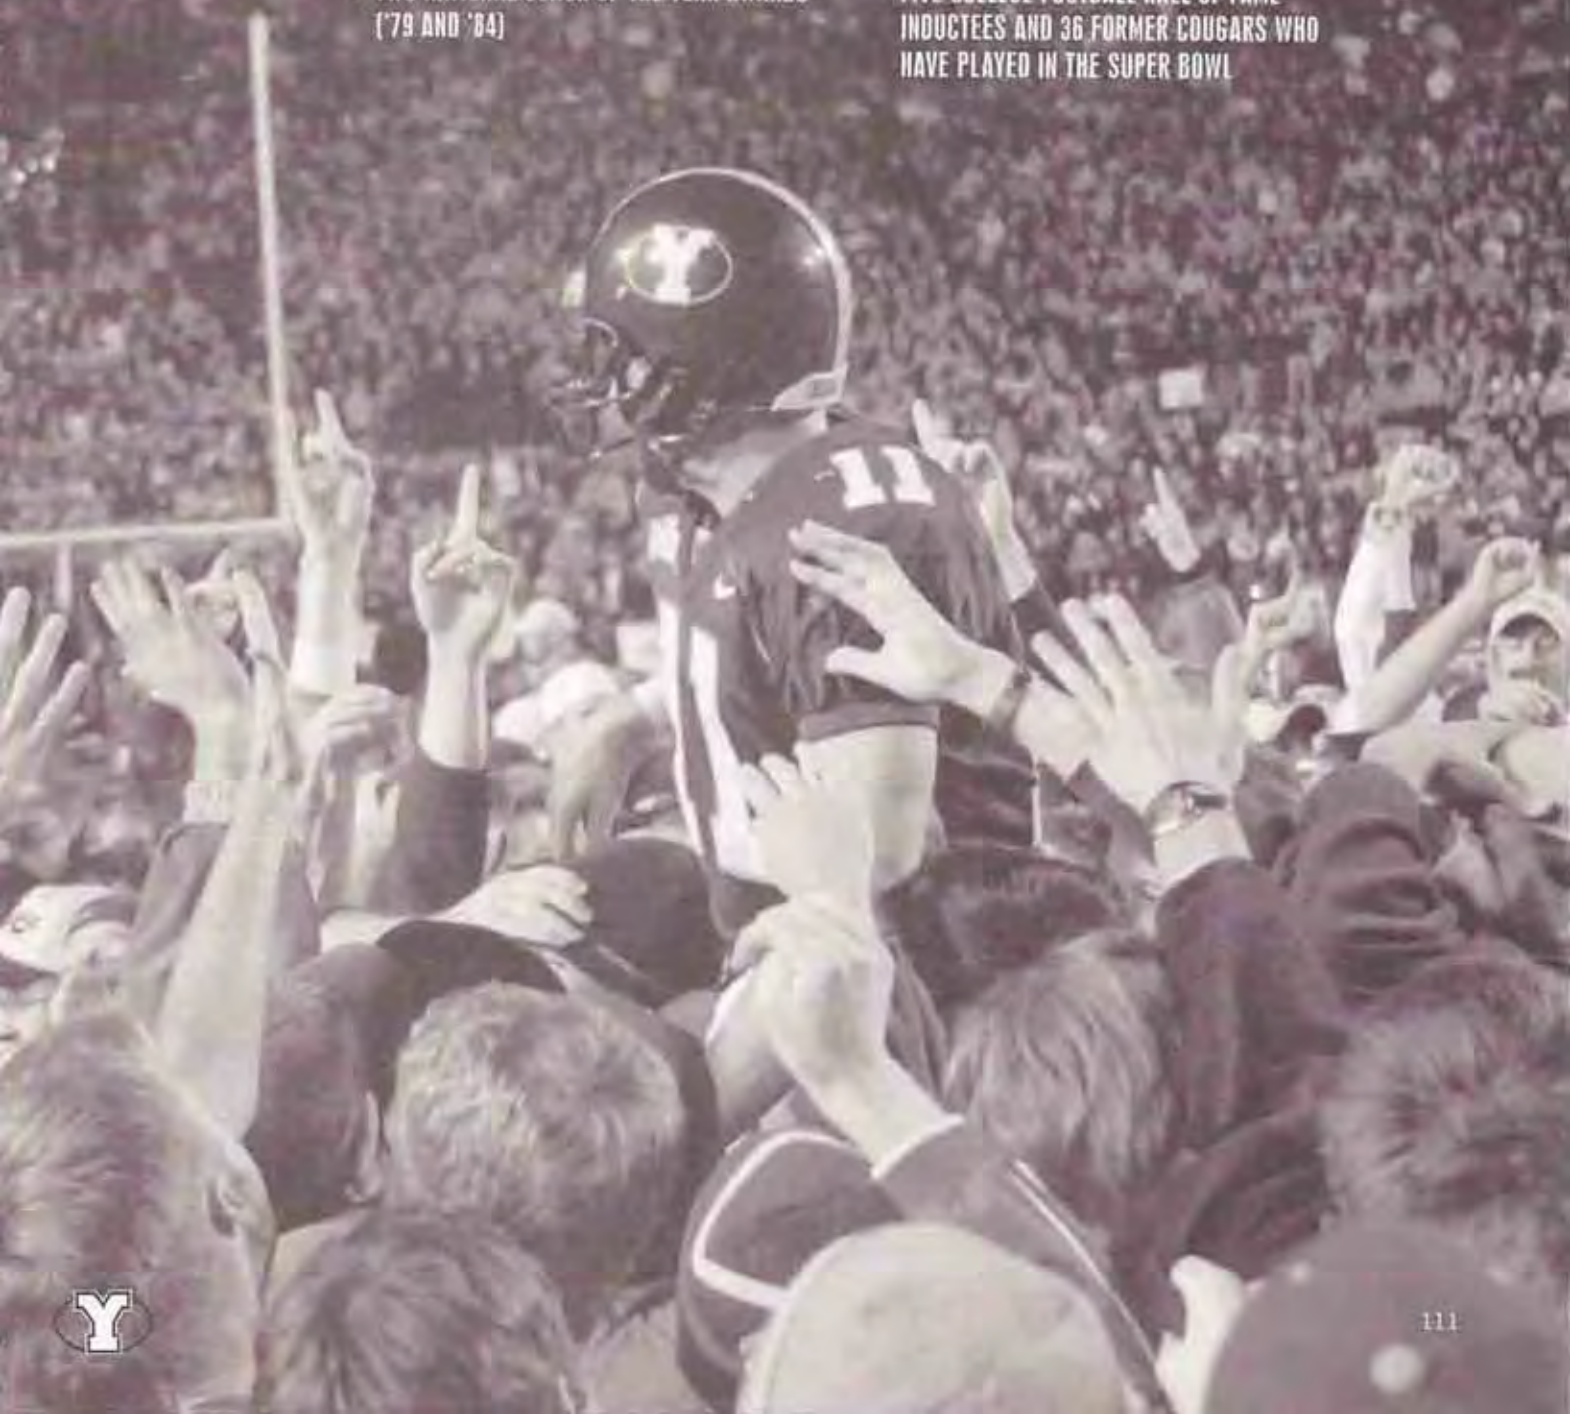

In 1978, the bell was moved to its current home on the southwest corner of the Marriott Center. The open arch tower was designed by BYU landscape architect Boyd Dawler and is made of the same cast stone as the exterior pillars of the Marriott Center. Although the old bell tower above the Smith Fieldhouse no longer stands, the massive steel I-beams that supported the tower have now been converted into the strongest park benches in the Intermountain West.

Over the years the ringing of the bell has come to represent honor, achievement and spirit, and has inspired several poems and songs from BYU faculty and alumni. Clyde D. Sandgren, who composed the Cougar Fight Song, penned a verse that was sung at the dedication of the upper-campus bell tower. As BYU victories have become more and more commonplace in recent decades, the ringing of the "Y bell" after each win has renamed it the "Victory Bell."

PRIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

In the five-year history of the MWC, the Cougars have won 53 of 95 conference championships—nearly 60 percent of all championships awarded by the conference. In 2000-2001, BYU won all but three conference championships (16 of 19). From 1962 to 1999, BYU also dominated the Western Athletic Conference, winning more championships than any other WAC School. In fact, during the last three decades in the WAC, the Cougars won 60 percent of the WAC Championships—more than all other conference competitors combined. Included in these team titles, BYU's basketball team won 22 division titles in 23 years and was ranked as high as No. 1 in 1983. For the second straight season, BYU teams claimed eight MWC Championships during the 2003-04 season.

BYU's women's cross country team has been simply dominating the past decade, winning the national championship in four out of the last six years (1997, 1999, 2001, 2003) and finishing second in 1998, 2000 and 2002.

After five consecutive postseason appearances, including three NCAA bids, and two NBA draft picks in the last two years, BYU basketball continued to rise. MWC Defensive Player of the Year Mike Hall (above) leads the Cougars in 2004-05.

Two-time All-MWC Greg Machlaler carries on BYU's long and rich men's golf tradition. Including the 1991 National Championship, the Cougars have 12 top-5 finishes and 18 top-10 finishes at the NCAA Tournament including last season's ninth-place finish.

BYU's Nathan Robinson leads a talented Cougar track & field team that has earned 22 conference championships and consistently ranks among the top-20 track & field programs in the country including a 10th-place finish last season.

For the fifth consecutive year, BYU's men's and women's swimming and diving teams earned MWC Championships.

All-American Karli Lords led the Cougar gymnasts to a successful 2004 season. Finishing the regular season ranked No. 6 in the nation, BYU was the top seed at the NCAA Central Regional. Head coach Brad Caltermole was named NCAA Central Region Coach of the Year.

BYU's women's soccer has established itself as a national power after their seventh-straight NCAA Tournament appearance and last year's run into the NCAA's Elite Eight.

All-American Barbora Zahnova led BYU to a Mountain West Conference Championship in 2004. BYU has won 19 women's tennis conference championships in the last 28 years.

UTAH VALLEY COMMUNITY

Utah's white splendor has been characterized as "The Greatest Snow On Earth." With an average annual snowfall of more than 42 feet, skiing and snowboarding at any of Utah's 14 resorts is truly a winter wonderland. Knee-deep powder and untouched snow are common characteristics of mountain resorts throughout Utah. The Wasatch Mountains provide a backdrop for Utah Valley with high peaks and rugged terrain that give bikers and hikers a taste of wildflower meadows, deep forests and snowcapped mountain peaks. Breathtaking vistas and spectacular views awaken the senses to nature's simple beauties.

A mountain biker's dream come true, Moab is paradise for fat-tire bikers. Just a three-hour drive from Provo, Moab is an old mining town that neighbors Arches National Park, one of six national parks and seven national monuments within a half-day drive from Provo. Ascending to higher elevations, clear mountain streams and rushing rivers wash through green landscapes and deep forests. The numerous canyons surrounding Utah Valley are full of mountain springs, lakes and waterfalls.

With a population over 377,000 people, Utah County offers all the conveniences of a major metropolitan community. Just 40 minutes south of Salt Lake City, host of the 2002 Winter Olympics, Provo also offers various recreational activities. Known for its incredible skiing and central location to 15 national parks and monuments, Utah County attracts visitors from around the world.

The Utah Valley metropolitan communities of Provo and Orem are home to a growing high-tech mecca, including the world headquarters for many computer and technology corporations. The Provo/Orem area boasts one of the highest standards of living in the country and has been rated by several experts as one of the top areas to live in the United States. In a 2001 FBI report, the Provo/Orem metropolitan area had the second lowest violent crime rate in the nation. Utah Valley is an excellent educational environment with high-quality health care, a below average crime rate and rich cultural and recreational opportunities for its citizens. In fact, in May 2003 Forbes rated Provo as the sixth best city in the country for businesses and careers. The Utah Valley area has also been ranked among the top 20 places to live in the nation (according to Money Magazine) for the past five years. In September 1991, the magazine rated the area no. 1 on its list of the top 300 places in the nation to live. Fortune magazine also considers Provo to be the "third high-tech cluster in the U.S."

The Sundance Institute, located in Provo Canyon, offers locals and visitors an opportunity to experience some of the region's artistic culture. Every year, some 20,000 people attend Robert Redford's Sundance Film Festival. Several films that premiered at the festival have been the recipients of Oscar, Emmy and International Film Festival awards. Sundance offers year-round activities that can be enjoyed by everyone, including its ski resort, summer outdoor theater, fine dining and shopping.

Utah Valley is a major gateway to six national parks, seven National Monuments, two National Recreational areas, six National Forests and 44 State Parks.

In 1995, a group of former BYU athletes met in Provo to pursue the dream of uniting their colleagues into an organization dedicated to preserving the camaraderie they enjoyed as varsity athletes.

Rondo Fehlberg, Athletic Director at BYU from 1994 through 1999, shared his vision of what a Varsity Club could be with Gifford Nielsen, former BYU All-American, Dick Felt, Football Coach, and selected coaches and athletes. Their efforts were organized by Rex Pugmire of the Alumni Association with the establishment of a governing board, bylaws and club objectives. They also hoped to create a vehicle for giving something meaningful back to BYU.

Out of this dream was born the BYU Varsity Club. In the summer of 1999, the Varsity Club became a Friendship Arm of the Cougar Club, operating under the auspices of the Athletic Department.

IF YOU WERE A BYU VARSITY ATHLETE, WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN US.

GARY PULLINS

Varsity Club Director

"I believe we all share a unique vision of the success and integrity our BYU athletic teams must strive to attain. All of you certainly understand the sacrifice and commitment it takes to be victorious in the heat of competition. Without your talent, effort, and spirit, our sports programs would not be what they are today. Please accept our heartfelt gratitude for your past, present and future association. With this in mind, I encourage you to become a member of the BYU Varsity Club. Your involvement will help us to continue our high athletic traditions and to create exciting new ones. Come join us as we all strive for a higher level of excellence."

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

- Develop a regional and national network of athletic alumni leading to Cougar Club sustained membership.
- Encourage camaraderie among former varsity athletes through activities and service.
- Establish a Varsity Club speaker's bureau.
- Increase communication among former BYU athletes.

VARSITY CLUB TAIL GATE PARTY

Tail gate parties will be held at the Varsity Club Mezzanine at the LaVell Edwards Stadium beginning two hours before game time of all home football games. There will not be a tail gate during the half times. We encourage you to arrive early, enjoy visiting with your former teammates and get charged up for the big game. Varsity Club members and one guest can participate for free. Additional guests pay a nominal $3 entrance fee. See you at the tail gates. Arrive early and cheer for the Cougars!

BYU COUGAR CLUB

With the donations and support of nearly 5,000 members nationwide, the Cougar Club has helped BYU build one of America's strongest collegiate athletic programs. Through its fund-raising and promotional mission, the Cougar Club is ensuring the future success of BYU athletics.

Loyal Cougar Club members across America are building the foundation for BYU's future athletic victories. The changing nature of collegiate athletics means that to compete at the highest levels, BYU must raise more money every year. The costs associated with being one of the nation's top programs continue to rise dramatically. With that challenge in mind, the support of Cougar Club and its members becomes an even more important key to the future growth of BYU athletics.

"The BYU donors and fans make all the difference," says Cougar Club Executive Director Michael Middleton. "For our teams to continue to achieve national prominence, the Cougar Club needs to continue to grow."

"FOR MORE THAN THREE DECADES, THE COUGAR CLUB HAS BEEN THE LIFE BLOOD OF BYU ATHLETICS. WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR ALL THE GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS OF OUR FANS."

— VAL HALE, BYU MEN'S ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

FUNDING

Cougar Club donations are used for many vital projects, including:

- Funding the entire athletic program's recruiting expenses, helping BYU coaches to attract some of the world's premier athletes to Provo, Utah.
- Building new facilities including the Indoor Practice Facility, Student Athlete Building, and Miller Baseball/Softball complex.
- Supporting the Student Athlete Academic Center, which includes sponsoring academic tutoring for student athletes, providing laptop computers for the athletes to use when traveling, and sustaining an endowment that provides spring/summer and post-eligibility scholarships that assist current and former athletes to finish their degrees.

MEMBER BENEFITS

There is a Cougar Club membership level for every fan who wants to help BYU continue to build a strong athletic tradition. Individuals and businesses annually make tax-deductible Cougar Club contributions of between $50 and $1,000—based on their financial ability to give and the athletic benefits they want to receive. To acknowledge the generosity of Club members, the athletic department makes a number of benefits available to Club members, including priority seating, parking passes, and Club events. However, the greatest benefit of membership is knowing that the Cougar Club is helping BYU athletics continue to be one of the nation's top collegiate athletic programs.

THE LEGACY PROGRAM

In 1997, Cougar Club introduced the Legacy Program to further ensure BYU's continued athletic success. The Legacy Program is designed to help Club members structure their financial planning (appreciated securities, trusts, bequests, wills, life insurance, and other options) to benefit BYU athletics, while maximizing flexibility and tax benefits for the donor. Additional athletic benefits are available through the Legacy Program for BYU donors who make present-value Legacy gifts of $10,000 or more during a period of three years or less.

EVENTS

The Cougar Club sponsors many programs and events that build athletic loyalty among Cougar fans, BYU alumni, and other friends of the University. The Cougar Club annually sponsors more than 30 events for the enjoyment of club members, including:

- BYU Athletic Hall of Fame
- The Y Awards
- Academic Athlete Banquet
- "Meet the Football Team" Watermelon Bust
- Men's Basketball Cougar Tipoff
- Pre-game activities before each home football game, where Club members get a preview of the upcoming event from former players, University administrators, and members of the media while enjoying a delicious meal in the Cougar Room at LaVell Edwards Stadium
- Monthly luncheons with coaches and players
- Exciting athletic tours co-sponsored by the Cougar Club and the BYU Alumni Association
- Many other events in geographic areas with club chapters throughout the United States and Canada. Cougar Club chapters that hold their own events are currently

REASONS TO SUPPORT BYU AS A COUGAR CLUB MEMBER

1. With costs increasing more rapidly than ticket revenue, additional support is necessary to maintain a full athletic agenda.
2. Vital Cougar Club funds help maintain a strong athletic department.
3. BYU's athletic success is dependent on its ability to recruit outstanding student athletes. Cougar Club provides the essential resources to bring recruits to campus for recruiting visits and to send coaches on the road for recruiting trips.
4. Club funds strengthen the women's athletic program, helping it to achieve equality with other established programs.
5. Club funds help to provide the best facilities possible.
6. A strong athletic program provides opportunities for talented young people to develop their full potential.
7. A winning athletic program brings positive state and national recognition to Provo and enhances the local business climate and quality of life.

BYU ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

Sponsored and directed by the Cougar Club, the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1975. Since then, more than 140 former athletes, coaches and administrators have received this prestigious honor. Honored not only for their athletic abilities, but also giving community service and setting examples worthy for others to emulate, less than two percent of BYU varsity athletes are ever nominated for the Hall of Fame, with less than one percent being inducted. Selection into the Hall of Fame is based on playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship and character—as well as contributions to sport, team and community. Each inductee is honored with their picture and accomplishments in the Hall of Fame Gallery located in the Cougar Club Stadium Room.

STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER

STUDENT ATHLETE ACADEMIC CENTER (SAAC)

BYU student-athletes are seeking to excel academically, athletically, and are preparing for life after they graduate. The transition into university life can be challenging for any student. This is especially true for student-athletes who are expected to be good students and outstanding athletes. They are also under obligation to understand and comply with a variety of NCAA rules and regulations in order to be eligible to compete. The Student Athlete Academic Center was created to provide a place where student-athletes can receive support and resources as they pursue their goals.

TUTORING

Personal tutors are provided for athletes through the Student Athlete Academic Center with funds made available by the Cougar Club. Tutors are hired to tutor multiple subjects. To obtain a tutor, student-athletes may contact their academic advisor.

MENTORS

Mentors are available for any student-athlete through the Student Athlete Academic Center. Incoming freshmen will be assigned a mentor for their first semester. Mentors are equipped with the basic word processing programs: Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. Internet is accessible on some computers. Computers can be checked out before away games and should be checked in upon the athletes return.

NCAA CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS

The BYU Athletics Department is an active participant in the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The services provided by the Student Athlete Academic Center target each of the five commitments of the CHAMPS/Life Skills program.

One of the main priorities of the Center is to assist student-athletes as they transition into the BYU culture and the world of college athletics. Student-athletes are assigned an academic advisor to help them register for classes and monitor their progress toward graduation. The advisor is the contact person for student-athletes who have academic or eligibility questions and concerns. The advisor also helps student-athletes make connections with other campus resources such as the Counseling and Career Center, Multicultural Student Services, University Accessibility Center and College Advisement Centers.

ACADEMIC ADVISEMENT

The main focus of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to help student-athletes graduate on time. To achieve this goal, academic advisement is provided to all student-athletes. Advisors are available to help students-athletes register for classes, monitor athletic eligibility, secure tutorial help, and provide on-going support and encouragement. The academic advisors assist student-athletes by having them set weekly and semester goals, teaching them time management and academic success strategies and helping them communicate effectively with their professors. Advisors also assist the coaching staff in monitoring the day-to-day progress of student-athletes who struggle academically.

most often fifth-year student-athletes or graduate students. Mentors provide time management help, study skills, test taking tips, help adjusting to college, etc. To obtain a mentor, see the academic advisor assigned to your team.

COMPUTER LABS AND LAPTOP COMPUTERS

The computer lab is located in the Student Athlete Academic Center and is an Access Point Lab available for all students. Athletes can utilize the computers for research and writing papers. E-mailing and surfing the Internet is not considered legitimate study hall time, but is permissible when not in study hall. Laptop computers are available on a first-come first-serve basis. The computers are

COMMITMENT TO ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

A primary goal of the Student Athlete Academic Center is to ensure that every student-athlete graduates with a bachelor's degree in their chosen field of study. To achieve this goal, the Center provides a team advisor as part of the comprehensive academic support program. Each athlete has regular visits with his/her team advisor who assists with registration and monitors progress toward graduation. Tutoring is also available for every student-athlete. The Student Athlete Academic Center is conveniently located on the third floor of the new Student Athlete Building.

COMMITMENT TO ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

The Student Athlete Academic Center employs a sport psychologist to provide performance enhancement interventions for BYU teams, coaches and student-athletes. These interventions include: increasing awareness for sport performance, goal-setting, arousal regulation through relaxation and energizing techniques, imagery training, confidence building through self-talk strategies, developing pre-competition plans, concentration (focusing) training and team-building interventions. The overall objective of these types of interventions is to assist individual student-athletes and athletic teams to perform at consistently high levels. Personal counseling is also available through the sport psychologist as needed.

SERVICES AVAILABLE IN THE STUDENT ATHLETE CENTER INCLUDE:

- Academic Advising
- Career Counseling and Testing
- Community Service Opportunities
- Computer Lab
- Group Study Sessions
- Laptop Computers
- Leadership Opportunities (Cougar Council)
- Mentoring
- Sport Psychology
- Study Facilities
- Tutoring

COMMITMENT TO PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Student-Athlete Academic Center personnel are also active in teaching classes designed to promote leadership, emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills. Student-athletes are taught about some of the unique issues they face in the world of college athletics and how to thrive in the university setting and beyond.

COMMITMENT TO CAREER DEVELOPMENT

A career specialist is available to assist student-athletes with a variety of career issues. They receive help in choosing a major, building their resume, establishing a career network and preparing for their transition from college athletics into the world of work. These services are available through individual consultation, workshops, computer programs and University courses. Career exploration and career transition classes are highly recommended to all student-athletes. Internship and employment opportunities are also made available through the Career Network, which is made up of Varsity Club and Cougar Club members.

COMMITMENT TO SERVICE

A vital part of Brigham Young University's involvement in the CHAMPS/Life Skills program includes a commitment to service. The CHAMPS program supports the philosophy that all student-athletes have inherent talents that allow them to excel in athletics and in life. Athletes provide valuable role models and have many unique opportunities to serve their campus and surrounding communities. The Student-Athlete Academic Center coordinates service opportunities networking with schools, churches and community events. Many requests for service projects are received throughout the year. Student-athletes are expected to be involved in at least three hours of community service per semester. Student-athletes enjoy the opportunity to be involved in serving and find these opportunities fun and rewarding.

CECIL SAMUELSON

University President

Cecil O. Samuelson began his work as the 14th president of Brigham Young University on May 1, 2003.

Dr. Samuelson is a Salt Lake City native who has served at the University of Utah as professor of medicine, dean of the School of Medicine and vice president of health sciences. Prior to his call as a full-time

General Authority of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he was senior vice president of Intermountain Health Care. He holds a bachelor of science degree, a master's degree in educational psychology and a medical degree from the University of Utah.

He fulfilled his residency and held a fellowship in rheumatic and genetic diseases at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina. He has received numerous scholastic honors and is the author or co-author of 48 original publications, eight books or chapters of books and 13 abstracts. He also has served as a director, officer or member of several national medical and hospital organizations.

Dr. Samuelson was called in 1994 to serve the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as a member of the First Quorum of the Seventy. At the time of his assignment to BYU, he was a member of the Presidency of the Seventy. He has served the Church also as a regional representative, stake president, stake high councilor, branch president and missionary. He has served as president of two areas of the Church, the Utah North Area and the Europe North Area.

He and his wife, Sharon Giauque Samuelson, have five children and three grandchildren. Formal investiture of President Samuelson was on September 9, 2003.

K. FRED SKOUSEN

Advancement Vice President

Dr. K. Fred Skousen is in his fifth year as advancement vice president of Brigham Young University. Previously, he was Dean of the Marriott School of Management and Director of the School of Accountancy at BYU. He earned a Bachelor's degree from BYU and Masters and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Illinois.

Professor Skousen has been a consultant to the Financial Executive Research Foundation, the Controller General of the United States, the Federal Trade Commission and to several large companies. During the summer of 1969, he was a Faculty Resident on the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, D.C. During the summer of 1973, he was a Faculty Fellow with Price Waterhouse & Co., in Los Angeles. Dr. Skousen currently serves on the board of directors of several corporations.

Professor Skousen taught at the University of Illinois and the University of Minnesota prior to joining the faculty at BYU. Professor Skousen was appointed to a nine-member National Commission on Professional Accounting Education in 1982. Dr. Skousen held the J. Willard and Alice S. Marriott Chair of Management at BYU from 1989-1998.

Dr. Skousen is the author or co-author of more than 50 articles, research reports and books, including: "An Introduction to the SEC," "Intermediate Accounting," "Accounting: Concepts and Applications," and "Financial Accounting." Fred and his wife, Julie, have five sons, one daughter and 20 grandchildren.

LARRY ECHOHAWK

Faculty Representative

Larry EchoHawk is a tenured professor at the J. Reuben Clark School of Law at Brigham Young University. He was appointed the BYU Faculty Representative in May 2004. As the faculty representative he works closely with BYU's administration and athletics administrators in monitoring the athletic program within the BYU community and its relationships outside the university.

In 1995, he received one of the NCAA's highest honors, the Silver Anniversary Award, which is given to collegiate athletes who graduated 25 years ago and who have gone on to make outstanding contributions in their professional lives. Only five are awarded every year and EchoHawk joins Gifford Nielson as the only BYU student-athletes to receive such an honor.

Professor EchoHawk attended BYU on a football scholarship and competed in every game between the years of 1966 to 1969, where he earned Academic All-Western Athletic Conference honors before he graduated in 1970. Upon graduation, he received a juris doctor degree from the University of Utah in 1973 and completed graduate business courses at Stanford University. A member of the Pawnee Tribe, Dr. EchoHawk served as Attorney General for the State of Idaho from 1990 to 1994 and in 1994 was the Democratic nominee for governor of Idaho. He joined BYU's law faculty in 1995 and was named Professor of the Year by the law students in 1997. In 1999, President Bill Clinton appointed Dr. EchoHawk to the Coordinating Council on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

Dr. EchoHawk married the former Terry Pries. They are the proud parents of six children: Jennifer, Paul, Mark, Matthew, Emily and Michael.

VAL HALE

Director of Men's Athletics

In his sixth year as BYU's athletic director, Val Hale has overseen one of the most aggressive building and fund-raising efforts in the school's history. Last year construction was completed on the Indoor Practice Facility and the Student Athlete Academic Center, as well as the new Club Seats at Edwards Stadium. Four years ago, BYU opened Miller Park, a showcase facility for the baseball and softball teams. Currently underway is remodeling of coaches' offices, locker rooms, and the Olympic Sport weight room in the Smith Fieldhouse.

Prior to his appointment in 1999, Hale served ten years as an associate athletic director for external affairs. He had the responsibility of overseeing the athletic media relations operation and promotional/marketing efforts.

Hale has been assistant director of BYU Development, where he supervised and managed fund-raising efforts in several clubs. He was promotions and publications coordinator for the Athletic Department from 1982-87.

Hale has been active in church and civic responsibilities. He recently completed a term as president of the Utah Chapter of the National Football Foundation and the College Hall of Fame, Inc. He currently serves as chair of the NCAA Men's Golf Committee and the Mountain West Conference Championships Committee. He is first counselor in the Orem Utah Cascade stake presidency.

Hale was an all-region football player and all-state track athlete at Orem (Utah) High School. He played one year of junior varsity football at BYU in 1975 before serving an LDS Church mission to Chile from 1976-78. Hale was a cum laude graduate at BYU in 1981. He received his M.A. degree from BYU in communications in 1987. He married the former Nancy Allred, and they have three children: Chris, Brandon and Rachel. Chris is a wide receiver on the BYU football team.

ELAINE MICHAELIS

Director of Women's Athletics

Elaine Michaelis enters her tenth year overseeing BYU's 11 women's intercollegiate sports as director of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics. Consistently ranking among the top 10 women's programs in the country, BYU's women's teams won five Mountain West Conference titles last year while one placed second and three finished third. Eight teams advanced to NCAA play, with cross country finishing as national runner-up and soccer participating in the NCAA Elite Eight.

In May 2002, Michaelis retired as BYU's women's volleyball coach after 40 years at the helm. She retired as the all-time leader in victories among female coaches in collegiate volleyball at any level (887-225-5 record in 33 seasons since records were kept in 1969) and ranks second overall in all-time Division I women's volleyball wins. Michaelis never suffered a losing season after completing her 28th consecutive 20-win campaign in 2001. Her teams qualified for 30 of the 33 national tournaments, including 20 of 21 NCAA tournaments, and claimed 23 conference titles.

An eight-time conference coach of the year, Michaelis was also honored with numerous national and regional awards, including the 2002 United States Olympic Committee National Coach of the Year - Volleyball, 2001 USA Volleyball All-Time Great Coach Award, 1996 AVCA Founders Award, 1996 NCAA District 7 Coach of the Year, 1993 U.S. Volleyball Award and 1987 Tachikara Northwest Region Division I Coach of the Year. She was inducted into the Utah Summer Games Hall of Fame in 1987 and the Hall of Fame of the Utah Network for Women and Girls in Sport in 1990. In 1993, she was one of three honorees of the Salt Lake City Old Time Coaches Association and was the 1994 recipient of the Dale Rex Memorial Award. In 2003 she was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame.

Michaelis also coached basketball, softball and field hockey at BYU and served as director of the women's intramural and extramural programs for 10 years. She has been part of BYU's women's athletics program since she was a student participating in volleyball, basketball and softball from 1956-60. She earned a B.S. degree and an M.S. degree from BYU and holds the rank of associate professor of physical education and full athletic professional.

PETER PILLING

Pilling came to BYU in December of 2001 after spending four years as associate athletic director for external operations at Villanova University. He is currently responsible for track, cross country, tennis and swimming sport administration, revenue enhancement, marketing, corporate partnerships, TV and radio rights and facility capital campaign. At Villanova he managed and oversaw the operations of marketing, promotions, licensing, media relations, ticket operations and the Wildcat radio and television network. His other professional experience includes tenures as associate athletic director at St. Bonaventure and the University of Wyoming. He has also held athletic administrative positions at Morehead State and the University of Kentucky. Pilling has served as an NCAA peer review member and has held positions on the Big East and Atlantic 10 conference committees. Pilling is a former board member and past president of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). He also served on the board of directors for the National Collegiate Licensing Association (NCLA). In June of 2001, he was the recipient of the 2001 NACMA National Outstanding Individual Achievement Award. A graduate of BYU with a B.S. in accounting, Pilling continued his education at Ohio University where he earned a Masters Degree in Sports Administration. He and his wife, Deanna, have four children: Travis (21), Kyler (17), C.J. (13) and McKenna (7).

TOM HOLMOE

Associate AD/Development

As associate athletics director for development, Holmoe oversees fund-raising efforts for BYU's men's and women's athletic departments. As part of his responsibilities, he supervises Cougar Club and the capital campaign for athletic facilities. He also serves as the department's liaison with the LDS Foundation.

Holmoe's hiring in June 2002 marks the third time he has been part of BYU's athletic program. In addition to his undergraduate work and playing career, Holmoe served as a graduate assistant coach under LaVell Edwards on BYU's football team in 1990 and 1991. He earned his bachelor's degree at BYU in zoology in 1983 and received a master's degree from BYU in athletic administration in 1995. A former Cougar defensive back from 1978-82, Holmoe went on to play seven years in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers where he earned three Super Bowl rings in 1984, 1988, and 1989. Holmoe's 12-year coaching experience in college football and in the NFL includes assistant coaching positions with Bill Walsh at Stanford from 1992-93 and with George Selert in San Francisco from 1994-95, at which time the 49ers won their franchise's fifth Super Bowl. Following Steve Mariucci's departure, he assumed duties as head coach of California's football program from 1997 to the 2001 season. Holmoe and his wife, Lori, are the parents of four children.

A PREVIEW OF OPPONENTS AND CONFERENCE INFORMATION

AN ELITE EIGHT-TEAM CONFERENCE THAT STANDS ABOVE THE REST

"We're grateful our teams have performed so well, but frankly, we expect each of them to win the conference championship every year. When we don't win, we're very disappointed. It's a source of pride. We expect to win, and we truly believe we can."

— BYU ATHLETIC DIRECTOR VAL HALE

Fans and players join in celebration of BYU's 2001 MWC Championship. The Cougars finished the conference season 7-0 and are still the only team in the history of the MWC to go undefeated in conference play.

The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — met in Denver and decided to form the MWC.

The cornerstone of the conference's formation was the maintenance of long standing athletic rivalries among its member institutions. Hence, the Mountain West Conference was formed. Located in Colorado Springs, Colo., when the MWC's doors opened for business the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MWC football and men's basketball; and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl.

The Conference officially began operations on July 1, 1999. Prior to opening its doors an executive committee was established and named Craig Thompson commissioner. Thompson had less than one year to name the new league, settle on a city to serve as the league's headquarters, find a television partner, arrange for bowl tie-ins, hire staff, and develop a logo.

The Mountain West Conference is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful geography in the nation can be found within Mountain West Conference boundaries, including the unparalleled Rocky Mountain range, which borders four MWC schools (Utah).

BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,000 feet) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West), the balmy weather and Pacific Ocean locale of San Diego State and the southwestern flavor of New Mexico.

Highlights through the MWC's first five years include three women's cross country national championships; participation in 15 bowl games; sending 16 of its men's basketball teams to postseason play in the last three years, including nine NCAA Tournament appearances; 12 berths in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, including three "Sweet 16" appearances; sending five of eight men's golf teams to NCAAAs each of the last five years; and 14 NCAA Volleyball berths with two teams advancing to the "Sweet 16" three of the last five years.

In addition to the 19 MWC-sponsored sports, programs like BYU, New Mexico and Utah have national titles in non-league sports, including two NCAA titles in 2004. BYU has laid claim to the 2004, 2001 and 1999 NCAA men's volleyball championship. New Mexico captured the '04 national championship in men's skiing. Utah has won a total of 21 national championships in the sports of women's gymnastics and skiing.

CRAIG THOMPSON
MWC Commissioner

In the ever-changing world of intercollegiate athletics, Craig Thompson is poised to make sure the Mountain West Conference assumes its proper place within the Division I-A ranks. As the MWC embarks on its sixth season of athletic competition, Thompson enters his seventh year as the league's commissioner.

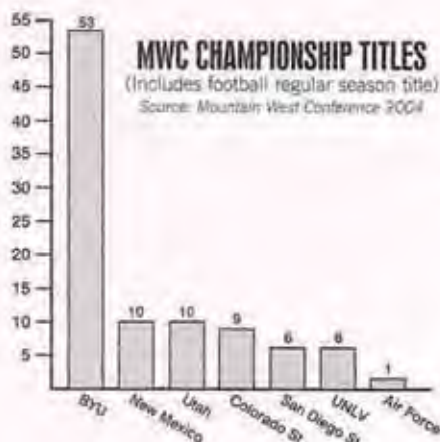

There is no more important issue facing the Mountain West than gaining access to college football's lucrative Bowl Championship Series. Thompson has been instrumental in the ongoing BCS discussions, and is considered a driving force in the negotiations for greater access. Following the expiration of the current BCS contract after the 2005 season, the champion of the Mountain West Conference will have a legitimate chance of playing in a BCS game.

Under his leadership, the Mountain West became a player in the changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics when it announced in January that TCU would become the MWC's ninth member beginning with the 2005-06 athletic season.

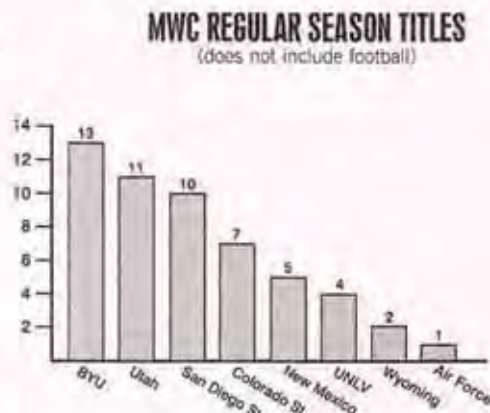

As the Mountain West enters its sixth year of a seven-year television contract with ESPN, Thompson has begun the negotiating process for the Conference's next television rights package. He also has taken a proactive approach in shaping the MWC's post-season bowl tie-ins.

Under Thompson's leadership, the Mountain West Conference continues to gain notoriety. Through the first five years, excluding institutional local packages, 423 football, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball games had been televised. Nearly 75 percent of the football games played had aired on television, with 94 games broadcast nationally. Thompson has guaranteed additional television exposure with the advent of MWC Productions and the league's partnership with College Sports Television.

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly 12 years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the leagues merger in 1991.

In the five year history of the Mountain West Conference, the Cougars have won 53 of 95 conference championships. That's nearly 60 percent of all championships awarded in the eight member conference.

2004 MWC SEASON NOTES

COUGARS LEAD MWC IN HOME ATTENDANCE

BYU, which boasts the largest on-campus home stadium in the Mountain West Conference, has led the MWC in home attendance in all five years of the league's existence, averaging 62,121 fans per game since the 1999 season. In fact, Edwards Stadium has been the site of the league's all-time top-seven crowds.

THE MWC WELCOMES TCU

On January 30, 2004, it was announced that TCU would become the ninth member of the Mountain West Conference beginning with the 2005-06 athletic season.

The Horned Frog football program has a rich 107-year history, including a 21-4 record over the last two seasons — ranking among the Top 7 in Division I-A. TCU has appeared in a school-record six straight bowl games, and finished in the Top 25 three of the last four years.

TOP CALIBER OPPONENTS

Of the 32 non-conference games MWC teams will play in 2004, 17 will be played at home. The '04 slate features 14 match-ups against opponents that participated in bowl games last season, with eight games vs. teams that were ranked in the final Top 25 polls, including four that finished in the Top 10. The upcoming campaign will be a milestone in that it marks the first time in conference history the MWC concludes its entire regular-season before Thanksgiving. A comprehensive conference-wide television schedule will be announced at Media Day. In 2004, the MWC anticipates 21 regular-season appearances on ABC, ESPN/ESPN2 and ESPN+Plus.

BOWL ARRANGEMENTS

The Mountain West begins 2004 with agreements to send three teams to bowl games. Since 1999, the MWC has posted a 7-8 bowl record.

Bowl	MWC Choice	vs.	Date
Liberty	#1	C-USA #1	Dec. 31
Las Vegas	#2	Pac-10 #5	Dec. 23
Emerald	#3	Pac-10 #6	Dec. 31

The MWC is in its final year of a three-year agreement with both the Liberty and Las Vegas bowls, and the third year of a four-year arrangement with the Emerald Bowl.

CONFERENCE BALANCE

Last season marked the first time six of the eight teams in the Mountain West (.750) finished the year with records of .500 or better. In the five-year history of the MWC, the home team has gone 70-70 in conference games.

MOUNTAIN WEST BOWL GAMES

2004 AutoZone Liberty Bowl

Friday, December 31 • 2:30 p.m. EST on ESPN • Memphis, Tennessee

For Ticket Information Call (901) 793-9093

NEW SPONSOR

The Liberty Bowl signed a five-year agreement with Memphis-based auto parts retailer, AutoZone, to be the game's title sponsor. Entering its 45th year, the AutoZone Liberty Bowl is college football's seventh oldest bowl game, and the only post-season contest outside the BCS to feature conference champions.

2004 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Thursday, December 23 • Las Vegas, Nev. • ESPN

NEW DATE

After playing on Christmas Eve last year and Christmas Day the previous two seasons, the Las Vegas Bowl announced the 2004 game has moved to December 23. Las Vegas Bowl XIII will be televised by ESPN, with kickoff scheduled for 6:45 p.m. PT on Thursday, December 23rd.

2004 EMERALD BOWL

Thursday, December 30 • San Francisco, Calif. • ESPN2

NEW NAME

The two-year old Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl changed its name to the "Emerald Bowl." Diamond will continue as the game's title sponsor, extending its contract for an additional three years. The name change reflects the company's new snack brand, Emerald Nuts.

Bowl games have been a part of college football for 90 years. They have provided some of the greatest moments in college football history and add to the pageantry, color and excitement of the game. Bowl games are as much a part of the tradition of college football as any other aspect of the game.

This year, 28 bowl games will distribute more than $187 Million to NCAA schools. More than $820 million has been paid out in just the past five years and the bowls will conservatively pay out more than $2.1 Billion over the next ten years. 86 (out of 117) different Division IA schools have participated in at least one bowl game in the past six seasons. A total of 56 schools, or 48 percent, will be a part of the post-season bowl experience this season and 28 teams will finish their season as a bowl champion. Average attendance was up 3.2% this past year. Bowls drew a record total attendance of 1.45 million fans in 2003-04. Of the 20 current bowls that have been played at least five years, attendance was up and stadium capacity was at 95.2%. Newer bowls don't have the benefit of years of building a local base of support. The combined TV audience for the 28 bowls was an average of 117 million households and 17 games saw increases in TV viewer-ship.

The BYU vs. Utah rivalry has become one of the most heated and most anticipated match ups in the nation. The Utes and the Cougars have met 79 times since 1922. Utah dominated the rivalry until 1965 when the Cougars began to hold the advantage over the Utes. Since 1965 BYU is 26-13 against the Utes. During the past seven meetings in this rivalry, games have been decided by seven points or less including two last minute comebacks by BYU in 2000 and 2001.

VS.

"I think people from the South and from the Midwest ought to see this. This is a big-time football rivalry." — Bill Curry, ESPN College Football Analyst

It all started on October 14, 1922. Well, according to BYU, anyway. Utah claims the first meeting between the schools was on April 6, 1896, when BYU was still Brigham Young Academy.

It's just one of many things the two schools don't agree on. The Academy played Utah six times between 1896 and 1898, before Provo could officially boast its own full-fledged university. Each team won three games.

The Cougars and the Utes have built a strong tradition of intense competition in the 79 years of the rivalry. With the exception of the war years from 1943-45, the two schools have faced each other every year since 1922.

The Utes dominated the series early on, avoiding defeat until 1942, when the Cougars finally won, 12-7, in Salt Lake City behind Coach Floyd Millet. The success was short-lived, however, as it took BYU another 16 years to win another contest, 14-7, again in Salt Lake City in 1958. In all, Utah won 34 of the first 40 contests, four of which were ties.

In 1965, the momentum began to turn in BYU's favor. The Cougars took three in a row from the Utes from 1965-67, and although Utah won the next four, the competition had become much more interesting.

In 1972, the series took on an entirely different feeling with the arrival of LaVell Edwards as BYU's new head coach. He took on a program that had gone 5-38-4 (.149) against its fiercest rival and proceeded to post a 22-7 (.757) record against Utah in 29 years, including wins in 15 of his first 16 meetings with the Utes. In the Edwards era, the Cougars outscored the Utes an average of 34.9 to 20.9 per contest. Coach Edwards' career included winning streaks of nine (1979-87) and six (1972-77) games against Utah.

The annual showdown generates considerable interest throughout the state, making it a virtual certainty that whatever stadium the teams play in will be sold out well in advance. In all, seven of Utah's top ten home crowds before the expansion of Rice-Eccles Stadium were for games against BYU.

Meanwhile, 45 miles south in Provo, the grudge match has accounted for five of the 20 largest crowds in the history of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

One of the more memorable moments in the rivalry was the 1989 contest in which the Cougars punted the Utes, 70-31, in Provo. It was a game in which the home team scored touchdowns in each of its first seven possessions and in all eight with Ty Detmer as quarterback. In a move of mercy, Detmer was replaced by backup Sean Covey late in the second quarter.

Then there were the infamous back-to-back, 34-31, losses at the hands of the Utes in 1993 and 1994, giving rebirth to a rivalry that had become ridiculously lopsided in the 80s and early 90s. In all, the Utes won three in a row (1993-95) under coach Ron McBride.

The Cougars responded to the new aggression in 1996 with a dominating, 37-17, victory in Salt Lake City. BYU employed an extremely unconventional approach, gaining 376 yards in 63 attempts on the ground and attempting only 12 passes.

In 1998, a well-placed ESPN microphone picked up an audible "clank" as the potential game-winning kick bounced off the right goal post, allowing BYU to escape with a, 26-24, victory — despite Ron McBride's sideline prayer, as captured on national television.

BYU let the Utes back into the game after having seemingly put the game away in the fourth quarter, allowing Utah to set up a 32-yard field goal to win the game. BYU fans gave credit to divine intervention as the chip shot mysteriously hooked to the right at the last possible moment.

In 2000 LaVell Edwards worked his magic for the last time as Brandon Doman's touchdown with 23 seconds remaining finished an amazing last minute comeback to send the legendary BYU coach out a winner.

Provo has been much more friendly to the Cougars over the years, as BYU has posted a 13-16-1 record overall at home but has only managed a 15-31-3 record on the road against the Utes. Lately home field advantage seems to have become less of a factor, as the Utes won three straight at Edwards Stadium (1995, '97, '99) and the Cougars won three in a row in Salt Lake City (1996, 1998, 2000).

In 2001, BYU changed the trend in a miraculous, come-from-behind victory in Provo. With less than four minutes left in the game and down 11 points, BYU's hopes for a perfect season seemed dim. But Luke Staley scored two touchdowns in just over two minutes to erase the deficit and give the Cougars the 24-21 victory. The game was far from over after Staley's 30-yard touchdown. Lance Rice led Utah on a final drive in the last minute. Rice converted a key fourth-and-10 with a trick play, advancing the ball to the BYU 30-yard line. But on the very next play, Jemaro Gifford stepped in front of a Rice pass and intercepted the ball to seal the game (photo right).

Ryan Denney (above) can attest that 2001 was no exception in this hotly contested rivalry. ESPN color analyst Bill Curry said, "The intensity on this field and the intensity of this rivalry is palpable. You can feel it. It is big time."

In 2000 the Cougars led throughout the game only to fall behind 26-27 on a Matt Nickel TD reception with 2 minutes to play. Behind the heart of Brandon Doman and a little fate, BYU converted on a 4th down conversion with less than a minute to play. Then Doman connected with senior Jonathan Pittman along the sideline before Luke Staley took the ball inside Utah's 10-yard line. From there Doman scored with 23 seconds remaining on a quarterback sweep right to give BYU the miraculous come-from-behind victory (photo above).

In 2002 Utah beat the Cougars for the first time since 1994 in Salt Lake. The 13-6 Ute victory was not without controversy. BYU quarterback Lance Pendleton was stripped of the football on the goal line, but replays later showed that his knee was down before the strip (photo top left).

Last season BYU held Utah to just three points on a snowy day in Provo. Only problem was, BYU was without offensive threat Reynaldo Brathwaite and its top quarterbacks. BYU's offense sputtered and the Utes gave BYU its first shutout since 1975 (Ending an NCAA record 361 consecutive games without a shutout). Meanwhile the win also gave Utah its first outright league championship since 1957.

BYU players and fans celebrate Jarrod Gilford's game-ending interception that sealed BYU's 2001 MWC Championship. BYU is the only team in conference history to go undefeated in conference play (2001).

2003 SEASON REVIEW

BYU'S DEFENSE SHINES AS OFFENSE SUFFERS THROUGH INJURIES

BYU entered the 2003 season looking to bounce back from the program's first losing season in 29 years. The Cougars returned 11 starters on defense, and were implementing a new defensive scheme under the direction of new defensive coordinator Bronco Mendenhall.

The 2003 football campaign started with a lot of promise. The Cougars opened the season in Provo against ACC foe Georgia Tech. The Yellow Jackets jumped out to an early lead on a field goal before Matt Berry hit Daniel Coats for a 38-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-3 lead.

Georgia Tech regained the lead going into the half after kicking another field goal and scoring a touchdown of their own, but the Cougar defense buckled down and held the Yellow Jackets scoreless for the remainder of the game.

The Cougars took the lead for good on Berry's second touchdown pass to Coats. The pair hooked up for six passes for 93 yards on the night. Berry finished the game with 276 yards and three touchdown passes. For his effort, Coats was named the MWC Offensive Player of the Week.

The following week, BYU traveled to Los Angeles to take on eventual national champion USC. The Trojans jumped out to an early 21-0 lead, capitalizing on two Cougar turnovers—one of which was returned for a touchdown by Omar Nazei.

BYU fought back, scoring 18 straight points to cut the lead to just three points before the Trojans added two late touchdowns to account for the game's final score, 35-18.

After two hard-fought, non-conference games to open the season, BYU opened its MWC schedule on the road against New Mexico. The Cougars jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on a first-quarter field goal by Matt Payne that was set up by an 89-yard run by Reynaldo Brathwaite. Brathwaite finished the game with 169 yards rushing and was named MWC Offensive Player of the Week.

BYU added a touchdown just before halftime on a 29-yard pass from Berry to Philip Niu. The Cougars held on for a 10-7 victory, but would be without the services of Berry for four weeks as the sophomore quarterback broke a bone in his throwing hand.

True freshman quarterback John Beck made his first career start against Stanford the following week. It was only the second time in BYU history that a true freshman started a game. Beck got BYU off to a quick start, hitting wide receiver Toby Christensen for a 27-yard touchdown pass.

The Cardinal offense reeled off nine straight points to take a 9-7 lead in the third quarter, but BYU charged back to take a 14-9 lead on a double pass from Lance Pendleton to Daniel Coats.

BYU's defense played an excellent game, holding the Cardinal to just 200 total yards, including 56 yards passing. However, after a crucial BYU turnover, the Cardinal would close the game with a field goal and a touchdown to secure the 18-14 victory.

Following the loss to Stanford, BYU looked to regroup against Air Force. The two teams locked up in a defensive battle for much of the game. The Cougars' attacking defense was able to confuse the Falcons, holding them 144 yards below their rushing average.

Aaron Francisco led BYU's defensive charge with 11 tackles, including seven solo takedowns, and senior safety Jared Meibos recorded an interception.

The two teams fought back and forth with BYU tying the game at 10 in the third quarter after a 25-yard pass from Beck to Niu. Air Force took the lead for good in the fourth quarter on a 30-yard pass from Chance Harridge to J.P. Waller.

The Cougars were driving into Falcon territory late in the game when a fumble by Marcus Whalen ended the BYU scoring threat. Air Force added a touchdown as time expired to seal the 24-10 victory.

Reeling from two straight home losses, the Cougars packed their bags and headed to San Diego State to take on the Aztecs. San Diego State got on the board early after Brook Miller picked up a BYU fumble and scampered 44 yards for the score.

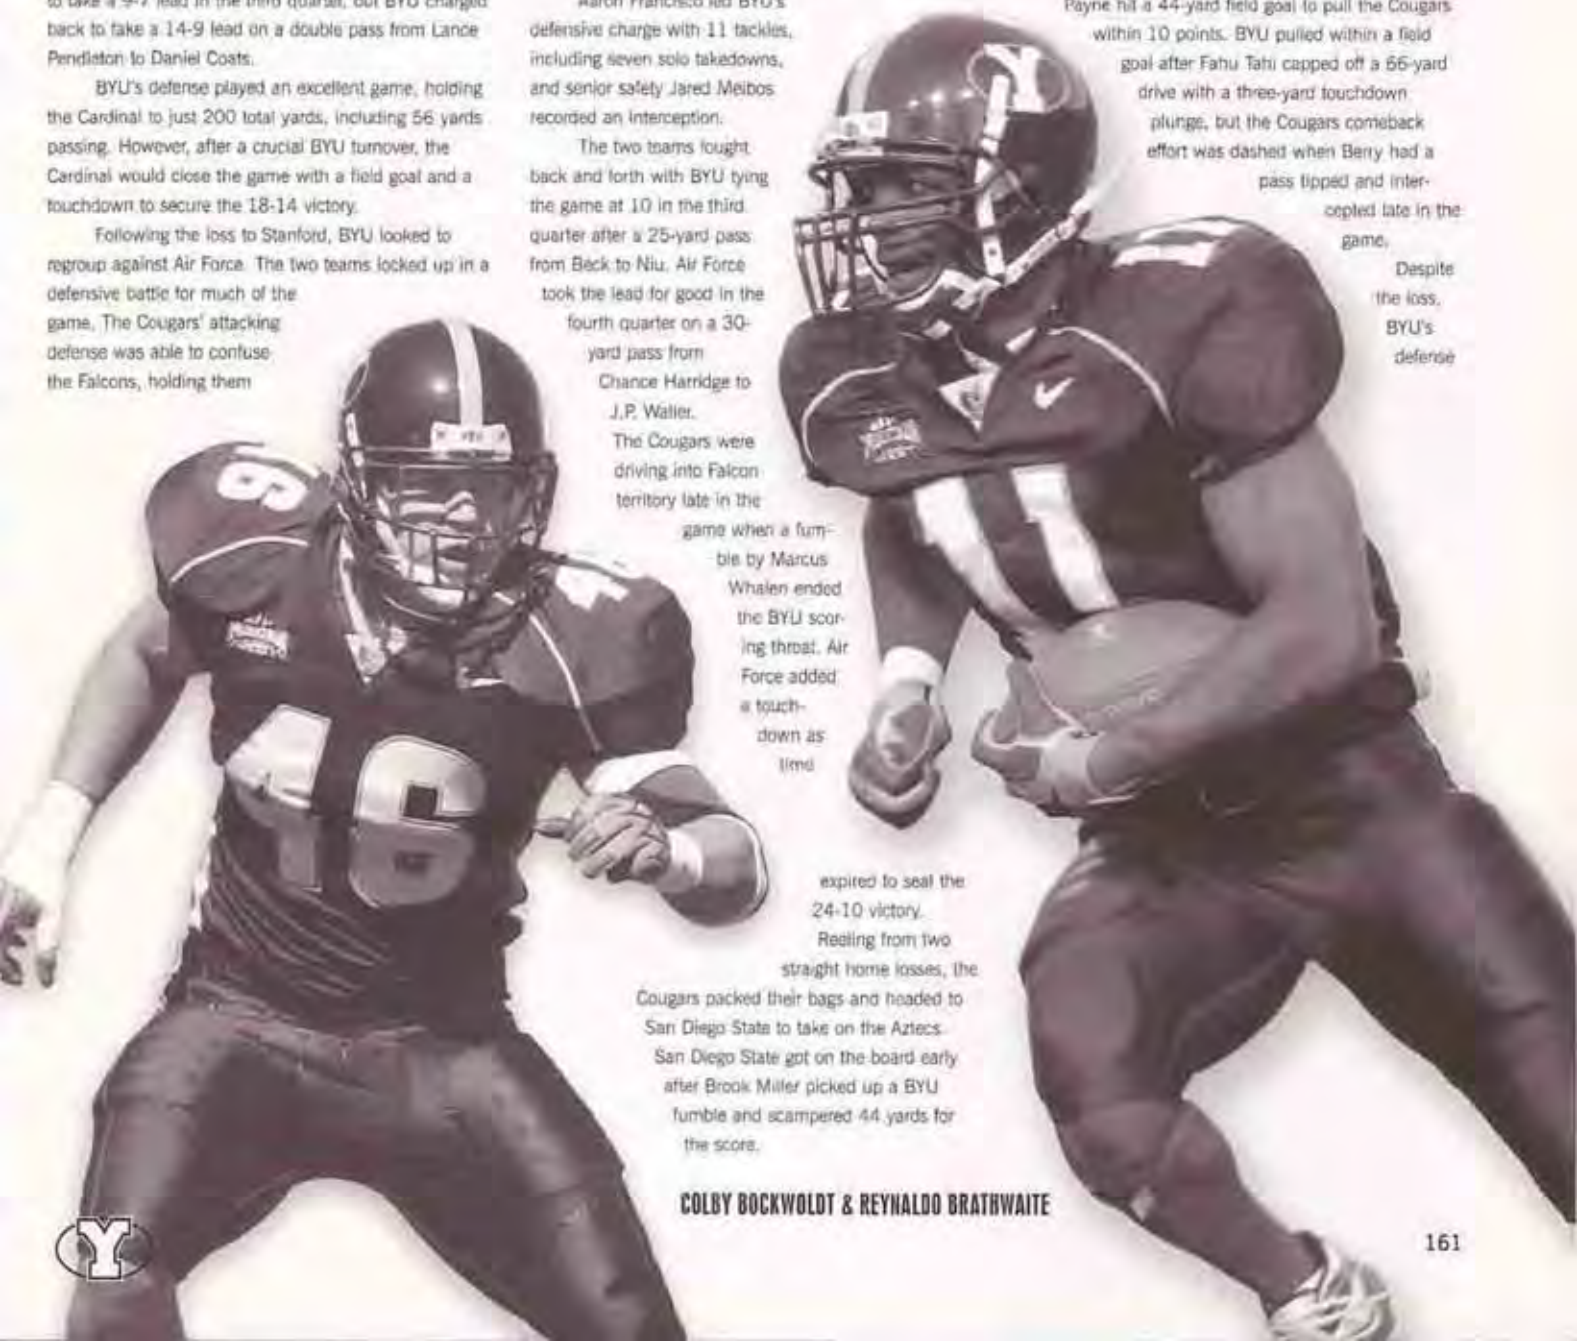

BYU countered quickly with a seven-play drive that culminated in a four-yard touchdown run by Beck. After the Aztecs took the lead on a 70-yard touchdown pass to Jeff Webb, Brathwaite took over. He finished the game with 144 yards rushing, including a school-record 95-yarder for a touchdown to help lead BYU to a 44-36 victory.

The Cougars returned home with a 3-3 record and were set to take on Colorado State for the annual homecoming game. The Rams dominated the game from start to finish, defeating BYU 58-13. The 45-point loss was the worst for a BYU football team since a 48-0 loss to Wyoming in 1950.

After losing three of its first four games at home, BYU hit the road again where it had posted a 2-1 record. The Cougars traveled to Laramie, Wyo., to take on the Cowboys. Wyoming jumped out to a 13-0 lead, but BYU, led by Berry who was making his first start after injuring his hand against New Mexico, would fight back.

BYU began to claw back into the game after Matt Payne hit a 44-yard field goal to pull the Cougars within 10 points. BYU pulled within a field goal after Fahu Tahu capped off a 66-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown plunge, but the Cougars comeback effort was dashed when Berry had a pass tipped and intercepted late in the game.

Despite the loss, BYU's defense

COLBY BOCKWOLDT & REYNALDO BRATHWAITE

In 2003, Bronco Mendenhall took the reigns of BYU's defense and transformed it into one of the best in the nation. Mendenhall's defense finished the season ranked 14th in the nation and his pass defense eighth. BYU's defense also held its opponent below its season average in 10 out of 11 games (see chart on next page).

continued to shine, holding the MWC's leading passer, Casey Bramlet to 143 yards while forcing two interceptions. Coming into the game, Bramlet had thrown only two interceptions all season.

The following week against UNLV, BYU looked to change its fortunes, but early on it didn't look good for the Cougars. UNLV jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the first quarter, benefiting from three BYU turnovers.

Not to be outdone, BYU matched the Rebels' 13 first-quarter points to tie the game going into halftime. Toby Christensen scored on an eight-yard pass from Berry, along with two field goals by Payne to tie the score. Both teams remained scoreless for much of the second half until Rebel quarterback Kurt Nantkes hit Earvin Johnson for a touchdown to break the tie.

But the Cougars wouldn't be denied a victory on this day as Berry led his team down the field to tie the game on a one-yard touchdown run, sending the game to overtime where he then completed a nine-yard pass to Christensen on the Cougars' first possession in the extra possession. BYU's defense intercepted a Nantkes pass to give BYU the win.

BYU was now 4-5 with Boise State coming to town for a Thursday night, nationally televised game. The Broncos wasted no time getting on the board, jumping out to a 14-0 lead in the first seven minutes of the game, and they didn't look back in the 50-12 victory. BYU scored two safeties and one touchdown—a one-yard run by Tafai Vakapuna.

The Cougars made its final road trip of the season the following week when the team traveled to South Bend, Ind. to take on Notre Dame. The Irish staked an early 6-0 lead, but BYU quickly took the lead on an 18-yard touchdown run by Brathwaite. That would be the only lead the Cougars would hold all day as the Irish won the game easily 33-14, securing BYU's second straight losing season.

With hopes of a winning record and possible bowl appearance dashed the week before, BYU was playing for pride when the University of Utah traveled to Provo for the final game of the season.

The two teams fought a defensive battle and suffered through freezing temperatures and snow throughout much of the game. Utah took a 3-0 lead in the first half on a 28-yard field goal by Nate Borreson. Those points would be all Utah would need as the Utes ended BYU's nation-leading scoring streak at 361 straight games. Despite the loss, the Cougar defense held the MWC's leading offense to just 220 yards—184 yards below their season average.

BYU ended the season with a 4-8 record, but there were a lot of positives that came out of the season. The BYU defense improved, finishing the season 14th in the nation in total defense, and the young quarterback's gained much needed experience that will aid them in the years to come.

COUGARS EQUAL 35-YEAR OLD RECORD

For the first time since 1968—a 35-year-old record—BYU finished the season with five home losses. In 1968, under head coach Tommy Hudspeth, the Cougars were 0-5 in Provo. After opening the season with a 24-13 win over Georgia Tech at Edwards Stadium, the Cougars dropped four straight home games, posting a 1-5 mark at LaVell Edwards Stadium. The 1-5 mark gave BYU its first home losing season in 32 years.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

The Cougar defense finished the season ranked 14th nationally and eighth nationally in pass defense. BYU's defense ranked second in the MWC and tied for 44th nationally with 14 interceptions. Aaron Francisco led the Cougars in interceptions with three. Nine Cougars had at least one interception. Against UNLV, Francisco grabbed his first interception of the year to seal the Cougars' victory in overtime. The following week Francisco intercepted Bronco quarterback Ryan Dinwiddie—the first interception Dinwiddie had thrown in 173 attempts and only his second of the season. Against Utah, Francisco intercepted Alex Smith (only his second during the season). The BYU defense scored only one touchdown last season. Interestingly, that touchdown came against San Diego State, marking the third straight game at Qualcomm Stadium the Cougars have scored a defensive touchdown ('99, Hans Olson; '01, Isaac Kelley; '03, Colby Bockwoldt.). The BYU defense prevented its opponents from gaining its season average in ten of eleven games. Following is a game-by-game look at the BYU defensive totals on the season:

The Cougars opened the season with a 24-13 win over ACC foe Georgia Tech on national television thanks to a strong performance by sophomore quarterback Matt Berry. Berry had three touchdown passes, including two to freshman tight end Daniel Coats, and completed 31 of 46 passes.

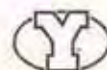

BYU VS. GEORGIA TECH GAME RECAP

Matt Berry threw for 276 yards and three touchdowns to help the Cougars earn a victory in the opening game of the season. BYU fell behind early after the Yellow Jackets connected on a 26-yard field goal in the first quarter. BYU answered quickly, scoring on a 38-yard pass from Berry to Daniel Coats. Coats finished the game with six receptions for 93 yards and two touchdowns. Following the first Coats touchdown, Georgia Tech scored 10 unanswered points to take a 13-10 lead into halftime.

The Cougars opened the second half with an 80-yard touchdown drive to take the lead for good on a 15-yard pass from Berry to Coats as BYU's defense would hold the Yellow Jackets scoreless in the second half. The Cougars added another touchdown pass from Berry to Toby Christensen and a Matt Payne field goal to account for the final score.

The Cougars gave the eventual national champions a real scare on national television. BYU, who led in almost every statistical category, dominated the second and third quarters. Freshman tight end Daniel Coats had a big game (8 receptions for 118 yards and this 14-yard touchdown).

BYU VS. USC GAME RECAP

Despite falling behind by 21 points in the first quarter, BYU pulled to within three points before the Trojans pulled away in the final minutes of the game. USC got on the board first after a BYU turnover gave them the ball on the Cougar 21-yard line, scoring on a one-yard pass from Matt Leinart to Mike Williams. The Trojans next two scores came within seconds of each other on a 43-yard pass to Keary Colbert and a 16-yard interception return.

But the Cougars scored the game's next 18 points, pulling to within three. The Cougars first score came on a safety by K.C. Bills in the second quarter, and Matt Payne added a 53-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The Cougars opened the second half with an 80-yard scoring drive capped off by a 14-yard touchdown strike from Matt Berry to Daniel Coats. Payne added two more field goals, including a 52-yarder to finish the Cougar scoring before USC added two late touchdowns.

Reynaldo Brathwaite's 89-yard run was the difference in a defensive battle with the Lobos. Although the Cougars came away from Albuquerque victorious, they lost starting quarterback Matt Berry with a broken finger.

BYU VS. NEW MEXICO GAME RECAP

BYU sprinted out to a 10-point lead in the first half and held on for a close 10-7 victory over the Lobos. Matt Payne started the scoring for BYU, connecting on a 20-yard field goal to cap a drive that included an 89-yard run by Reynaldo Brathwaite.

Matt Berry hit Philip Niu for a 29-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter despite breaking a bone in his throwing hand earlier in the game. The Lobos' DonTrell Moore scored on a three-yard run to pull New Mexico within three points, but the Cougars would seal the victory after converting a third down on a 26-yard half back pass from Brathwaite to Toby Christensen late in the game.

Linebacker Colby Bockwoldt, who had a team-high 11 tackles, sacks Stanford quarterback Trent Edwards. BYU's stifling defense held Stanford to just 200 total yards, but it wasn't quite enough as the Cougars' come-from-behind hopes fell short at the nine-yard line.

BYU VS. STANFORD GAME RECAP

Despite leading for most of the game and holding the Cardinal to just 200 total yards, BYU fell to Stanford 18-14. BYU had an opportunity to take the lead late in the game, driving to Stanford's nine-yard line before true freshman quarterback John Beck was sacked twice, forcing the Cougars to turn the ball over on downs with 23 seconds left in the game.

BYU scored the game's first points on a 27-yard pass from Beck to Toby Christensen. The Cardinal answered BYU's score with a four-yard run by Kenneth Tolon, but the Cougars blocked the extra-point attempt to cling onto a one-point lead. Stanford took the lead on a 38-yard field goal. BYU would regain the lead on a double pass with Lance Pendleton, in at wide receiver, hitting Daniel Coats for a 31-yard touchdown. The Cardinal took the lead for good with just under four minutes remaining on a 14-yard run by Stanford quarterback Trent Edwards.

Freshman tight end Phil Niu took a John Beck strike for a 25-yard touchdown. Niu's touchdown tied the game with three minutes to play in the third quarter. BYU had a chance to tie the game again late in the fourth quarter, but a Marcus Whalen fumble deep in Air Force territory eliminated BYU's comeback hopes.

BYU VS. AIR FORCE GAME RECAP

BYU lost its second straight game at home, losing a defensive battle against Air Force 24-10. The Cougars' defense had another great game, holding the Falcons' potent triple option to nearly 150 yards below its season average. BYU was driving to tie the game at 17 late in the fourth quarter, but a Marcus Whalen fumble derailed the Cougar comeback bid. Air Force added a touchdown as time expired to extend its lead to 14.

The game went back and forth as BYU opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 35-yard field goal by Matt Payne. Air Force scored 10 unanswered points to take a 10-3 lead in the third quarter. BYU knotted the game at ten, following a 25-yard pass from John Beck to Phillip Niu. But the Falcons would score the game's final 14 points to earn the win.

BYU's offense exploded behind the arm of John Beck and the quick wheels of Reynaldo Brathwaite. Beck's three touchdowns (two passing, one rushing) and Brathwaite's 144-yards rushing led to a season-high 44 points and 416 yards total offense.

BYU VS. SAN DIEGO STATE GAME RECAP

After three low-scoring defensive battles, the Cougars offense exploded for 44 points and 416 yards in a 44-36 victory over San Diego State, ending a two-game losing skid. BYU's offense accumulated only 34 points in its previous three games. When the game started, it didn't look like things were going to go the Cougars way. After a 49-yard kickoff return gave the Cougars excellent field position, quarterback John Beck fumbled the ball on BYU's second play from scrimmage. Brook Miller picked up the fumble and scampered 44-yards to score the game's first touchdown less than one minute into the game. BYU scored its first touchdown on a 4-yard run by Beck. The touchdown was the Cougars' first rushing touchdown in 30 quarters. After a 70-yard pass from Adam Hall to Jeff Webb put the Aztecs up 14-7, BYU exploded for 24 points in the second quarter to take a 31-24 lead into halftime. Fahu Tahi scored the Cougars first touchdown of the second half on an eight-yard pass from Beck, and Matt Payne kicked a 47-yard field goal to put the Cougars up 41-24. But the Aztecs roared back, scoring 14 straight points to cut the Cougar lead to five points before Matt Payne added an 18-yard field goal to ice the game.

Colorado State earned its first victory in Provo since 1994 as the Rams rolled over the Cougars on a Thursday night ESPN telecast. Turnovers plagued the Cougars' efforts as BYU gave away two fumbles and two interceptions.

BYU VS. COLORADO STATE GAME RECAP

Colorado State scored the game's first 14 points and didn't look back, defeating BYU 58-13. The loss was the Cougars' worst since a 48-0 drubbing by Wyoming in 1950 and the most points BYU had ever given up at home. Bradlee Van Pelt finished the game with 192 yards passing and three scores. At one point in the game, Van Pelt was 3 for 3 for 122 yards and two scores.

The Cougars scored all of their points in the first half on two Matt Payne field goals and a nine-yard pass from John Beck to Justin Jory. The loss was BYU's third in a row at home.

Led by Wyoming native Brady Poppinga (above), BYU's defense held Wyoming to just 225 yards total offense and zero points in the second half. BYU was driving for the winning score in the final minute, but a Matt Berry pass was tipped and eventually intercepted by the Cowboys inside their own 30-yard line to end the game.

BYU VS. WYOMING GAME RECAP

Wyoming jumped out to a 13-point lead in the first half and held off a late comeback attempt by the Cougars, eeking out a 13-10 victory over BYU. Trailing 13-0 at the beginning of the second half, the Cougars finally got on the board after a 30-yard field goal by Matt Payne. BYU pulled to within three points in the after Fahu Tahf scored on a two-yard run.

With just under two minutes to play, the Cougars forced Wyoming to punt the ball, taking over on their own 10-yardline. The Cougars drove down to the Cowboy 30-yardline after Matt Berry completed passes to Toby Christensen, Philip Niu and Jason Kukahiko, before BYU's comeback bid was stopped short after a pass was tipped and intercepted. This was Matt Berry's first game back after sitting out four games with a broken finger.

Senior receiver Toby Christensen scores on a nine-yard Matt Berry pass to give the Cougars a 27-20 overtime victory in Las Vegas. Christensen had a season-high 10 receptions for 81 yards and two touchdowns.

BYU VS. UNLV GAME RECAP

BYU scored a touchdown on its first possession in overtime and the defense intercepted a fourth-down, desperation pass by UNLV to earn a much-needed 27-20 victory over the Rebels. The Cougars' score in overtime came on a nine-yard pass from Matt Berry to Toby Christensen. Berry finished the game 31-of-44 for 274 yards and two touchdowns. He also scored on a quarterback keeper with 29 seconds left in regulation to tie the game at 20.

UNLV jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the first quarter, benefiting from three Cougar turnovers on consecutive possessions, resulting in 10 Rebel points. BYU countered with 13 straight points of its own to tie the game. UNLV took the lead on a 22-yard pass from Kurt Nantkes to Earvin Johnson with just under five minutes remaining in the game, before Berry knotted the score in the final minute to send it to overtime.

On a snowy, freezing night, Taului Vakapuna was the lone bright spot in a sluggish Cougar performance at Edwards Stadium. The freshman running back had 87-yards rushing and the Cougars' lone touchdown in the third quarter. The loss gave BYU its first home losing record in 32 years.

BYU VS. BOISE STATE GAME RECAP

Boise State jumped out to a 14-point lead in the first quarter and didn't look back, defeating the Cougars 50-12—BYU's fourth loss in a row at home. The Broncos got on the board first after blocking a Matt Payne punt and recovering the ball in the end zone. Boise State's defense also forced the Cougars into four interceptions.

BYU scored two safeties in the game. The Cougars' lone touchdown came on a one-yard run by Taului Vakapuna, followed by a two-point conversion by Toby Christensen. Despite the lopsided score, the Cougar defense held the potent Bronco offense 136 yards below their per game average.

BYU led early, but four Cougar turnovers helped Notre Dame's ball control offense wear down BYU's aggressive defense. Justin Carlson-Maddox and Daniel Marquardt (above) combine for a sack on the Irish's Brady Quinn.

BYU VS. NOTRE DAME GAME RECAP

Notre Dame running back Julius Jones ran for 161 yards on 25 carries to lead the Irish to a 33-14 victory over BYU. Notre Dame scored first on a 27-yard field goal by D.J. Fitzpatrick. BYU answered when Reynaldo Brathwaite scored on an 18 yard run to give the Cougars a 7-3 lead.

Notre Dame scored the game's next 23 points to take a 26-7 lead before Matt Berry scored the Cougars final touchdown on a one-yard run. The Irish added one more touchdown to account for the final score.

In the blowing snow of Edwards Stadium, BYU's NCAA-record 361-game scoreless streak came to an end against bitter rival Utah. The Cougars' near-shutout effort was negated by BYU's offensive effort, which was without top rusher Reynaldo Brathwaite and without top passers John Beck and Matt Berry.

BYU VS. UTAH GAME RECAP

Utah kicker Nate Borreson's 41-yard field goal with 4:13 left in the first half was all the Utes needed as Utah claimed its first outright league championship since 1957 with a 3-0 victory over BYU. The game also marked the first time BYU had been shut out since Arizona State blanked the Cougars back in 1975.

BYU had a chance to tie the score late in the first half. The Cougars had driven to the Utah 33-yard line, but Matt Payne missed the 51-yard attempt with 37 seconds remaining in the half. Utah only allowed BYU to cross the 50-yard line one other time during the game, holding the Cougars to just 41 yards passing and 156 total yards.

BYU'S WINNING TRADITION

BYU'S STORIED HISTORY OF GREAT PLAYERS & GREAT WINS

In the early 1990s, Derwin Gray was a member of four WAC championship teams.

Football was introduced at BYU in 1896, but was discontinued after three seasons because of the administration's concern over the violent nature of the sport. The sport finally became an official collegiate sport in 1922 and has since grown to become one of the premier football programs in the nation.

BYU's rise to the top had a slow start, however, as the Cougars only managed 173 victories and 16 winning seasons in the first 47 years of football at the University. The Cougars didn't even claim their first Western Athletic Conference football title until 1965.

* Pacific Division WAC Champions

But in 1972 BYU's football program shifted gears. LaVell Edwards was named head coach that year, and things have not been the same since. Now more than 80 years since 1922, BYU football is as strong as ever.

In the past 30 years, the Cougars have won 260 games and been to 23 bowl games (including 17 in a row at one point). BYU won the WAC title 20 times under Edwards' direction, including 10 in a row from 1976-1985. Since the creation of the Mountain West Conference in 1999, BYU has won the conference championship two out of last five years. In 2001 under Edwards' successor, Gary Crowton, BYU became the first team in Mountain West Conference history to go undefeated in league play.

Coach Edwards led his team to a national championship (1984), was National Coach of the Year two times (1979, 1984), served as president of the Coaches Association, had a Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy winners, four Davey O'Brien Award winners and seven Sammy Baugh Trophy winners. In 2001 BYU added another honor to its trophy case when Luke Staley won the Doak Walker Award, given to the nation's top running back.

Things were not always so rosy, however. Football had its beginning at BYU in 1922. That first season, BYU won only one game and scored a total of 10 points during the season. Now, BYU consistently finds itself among the national leaders in scoring and total offense. The last time was in 2001 when BYU led the nation in scoring and total offense.

Some of the more noted athletes who have propelled BYU into the national spotlight have been quarterbacks. The list reads like a who's who of college football signal callers: Virgil Carter (1964-66), Gary Sheide (1973-74), Gifford Nielsen (1975-77), Marc Wilson (1977, 1979-80), Jim McMahon (1978, 1980-81), Steve Young (1982-83), Robbie Bosco (1984-85), Ty Detmer (1988-91), Steve Sarkisian (1995-96) and Brandon Doman (1998-2001) have all left their mark on BYU's record books. Detmer finished his incredible career by throwing for 15,031 yards—the first player ever to go over 12,000 yards passing.

Nielsen, Wilson, McMahon, Young, Bosco, Detmer and Sarkisian were All-American quarterbacks, and each erased marks set by his predecessor. McMahon, Wilson and Bosco were third-place finishers in the Heisman Trophy balloting, while Steve Young finished second. Detmer won the school's first Heisman Trophy in 1990 and was third in the voting in 1991. Both McMahon and Young were recipients of the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the outstanding collegiate quarterback, and Detmer won it twice.

"No university was more synonymous with prolific passing attacks in the 1970s and 1980s than BYU. Under the innovative eyes of LaVell Edwards and Norm Chow, the Cougars rose to national prominence and cranked out All-American quarterbacks like a Pez dispenser. Nielsen, Wilson, Young, McMahon, Bosco and Detmer all ascended to the height of the sport, bagging a heap of records along the way. Cougar quarterbacks finished in the top 10 of the Heisman vote an unthinkable 11 times between 1974 and 1991."

— RICHARD CIRMINIELLO, COLLEGEFOOTBALLNEWS.COM

While passing has been the name of the game at BYU since Edwards took over, some impressive running backs have also hit the field for the Cougars. Luke Staley earned consensus All-American honors in 2001 and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back after leading the NCAA in scoring and averaging a whopping 8.1 yards per carry. BYU's rushing tradition began when Eldon "The Phantom" Fortle (1961-62) won All-American honors in 1962. "Fleet Pete" Van Valkenburg (1970-71) led the nation in rushing and was a second-team All-American. Fullback John Ogden (1964-66) was the leading rusher in the WAC three consecutive years. And fullback Todd Christensen (1975-77) did such a good job catching the football, that he later became an all-pro tight end. He was the leading receiver on BYU's team for three years. Jamal

Brian McDonald was one of a long line of talented BYU running backs in the last two decades of Cougar football.

Willis (1991-94) became the school's leading career rusher in 1994 and Brian McKenzie moved into the No. 6 spot all-time in just two seasons (1995-97) at BYU. In two seasons at BYU the talented speedster, Ronney Jenkins, set many rushing and scoring records in 1996 and 1998. Other great running backs at BYU include Jeff Blanc (1973-76), Eric Lane (1979-80), Casey Tiumalu (1982-83), Lakei Heimuli (1983-86), Fred Whittingham (1986-89), Peter Tulpulolu (1987, 1989-91), Kalin Hall (1992-93), Brian McDonald (2000-01) and Rey Brathwaite (2003).

Eric Drage (1990-93) became the receiving leader, breaking yardage and touchdown receiving records set by Phil Odle (1965-67). Other outstanding receivers that have brought honor to the Cougar blue on the playing field include Jay Miller (1972-74, 76), Todd Christensen (1974-77), Danny Plater (1978-81), Glen Kozlowski (1981, 83-85), Mark Bellini (1982, 83-84), Matt Bellini (1987-90), Andy Boyce (1988-90), K.O. Keataluhi (1995-96), Kaipio McGuire (1993-96), Ben Cahoon (1996-97), Margin Hooks (1997-2000) and Jonathan Pittman (1999-2000).

A good passing team must have good personnel on the offensive line, and BYU has had its share of honors recipients in that area. Mohammed Elewombi won the Outland Trophy in 1989, BYU's second such honor in four years. Other line standouts include Gordon Gravelle (1970), Paul Howard (1972), Brad Oates (1973-75), Orrin Olsen (1972-75), Tom Bell (1974-79), Nick Eyre (1977-80), Bart Oates (1977-82), Trevor Matich (1979-84), Scott Brumfield (1991-92), Evan Pilgrim (1992-94), Larry Moore (1995-96), John Tait (1996-98), Joe Wong (1997-98), Ben Archibald (2000-02) and Dustin Rykert (1999-2002).

BYU's 1994 victory at Notre Dame.

BYU has also had a bevy of talent at tight end through the years, including Brian Billick (1974-76), Clay Brown (1978-80), Gordon Hudson (1979-83), David Mills (1980-84), Chris Smith (1987-90), Chad Lewis (1993-96), Itula Mill (1991, 1994-96), Tevita Ofahengau (1998-2000), 2002 NFL second-round draft choice Doug Jolley, Spencer Nead (2001-02) and Gabe Reid (1999-02).

BYU has always had outstanding defenses to complement its high-powered offenses through the years. Top Defensive players include Wayne Baker (1972-74), Paul Linford (1972-74), Mekell Jeremiah (1975-77), Glen Titerisor (1978-80), Glen Redd (1976-80), Tom Holmoe (1979-82), Todd Shell (1980-83), Kyle Morrell (1980-84), Leon White (1982-85), Kurt Gouveia (1983-85), Jason Buck (1985-86), the recipient of the 1986 Outland Trophy, Travis Hall (1991-94), Byron Frisch (1996-99), Derwin Gray (1989-92), Shay Muirbrook (1993-96), Spencer Reid (1994-97), Rob Morris (1993, 1997-99), Setema Gali (1997-00), Justin Ena (1997-2001), Ryan Denney (1998-2001), Brett Keisel (1998-2001) and Colby Bockwoldt (2000-2003).

In recent history BYU has also had a number of talented defensive backs including Rodney Rice (1987-88), Brian Mitchell (1987-90), Derwin Gray (1989-92), Patrick Mitchell (1991-94), Tim McTyer (1995-96), Omar Morgan (1996-97), Brian Gray (1998-99), Jared Lee (1999-00) and Jemaro Gilford (1999-2003).

The Cougars have also had some great return specialists in recent history. Chris Panagopoulos (1968-70), "The Galloping Greek," led the nation in punt returns and set two NCAA records. Golden Richards (1970-71) is still listed as a holder of several NCAA records. Stacey Corley holds the NCAA record for two touchdown returns in one game (99 & 85 yards in 1989). Val Sikahema (1980-85) set an NCAA record for most punt returns, and James Dye (1995-96) led the nation in punt returns with a 21.9 average in 1995.

Jim McMahon was named the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year, with Marcus Allen, after an amazing 1981 season. McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a consensus All-American and was named in the Heisman balloting.

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17 in 1983. Led by Steve Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Eddie Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell, allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left in the game.

BYU 24, ARIZONA STATE 6 SEPT. 18, 1965

Tommy Hudspeth's Cougars defeated Frank Kush's Sun Devils, 24-6, on the way to winning BYU's first conference championship in the school's 41 years of football mediocrity. The Cougars were led by quarterback Virgil Carter and receiver Phil Odle, as they connected five times on the evening for 92 yards and a touchdown. Carter also had 83 yards on the ground. Cougar running back Jonathan Ogden added 75 yards rushing on 14 carries. BYU started the game by scoring on the first drive and the Cougars never let up, going up 24-0 before Arizona State added a fourth quarter touchdown.

BYU 21, ARIZONA STATE 18 NOV. 9, 1974

In only his third year, a young LaVell Edwards led the Cougars past Arizona State in what may have been a turning point in BYU football. "I'd have to say this is the biggest win I've had at BYU," said Edwards on defeating the longtime conference power in a pivotal game that would eventually put BYU in its first bowl game, the Fiesta Bowl. After a 55-yard interception for a touchdown that put ASU up 18-14 late in the third quarter, Gary Sheide directed a nine-play, 80-yard drive, including a fourth down run by Jeff Blanc bouncing off defenders and fighting for yardage. The drive was capped by a nine-yard TD pass to Tim Mahoney to give the Cougars the 21-18 lead and eventually the win. The Cougar defense held ASU to 76 yards rushing and 108 yards passing, while Sheide racked up 223 yards of passing and two touchdowns.

Gary Sheide directed a nine-play 80-yard second-half drive that propelled BYU to a 21-18 victory over Arizona State in 1974 giving the Cougars their first WAC Championship in the LaVell Edwards era.

BYU 23, ARIZONA 16 SEPT. 25, 1976

A pivotal game for both teams, the Cougars' offense was slowed by a torrential rainstorm in Tucson. With neither team able to move the ball as expected, the game appeared headed for a 16-16 tie with 14 seconds left on the clock. Electing to go with one last desperation pass, quarterback Gifford Nielsen dropped back, sprung free from the grasp of two tackles and, just before he was forced out of bounds, threw the ball in the direction of George Harris, who caught the ball over the extended arms of two Arizona defenders for the winning touchdown. Despite both offenses being slowed by the rain, Nielsen hit on 18 of 28 passes for 200 yards and two touchdowns.

BYU 18, TEXAS A&M 17 SEPT. 8, 1979

In the first game of the 1979 season, BYU's high-powered offense met Texas A&M, complete with a Heisman Trophy candidate, a record-setting quarterback and an Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award candidate. Down 7-3 going into the second half, both teams scored third quarter touchdowns, making it 14-10, Texas A&M. In the fourth quarter, A&M scored a field goal with 6:53 remaining to go up by seven. On the first play of the next drive, Wilson threw his third interception of the game, giving A&M the ball near midfield. But on the next series, BYU's Pulusila Filaga recovered an Aggie fumble, giving BYU new hope. After the Aggies forced BYU to punt in three plays, the Cougars then forced the Aggies to punt after three plays, setting up the dramatic finish. On the ensuing punt, BYU's Tim Halverson blocked A&M's kick to give BYU the ball at the Texas A&M 19-yard line. Two A&M penalties and a completed pass put the Cougars on the three-yard line. With 53 seconds left, Wilson hit Clay Brown in the end zone to pull the Cougars within one. Then, wanting to leave Texas with a win, LaVell Edwards chose to go for the two-point conversion. It paid off with Wilson hitting Mike Lacey for a diving catch to put BYU up by one. A final 51-yard field goal attempt by Texas A&M sailed wide left to give the Cougars the win, setting the stage to an 11-0 regular season finish and No. 9 national ranking.

AIR FORCE 39, BYU 38 SEPT. 25, 1982

After a last-minute loss to Heisman-winner Herschel Walker and the 4th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs, the Cougars returned home — to the newly expanded Cougar Stadium and 65,000 fans. League-leading Air Force would be the first opponent the Cougars would face in the new stadium. BYU, with Steve Young at the helm, passed for 215 yards and ran for 244, but the Air Force offense was just as potent with 489 yards of total offense. After the two teams battled to a 17-17 halftime tie, the Cougars BYU opened its new 65,000-seat stadium with a thriller against Air Force. Steve Young led the way for BYU with 244 yards rushing and 215 yards passing.

MOST MEMORABLE GAMES

came out in the third quarter and scored 14 third-quarter points to go up 31-24. In the fourth quarter, the two teams traded touchdowns, and the Cougars held on to a seven-point lead. After a BYU punt put Air Force on its own one-yard line with 1:30 left in the game, the Air Force offense put together its most important drive of the game. Then, at the BYU 37, AFA's quarterback Marty Louthan threw an interception to BYU's Marv Allen, seemingly sealing the victory. But, the Cougars were penalized for roughing the passer, giving Air Force the ball at BYU's 23 yard-line. On the next play, Air Force scored a touchdown to come within one point of the Cougars. With six seconds left in the game, a Louthan to Mike Brown two-point conversion gave the Falcons the win.

Steve Young and the Cougar defense stopped PAC-10 powerhouse UCLA in 1983 at Pasadena's Rose Bowl.

BYU 37, UCLA 35 OCT. 1, 1983

At the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Steve Young and the high-powered BYU offense took on UCLA, led by Steve Bono and Rick Neuheisel. BYU went up 14-0 in the first quarter before UCLA retaliated with 14 second-quarter points of its own, making it a 24-14 BYU halftime lead. UCLA came within three points after a third quarter touchdown, but the Cougars scored 13 fourth quarter points to go up 37-28. The Bruins scored a touchdown with 25 seconds left, but the Bruin on-side kick was recovered by Kurt Gouveia to seal the win.

BYU 55, UTAH 7 NOV. 19, 1983

In the final game of the regular season, the Cougars welcomed Utah to the new Cougar Stadium with an impressive offensive show. Steve Young led BYU to a 35-7 halftime lead with four touchdown passes and one rushing TD by Eddie Stinnett. The Cougar defense allowed only one touchdown all day—a six-yard pass early in the second quarter. The second half was much the same, as Young threw for two more touchdowns and Stinnett rushed for one more, bringing the score to the final of 55-7 with almost four minutes remaining in the third quarter.

BYU 20, PITT 14 SEPT. 1, 1984

The perfect season began when BYU traveled to Pittsburgh to take on 3rd-ranked Pitt and the longest winning streak in the country. The Cougars, led by Robbio Bosco, had an 11 game winning streak themselves and were up to the challenge. BYU started out slow on offense, scoring only three first half points. But the BYU defense recorded a first-half shutout against a Pitt offense that featured freshman phenom Craig Heyward and All-American tackle Bill Fralic. The Cougars forced three punts, one interception and had two fourth-down stops on the Panthers in the first two quarters. In the second half, Pitt showed they were worthy of their pre-season ranking, scoring 14 quick points off Cougar turnovers. The first came on a 78-yard interception return by Bill Callahan and the second was a one-yard run after a tipped Bosco pass was intercepted on BYU's own 20 yard-line. The Cougar offense made up for the miscues by capitalizing on a Pitt interception, scoring a 12-yard TD run by Lakei Heimuli to bring the score to 14-9. A Lee Johnson field goal with 9:15 left in the game brought BYU within two points, while the Cougar defense continued to stifle the Pitt offense. Then, after both teams traded punts, BYU started its final drive on its own 26 yard line with 3:05 on the clock. After moving the ball to midfield, Bosco hit Adam Haysbert on a 50-yard bomb to go ahead for good. A two-point conversion put BYU up 20-14. The Pitt offense threatened, moving to BYU's 35 yard-line before the defense stiffened and stopped a fourth-and-four to end the game and give the Cougars the win.

Adam Haysbert's 50-yard touchdown reception gave BYU a come-from-behind victory over No. 3 Pittsburgh to open the Cougar's 1984 National Championship season.

Steve Young led BYU to a 55-7 victory over rival Utah in 1983 in Provo (left).

BYU 18, HAWAII 13 SEPTEMBER 22, 1984

In one of the biggest defensive stands in Cougar football history, BYU kept Hawaii out of the end zone after a first-and-goal from the two-yard-line. The defensive stand was highlighted by linebacker Kyle Morrell's leaping tackle, grabbing Hawaii running back Raphael Cherry by the back of his neckpad and pulling him down with one arm to keep Hawaii from taking a 20-12 lead. On the very next drive, the Cougars covered 80 yards on six plays, capped by a 25-yard pass from Bosco to Glen Kozlowski for the go-ahead touchdown. The BYU defense held the Rainbow Warriors on their next two possessions to secure the win.

BYU 41, WYOMING 38 OCTOBER 13, 1984

In a tough conference match-up, Wyoming came to Provo trying to stop the Cougars from getting their 17th straight victory. BYU got off to a quick start with two first-quarter touchdowns to go up 14-0. Wyoming came back by scoring on a 64-yard halfback pass for a touchdown. After BYU scored again to make it 21-7, the Cowboys scored two unanswered TDs to go in at the half trailing 21-20. Wyoming continued to move the ball in the third quarter against the tough Cougar defense, scoring 18 points on three TDs and three missed two-point conversions in the quarter. But BYU traded scores with the Cowboys, scoring 12 points on two TDs and two missed two-point conversions, putting Wyoming up 38-33 going into the final quarter. With 8:43 left in the game, Bosco and the Cougars put together an 11-play 80-yard drive, completing his fifth TD pass of the game to David Mills from 14 yards out. This time, after five consecutive missed conversions by both teams, Bosco hit Kelly Smith to put BYU up for good at 41-38 and give BYU the slim victory.

UCLA 27, BYU 24 SEPTEMBER 7, 1985

After silencing some critics by disposing of Boston College in the Kickoff Classic, the defending national champion Cougars would face another test, the UCLA Bruins, ranked No. 2 in some preseason polls. The Bruins, led by sophomore running back Gaston Green, got on the scoreboard first with a field goal from All-American Jon Lee. The Cougars came back to tie it up with a field goal of their own. The Bruins scored again just two minutes later, this time on a 65-yard interception return by Craig Rutledge. Then the Cougars scored twice in the second quarter to go up 17-13 at the half. UCLA added two more field goals to take the lead at 19-17 with 9:01 left in the game. It would seem as if Bosco and the Cougars were going to pull off another exciting win when the offense engineered a 14-play, 80-yard drive to go ahead 24-19 with less than three minutes remaining. But the UCLA offense was too much as it opened up the next drive with a 62-yard pass from Matt Stevens to Mike Sherrard. Five plays later the Bruins found the end zone and came away with the big win.

BYU 31, WASHINGTON 3 SEPT. 14, 1985

Washington, the 1984 runner-up in the national championship race, came to town with fans expecting another showdown like the previous week against UCLA. But the Cougars bounced back from their first loss in 26 games to pummel the Huskies, 31-3. In a less-than-typical outing for the Cougars, BYU scored four rushing TDs, two each by Vai Sikahema and Lakel Heimuli. Meanwhile the BYU defense held Washington to a single field goal. The Cougar offense racked up 460 yards, passing for 292 and rushing for 187. The defense held Washington to 205 yards through the air and 177 yards rushing, holding their top rusher to just 38 yards on 14 carries.

Shawn Knight and BYU's stingy defense held 1984 runner-up Washington to just three points as BYU cruised to a 31-3 victory over the Huskies in Provo.

BYU 45, OREGON 41 NOV. 4, 1989

In a game that produced more yards of offense than any other game in history up to that point, the Cougars came from behind to beat the Ducks, 45-41 in a game that produced 1,276 yards of offense between the two teams. Led by sophomore Ty Detmer, BYU got down early when Oregon scored on a Dorek Loville run. BYU came back with a Fred Whittingham 19-yard TD run. With a 19-14 halftime lead, Oregon came out firing in the third quarter, scoring two touchdowns in the first five minutes to go up 33-14. But on the next kickoff, Tony Crutchfield returned the kick 60 yards to the Oregon 34 yard-line and ignited the crowd and the team. BYU scored 24 consecutive points to go ahead, 38-33. Oregon responded with an 80-yard drive, capped by a 15-yard Bill Musgrave TD pass to Terry Obee, taking back the lead, 41-38. Then, with less than three minutes left in the game and the Cougars on their own five-yard-line, BYU put together a drive that ended with a 15-yard TD pass to Jeff Frandsen, putting BYU up for good 45-41 sealing the victory.

MOST MEMORABLE GAMES

Ty Detmer was simply unstoppable in BYU's stunning 28-21 victory over No. 1 Miami in 1990. The win on national television helped propel Detmer's Heisman Trophy run.

BYU 28, (NO. 1) MIAMI 21 SEPT. 8, 1990

With the No. 1 team coming to town, Provo was buzzing with excitement. Cougar fans were excited because they had a Heisman candidate and a national ranking of their own (14th). The game would live up to all of the hype. Before a record crowd of 66,235 fans, Miami scored first on a seven-yard run by Stephen McGuire. BYU tied the score in the second quarter with a 14-yard TD pass from Ty Detmer to Matt Bellini. Then took the lead with a 32-yard Earl Kaufmann field goal. Both teams scored again before the half and, despite four first-half turnovers, the Cougars were up 17-14. The second half started the same way the first half did — a Miami score. This time it was a five-yard Leonard Conley run to put the Hurricanes back on top 21-17. But that was the last scoring the 'Canes would do. The Cougar defense held Miami scoreless in the final 26:48 of play. Meanwhile, Ty Detmer gave a Heisman-like effort that saw BYU score two more times. First, a 63-yard drive ended with a 29-yard Kaufmann field goal to bring BYU within one point of the Hurricanes. After the defense held Miami to no gain twice after a third-and-one, the Cougars got the ball back on Miami's 43-yard line. Nine plays later, with Detmer scrambling between two Hurricane defenders, Mike Salido broke free in the end zone where Detmer hit him for the go-ahead touchdown. A two-point conversion pass from Detmer to Andy Boyce gave the Cougars a 28-21 lead with three minutes left in the third quarter. In the final quarter, the BYU defense bent but did not break. After Miami drove 62 yards to the BYU 15, a Hurricane fumble was recovered by BYU's Alema Filsemanu to stop the drive. Then, when a BYU fumble was recovered on BYU's 37 yard-line, Miami was threatening to score after driving to the Cougar 13-yard line. But on third-and-ten, Ervin Lee intercepted Craig Erickson's pass to stop another Miami score. One last time, with Miami at the BYU 25 and less than two minutes remaining, an Erickson pass fell incomplete to give BYU the ball and the chance to run out the clock to secure the first Cougar win over a No. 1 ranked team.

BYU 52, SAN DIEGO ST. 52 NOV. 16, 1991

In the highest scoring tie ever played, Ty Detmer brought the Cougars back from a 45-17 deficit with five minutes left in the third quarter to tie the score at 52 with 30 seconds remaining. The Cougars started the scoring with a 31-yard pass from Detmer to Jamal Willis. But San Diego State went on to score 35 first-half points and 10 third-quarter points to take the 45-17 lead. The Cougars then scored touchdowns on five of their next six possessions. Detmer had 599 yards of passing, hitting 10 different receivers. Aztec David Lowery had 568 yards, while Marshall Faulk added 119 yards rushing and 116 receiving. Cougar freshman Jamal Willis added 163 yards receiving, 56 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

One of BYU's marquee victories came in 1990 when the Cougars opened the season by stunning top-ranked Miami in Provo. After the victory, fans stormed the field to celebrate another major victory for the BYU football program.

BYU 30, PENN STATE 17 OCT. 31, 1992

With national power Penn State coming to Provo, Kalin Hall gained 141 yards and one touchdown on the ground to lead the Cougars to their first victory over the Nittany Lions. Penn State scored first with a 39-yard field goal from V.J. Muscillo. The Cougars came back to score 30 unanswered points, including an 80-yard bomb from Hancock to Tyler Anderson, to take a 30-7 lead going into the fourth quarter. In the final quarter, Penn State scored on a one-yard run by Richie Anderson and a five-yard pass from Kerry Collins to O.J. McDuffie to bring the final score to 30-17.

In 1992 BYU avenged a 1989 Holiday Bowl loss to Penn State in Provo. Eric Drage (top) and the high powered Cougar offense rolled off 30 straight points while the Cougars shut down Penn State for 3 1/2 quarters.

BYU 21, NOTRE DAME 14 OCT. 15, 1994

Prepared to avenge a 1993 loss in Cougar Stadium, BYU headed to South Bend to take on Notre Dame, the 1993 runner-up for the national championship. A 41-yard run by Randy Kinder got the Irish on the scoreboard first just 2:45 into the ball game. BYU came back with 49 and a 48-yard David Lauder field goal to bring the score to 7-6. The scoring continued in the second quarter when John Walsh hit Jamal Willis on a 19-yard touchdown pass to put BYU up 13-7. But the Fighting Irish came back with a touchdown pass of their own – a 7-yarder from Ron Powilus to Derrick Mayes, putting Notre Dame back on top by one, 14-13 with 34 seconds left in the half. In the third quarter, after Notre Dame moved the ball to the BYU three yard-line, Powilus rolled left on a naked boot-leg, looking for the score. BYU's Jon Pollock wasn't fooled, sacking Powilus for a loss of 18 yards and forcing the Irish to attempt a field goal. But the attempt was blocked by sophomore tight end Chad Lewis, halting Notre Dame's attempt to score. The very next possession, BYU took the ball 77 yards on 13 plays, shaving over five minutes off the clock, before scoring the go-ahead touchdown on a one-yard Willis dive. A two-point conversion made the score 21-14. The rest of the final quarter saw both defenses tighten, forcing one punt, two fumbles, one missed field goal and one turnover on downs and leaving the final score 21-14, as the Cougars left with a rare win in South Bend and a 6-1 record.

BYU 41, TEXAS A&M 37 AUG. 24, 1996

To begin a season that would see the Cougars record more wins than any other school in history (14), Texas A&M would be coming to town to play in the annual Pigskin Classic. The game was indeed a classic as Steve Sarkisian threw for 536 yards and six touchdowns, leading BYU to the victory. The first TD pass was a five-yarder to Chad Lewis, made possible by a 48-yard pass play to BYU's other stand-out tight end, Itula Mili. A blocked PAT made it 6-0. The Aggies came back with a field goal and a touchdown to take a 10-6 lead after the first quarter. Another A&M field goal and touchdown made it 20-6 early in the second quarter. But the Cougars responded with a 10-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a nine-yard bootleg pass to Mili.

Edwards raises the 1996 Pigskin Classic Trophy

In 1994, BYU walked into South Bend and upset the 1993 runner-up for the national championship, Notre Dame. Thanks to the tough running of Jamal Willis and solid defense, the Cougars came away with a 21-14 victory. The victory at Notre Dame helped BYU to a No. 10 ranking at the end of the 1994 season.

MOST MEMORABLE GAMES

Kealahuli's winning catch against A&M.

Another drive, this time 74 yards and 10 plays, tied the score at 20 going into halftime. In the second half, both teams traded scores, but another missed PAT put the Cougars down 34-26 going into the final quarter. Early in the fourth, BYU drove 80 yards, scoring on a 12-yard pass to James Dye. A Sarkisian pass to Dustin Johnson on the two-point conversion tied the game at 34. Both defenses tightened and neither team scored until, with just 1:27 on the clock, Texas A&M kicked a 52-yard field goal to take the lead. BYU started its last drive with 1:23 but only needed 20 seconds to take the lead. An 11-yard pass, a 21-yard pass and a 46-yard touchdown pass to K.O. Kealahuli made it 41-37. With a minute left, the Cougar defense forced an A&M fumble to seal the game.

BYU 28, WYOMING 25 OT DEC. 7, 1996

With the WAC Championship on the line, BYU and Wyoming played one of the most exciting games in the history of WAC football. The Cougars came in ranked sixth in the nation while the Cowboys were ranked 20th, both teams losing only once on the year. After Chris Ellison intercepted a Josh Wallwork pass on Wyoming's 23 yard-line, the Cougars settled for a 30-yard field goal to go up 3-0. With each team missing a field goal, the score remained 3-0 going into the second quarter. An 11-yard touchdown run by Brian McKenzie early in the second quarter put BYU up 10-0 and Ethan Pochman added another field goal with 55 seconds left in the second quarter to make it 13-0 at halftime. Wyoming wasted no time getting on the scoreboard in the second half, scoring on a Jay Jenkins 25-yard fumble recovery. Wyoming scored the next 10 points to take the lead 17-13 early in the fourth quarter. Less than two minutes later, the Cougars struck again with a 13-yard TD pass from Steve Sarkisian to Chad Lewis, reclaiming the lead at 20-17. With an offense that had gained momentum, the Cowboys came right back on the next possession to go 80 yards in just four plays, scoring a 14-yard TD pass and converting the two-point attempt. Behind 25-20, the Cougars engineered a 13-play, 70-yard drive that took over six minutes, but saw BYU come up short, failing to convert a fourth-and-goal on the Wyoming two. The Cowboys now had the task of holding on to a five-point lead for the remaining 2:57, but were backed up to their own two-yard-line. BYU's defense took advantage, forcing the Cowboys to take a safety on fourth-and-seven. Down just three, the BYU offense started its final drive on its 40-yard line with just under two minutes remaining. Seven plays later, the Cougars were at the Wyoming three yard-line with third-and-one, but only one second remaining on the clock. Ethan Pochman came in and calmly nailed the 20-yard field goal to send the game into overtime. When BYU won the coin toss in overtime, it chose to defend, and defend is what it did, sacking Wyoming's Wallwork and forcing two incomplete passes before Cory Wedel missed a 47-yard field goal. With the ball on the 25 yard-line, McKenzie rushed three straight times to bring the Cougars to the 16 yard-line, where Pochman hit the biggest field goal of his career and gave BYU the 28-25 overtime win and the WAC Championship.

BYU 13, ARIZONA STATE 10 SEPT. 20, 1997

BYU upset 14th-ranked Arizona State, 13-10, for its first win at Tempe since 1965 and first victory since 1976 over ASU. It also marked the first time ASU had lost at home since 1995, ending a string of seven straight home victories. The victory also sapped a string of nine consecutive losses by BYU to Pac-10 teams. ASU, the defending PAC10 champion, was riding high after upsetting the Miami Hurricanes in Miami. Defensively, BYU denied ASU penetration into the redzone, although a Cougar special teams fumble of a punt return did put the Sun Devils there, which resulted in their only TD. The opening offensive play of the game was an omen for the Cougars as Kevin Feterik, in his first start at quarterback, connected with Ben Cahoon for a 37-yard bomb. Cahoon ended up with eight catches for 219 yards. Feterik went the distance, passing for 328 yards while completing 17 of 30 passes. Brian McKenzie rushed for 112 yards and had a six-yard TD on the ground as BYU took a 7-3 lead. Defensive end Byron Frisch led the charge, garnering two of BYU's five sacks. BYU moved up to 23rd in the Associated Press rankings and 24th in USA Today/CNN with the win.

BYU 26, UTAH 24 NOV. 21, 1998

BYU went into the fourth quarter with a 20-17 lead, then built upon that with two Owen Pochman field goals to make it a 26-17 Cougar lead with under three minutes left in the game. But on the ensuing kickoff, Utah's Daniel Jones returned the kick 95 yards for the touchdown to bring the Utes within two points. On the next possession, the Utah defense forced the Cougars to punt after three unsuccessful plays, giving the Utes a chance to win the game. On their first play, Jonathan Crosswhite hit Jones for a 43-yard gain to the BYU 24 yard-line, but a celebration penalty moved the Utes back to the BYU 39. With 51 seconds remaining, Crosswhite hit Donny Ute for 11 yards, then three plays later Crosswhite hit Jones again for a nine yard gain, putting Utah on the 17 yard-line and well within range of a winning field goal. After Mike Anderson ran to the center of the field for a two-yard gain, BYU called two timeouts to try and ice the Ute kicker, Ryan Kaneshiro. Apparently, the strategy worked as Kaneshiro's 32-yard attempt hit the upright and bounced back onto the field, giving BYU the two point victory and the WAC Mountain Division Championship.

BYU 35, WASHINGTON 28 SEPT. 9, 1999

In the season-opener, Washington jumped out to a 7-0 lead when a Husky punt hit Heshi Robertson on the BYU two yard-line and bounced into the end zone. BYU came back, scoring three straight touchdowns, but missing a PAT to take a 20-7 lead in the third quarter. Both teams exchanged scores, making it a 27-14 BYU lead with one quarter to play. The missed PAT would come back to haunt the Cougars, as Washington scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns on two Cougar turnovers to take a 28-27 lead with 5:00 remaining. The Huskies forced BYU to punt, giving the Huskies the ball on their own 34 yard-line with 4:06 left in the game and a one point lead. But three straight stops by the Cougars forced Washington to punt. With 2:35 remaining, BYU started at its own 11 yard-line. A quick pass from Kevin Feterik to Carlos Nuno gained 14 yards and another 17-yard completion to freshman Luke Staley, playing in his first collegiate game, put BYU on its 42 with first-and-ten. The next three Feterik passes went incomplete, putting BYU in a fourth-and-ten hole. Feterik threw a perfect pass between two defenders and into the hands of Ben Horton for a 12-yard gain and a first down with 1:34 on the clock. A pass interference call put BYU on the Washington 38 yard-line, where Feterik threw a TD bomb that was caught by another freshman, Chris Hale, in the corner of the end zone. A two-point conversion put the Cougars up by seven with 1:16 still remaining. That time was enough for the Huskies to drive to the BYU 11 yard-line, where Marques Tulasosopo's fourth-and-ten pass fell incomplete as time expired.

BYU 38, VIRGINIA 35 OT SEPT. 2, 2000

In the first half, Cougar fans watched Virginia rack up 21 points while shutting out BYU. In the second half, it seemed a different Cougar team was on the field, as quarterback Bret Engemann ended the game with 447 yards of passing, completing 34 of 41 attempts to lead the Cougars back from the 21 point deficit to a three-point overtime win. BYU started the second-half scoring on the very first possession when an 80-yard drive was capped by a six-yard Brian McDonald TD run. A Cavalier punt gave the Cougars the ball again, once again the Cougars drove 80 yards before McDonald scored his second touchdown of the game, this time from one yard out, making it 21-14. Virginia responded with a 28-yard touchdown pass of its own, going back up by 14. Going into the fourth quarter, a 70-yard pass from Engemann to Jonathan Pittman put BYU on the Virginia eight yard-line, where McDonald scored again on a six-yard run, and the Cougars were back within seven. BYU could not afford to exchange scores, but that is what it did, with the Cavaliers scoring in just four plays to make it 35-21. BYU scored another TD when Engemann hit tight end Doug Jolley for a six-yard TD. This time the defense stiffened, holding Virginia on a crucial fourth-and-one, giving BYU the ball at midfield and one last chance to pull even. Eight plays later, the Cougar offense scored its fifth touchdown in seven second-half possessions when Engemann hit Margin Hooks on a six-yard TD pass for the tying score with 50 seconds left. In overtime, Tyson Smith intercepted a Dan Ellis pass to stop Virginia's chance to score. Then, after driving from the 25 to the nine yard-line, Owen Pochman nailed a 26-yard field goal attempt to give the Cougars the dramatic win.

In LaVell Edwards' last game as the head coach of the Cougars, Utah got a quick 7-0 lead when Andre Dyson returned a Brandon Doman pass 24 yards for the touchdown. BYU came back, controlling the game going into the final quarter, leading 26-10. But a field goal and two TD passes gave Utah 17 unanswered points and the Utes a one-point lead with two minutes left in the game. With one last chance, Doman and the Cougar offense would try to engineer a game-winning drive. After an incomplete and a sack made it third-and-twenty, Doman completed a seven-yard pass to Luke Staley, making it fourth-and-13 with 1:04 on the clock. After a timeout, Doman took the snap, escaped one sack and, with a Ute defender chasing him towards the sideline, threw the ball downfield where Jonathan Pittman adjusted his route and made a leaping 34-yard catch at midfield. On the very next play, Doman hit Pittman again on a beautiful sideline catch for 36 yards, giving BYU the ball on the 13 yard-line. A nine-yard Staley rush set up a four-yard Doman quarterback run that gave the Cougars the come-from-behind win to finish Edwards' career. "It was a great ball game on both sides. It couldn't be a better way out," said Edwards.

BYU 70, TULANE 35 AUG. 25, 2001

Through 29 years, the stone-faced Lavelle Edwards led the BYU Cougars to 22 bowl appearances while enduring only one losing season. Having retired at the close of the 2000 season, Edwards turned over the reigns of the BYU program to Gary Crowton, leaving fans to speculate over the future of BYU football. Could

Edwards' legacy be matched? Facing the Green Wave of Tulane in the BCA Classic, Crowton began his own winning campaign. After Tulane's Mewelde Moore took the third play of the game for a 75-yard touchdown, BYU unveiled an offensive attack that left Tulane's defense gasping for breath and future opponents' defensive coordinators scrambling for a solution. Junior running back Luke Staley established himself as a key component of the Cougar offense and began an All-American campaign by scoring his first three touchdowns of the season in the first quarter on runs of 2, 29 and 65 yards. The BYU passing attack came into play four seconds into the second quarter as quarterback Brandon Doman hit tight end Spencer Nead for an eight-yard TD to break a 21-21 tie. The aerial onslaught continued as Doman connected for two more touchdowns with Gabriel Reid and again with Nead while Senior Brian McDonald found the end zone for the first time of the year. Having posted 49 first half points, BYU gave Tulane its only respite of the day as they left the field for halftime. The Cougars continued their dominating performance in the second half, pummeling Tulane's defense with three more touchdowns while allowing only one more score for the Green Wave offense. Both Staley and McDonald finished the day with 100+ yards and three touchdowns each. Dorman left at the end of the third quarter with 286 passing yards for three TD's while adding 115 yards and one more TD on the ground. The Cougars ended the day with 734 total yards, 43 yards short of the school record, and more points than they had scored in over a decade. BYU's resounding 70-35 victory over Tulane sparked a 12-game winning streak that saw the Cougars break into the top 10 in the nation. The Crowton era had begun.

Luke Staley took a Brandon Dorman pitch and ran down the sideline untouched for a 30-yard touchdown that put BYU up for good in the final minutes of a 24-21 MWC Championship victory over Utah in 2001.

With an undefeated season, a possible BCS bowl berth and its first outright Mountain West Conference Championship in the balance, BYU faced rival Utah for the first time in Coach Gary Crowton's tenure, pitting the nation's No. 1 offense against the sixteenth-ranked defense in the nation. Something had to give. For the first 56 minutes of the game, it looked as if it would be BYU. The Cougar offense struggled through the first half as quarterback Brandon Dorman went 10-24 with one interception and a fumble. The Utes seemed to have solved Luke Staley as well, holding him to a meager 28 yards through the first 30 minutes. Despite being labeled the chink in BYU's armor, the Cougar defense, highlighted by defensive end Ryan Denney's 10-tackle performance, kept the game close enough for BYU to have a chance at the end. Utah held a precarious 7-3 lead as the teams left the field at halftime. Utah added to its lead on a 15-yard run by Dameron Hunter with 2:21 left in the third quarter. BYU responded two minutes later with a score of its own. Reno Mahe, who five days earlier was hospitalized to have his appendix removed, hooked up with Dorman for a 23-yard TD reception in the corner of the end zone. Trailing 14-10 as the fourth quarter began, BYU needed something to happen, but the Utes were ready to put the Cougars away and scored again to take a 21-10 lead with just under 10 minutes remaining. BYU and Utah traded possessions over the next six minutes as each team looked for a spark. BYU began its march towards destiny with just over four minutes remaining. After driving the ball to the seven-yard line, Dorman dropped back to pass and found Staley open along the sideline for a TD. Trailing 21-16, Crowton set up a 2-point conversion and called upon Staley again: Running a sweep left, Staley followed Teag Whiting's steamroller block into the end zone to bring the Cougars within a field goal of tying. BYU's defense rose to the occasion by holding Utah to three-and-out on its next possession to give BYU a chance at the win. With just over a minute left in the game, Dorman ran an option right, drawing the defensive end and linebacker to himself. Dorman pitched out to Staley who flipped 30 yards down the sideline for the go-ahead score. Leading 24-21 after Matt Payne missed the extra point, it was up to BYU's defense to preserve the win. After using a trick play to convert on fourth-and-10, Utah found itself on the BYU 30-yard line. On the very next play, cornerback Jemaro Gifford broke in front of Utah receiver Cliff Russell to intercept a Lance Rice pass, returning it 50 yards to seal the victory. Cougar fans stormed the field, hoisting Dorman and Crowton onto their shoulders. In his first year at BYU, Crowton led the Cougars to a perfect 7-0 conquest of the Mountain West Conference and BYU's first home victory over Utah in a decade.

BYU 35, UTAH STATE 34 OCT 4, 2002

BYU entered the game reeling after losing two close games to Georgia Tech and Nevada. The Cougars also came out of the gate slow against Utah State, falling behind 27-7 with 26 seconds left in the first half. On the last play of the half, Bret Engemann threw a desperation pass downfield that was intercepted by Jerome Dennis who scampered 75 yards for the score. BYU was down 34-7 at the half, a lead that seemed insurmountable, especially with how the Cougars had played of late. The Aggie offense racked up 380 yards in the first half, along with the 34 points. BYU's only touchdown came on a two-yard run by Curtis Brown in the second quarter. If the Cougars were going to win this game, it would take the largest come-from-behind victory in school history. The Cougars came out for the second half determined, driving 70 yards down the field to score on a one-yard run by Brown. Brown added his third touchdown four minutes later to cut the Aggie lead to, 34-21. Utah State missed a 47-yard field goal attempt before the Cougars put together a 14-play drive, resulting in a touchdown pulling BYU to within six points at, 34-28. On the scoring play Engemann handed the ball off to Reno Mahe, who pitched it to Toby Christensen on a reverse. Christensen then threw the ball to Jason Kukahiko for a 17-yard touchdown. The defense came up big again, forcing the Aggies to punt. BYU got the ball on its own 18-yard line. On the first play of the drive Engemann hit Mahe for a 33-yard reception, bringing the ball to mid-field. After an intentional grounding penalty and an incomplete pass, BYU was facing 3rd and fifteen from its own 46-yard line. It looked like the Aggies were going to stop the Cougars and hold on for the victory, but the Cougar offense rose to the occasion as Christensen caught a 27-yard pass from Engemann to keep the drive alive. The Cougars capped the drive three plays later when Gabe Reid caught an 18-yard touchdown pass from Engemann, giving BYU its first lead of the game at 35-34. Then the BYU defense dug in, forcing the Aggies to go three and out on its next drive. The Aggies' final hopes of winning the game were dashed when Brandon Heaney picked off Jose Fuentes with 56 seconds left in the game. The 35-34 victory marked BYU's largest come-from-behind win in school history.

Toby Christensen's crucial third-down reception set up the go-ahead touchdown in BYU's largest second-half comeback in school history.

BYU's winning tradition was built by legendary Cougar head coach LaVell Edwards. After taking over the program in 1972, Edwards erected an offensive powerhouse that rewrote the record books and established itself among the nation's elite football programs. Edwards, a two-time NCAA national coach of the year and the sixth winningest coach in NCAA history, taught his players and the nation what a passing offense truly was. The Cougar offense passed 103,360 yards (about 59 miles) throughout Edwards' 29 seasons as head coach, and now BYU's football stadium is branded with a namesake worth a lifetime of amazing stories. Since 1972 the Cougars have won 21 conference championships, a national championship in 1984 and 23 postseason appearances. BYU's storied tradition continues with 2001 National Coach of the Year finalist Gary Crowton who won 12 games and a conference championship in his first season.

1972 LaVell Edwards, defensive coordinator for the Cougars, is named head coach in January... had been a member of the BYU staff since 1962... halfback Pete Van Valkenburg wins NCAA rushing title boating out All-Americans Greg Pruitt and Otis Armstrong with a 138.6 yards-per-game average... the Cougars also lead the league in defense against the rush.

1973 The Cougars begin to move offensively... quarterback Gary Sheide is runner-up in NCAA passing and third in total offense... teammate Jay Miller leads the nation in pass receiving (100 receptions for 1,181 yards)... Cougars finish second nationally in passing and eighth in total offense... Miller sets an NCAA record for most pass receptions (22) in one game... running back Steve Stratton is named the first Academic All-American in school history.

1975 A year of adjustment: the Cougars falter through the first part of the season, then win six of their last eight games... Gifford Nielsen, a sophomore reserve, comes off the bench in the fourth game (New Mexico) to spark a come-from-behind victory... Nielsen sets WAC record with 10-of-12 passing... becomes starter... Cougars finish 10th nationally in team passing.

1976 Gifford Nielsen places fourth in NCAA completions per game (18.8) with only one-tenth completion separating him from Jack Thompson (Washington State) in second place... Nielsen finishes second to Tommy Kramer (Rice) in total offense... Cougars finish first in passing (307.8), sixth in total offense (424.4) and eighth in NCAA scoring (31.9)... Nielsen voted first team All-American... BYU ties for WAC title and plays Oklahoma State in the Tangerine Bowl.

Cougars are 12th in scoring defense (11.4) and sixth in punting (40.1)... BYU becomes first Division I school to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season... LaVell receives the Bobby Dodd Coach-of-the-Year award... Cougars win the WAC and play Indiana in Holiday Bowl II.

1980 The school's first 12-win season... BYU leads the nation in three statistical categories: total offense (535.0), scoring (46.7) and passing (409.8)... quarterback Jim McMahon is named to the Kodak All-America team along with tackle Nick Eyre... McMahon is the first Division I player to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season (4,571)... sets or ties 26 NCAA records, most in total offense and passing... pass efficiency (176.9) was the highest ever... also led the nation in total offense (385.6)... after losing the first game to New Mexico, BYU wins 12 straight... Cougars win WAC and defeat SMU in Holiday Bowl III by scoring 21 points in the final four minutes.

1977 Gifford Nielsen unexpectedly exits scene with injury in fourth game (Oregon State) and Marc Wilson takes over... by the end of the year, the two have combined for 40 TD passes, 3,585 yards passing and a .605 completion percentage... Wilson finishes eighth in passing and third in total offense... Cougars lead nation in passing (341.6), finish second in scoring (39.4) and third in total offense (470.2)... BYU's 341.6 yards passing per game was third highest in NCAA history, and 41 TDs was second... Cougars top the nation in takeaways (fumbles recovered or interceptions) with a total of 56... Cougars tie for first in WAC and make a post-season trip to play two Japanese all-star teams.

1978 Both Marc Wilson and sophomore Jim McMahon see action in 10 games as they share quarterback duties... Cougars are eighth in passing and fourth in fumble recoveries... Cougars win the WAC, play their final regular-season game in Yokohama, Japan, against UNLV, and meet Navy in the first Holiday Bowl.

1979 With two all-conference quarterbacks to choose from, Edwards decides to redshirt McMahon and play senior Wilson... Cougars upset Texas A&M in season opener and go on to record 11 straight wins... Wilson leads the nation in total offense (325.5) and is fourth in pass efficiency (147.1)... finishes the year as consensus All-American with 10 NCAA records to his credit... Cougars lead the nation in four categories: passing (368.3), total offense (521.4), scoring (40.6) and kickoff returns (26.3)...

1981 Another 11-win season for the Cougars... have a 17-game win streak and rank eighth in the polls before losing to Nevada-Las Vegas... BYU leads the nation in passing for the third consecutive year... McMahon earns All-America honors and finishes his career with 70 NCAA records and sets record with all-time high in career pass efficiency (156.9)... McMahon wins the first Davey O'Brien Award... Cougars win WAC and play Washington State in Holiday Bowl IV... LaVell coaches West team to a victory in the Hula Bowl... also coaches in the Japan Bowl... Edwards' 86-32-1 record ranks among top 10 in the nation.

1974: LaVell's first WAC Championship

1974 Team ranks high in two NCAA statistical categories: seventh in passing offense, third in rushing defense... Gary Sheide is runner-up in passing for the second year in a row (behind Steve Bartkowski of California)... Sheide's career completion percentage is fourth all-time... Bartkowski's final pass completion edged Sheide (182-181) for title... LaVell wins first WAC championship and a trip to the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma St.—BYU's first bowl.

1984...QB Steve Sarkisian leads the nation in pass efficiency with a 173.6 rating...the Cougars finish sixth in the nation in total offense with 478 yards per game...the defense leads the WAC in rushing yards allowed (124.6), total yards allowed (316.3) and points allowed (18.7)...James Dye finishes second in the nation in punt returns with a 17.6 average...BYU wins the inaugural WAC Championship game with a 28-25 victory over Wyoming in Las Vegas, Nevada...BYU goes undefeated in the WAC, giving LaVell Edwards his 18th career title.

1997 BYU finishes fifth in the WAC's Mountain Division with an overall record of 6-5 (4-4 in the WAC)...Cougars fail to receive a bowl bid for only the second time in 20 years...Drew Miller becomes first ever true freshman to start at quarterback for BYU...starting QB role is never quite locked up as three different quarterbacks see considerable playing time throughout the season...Brian McKenzie becomes only the fourth Cougar to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season and moves into sixth place on BYU's career rushing list with 1,954 yards.

1998 BYU runs up a 7-1 conference record (9-5 overall) to win the WAC Pacific Division title...The Cougars meet Tulane in their first-ever Liberty Bowl appearance...BYU's season is highlighted by its defense, ranked No. 5 in the nation, allowing only 91.2 rushing yards and 273.9 total yards per game...After a slow start, the Cougars won seven games in a row...Season highlights included a 26-6 trouncing of Arizona State, a 13-0 shutout of San Diego State and a 26-24 victory over Utah...Rob Morris, John Tait, Brian Gray and Daren Yancey were all named to the All-WAC first team...John Tait was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft (14th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs...Sophomore kicker Owen Pochman set a school record by connecting on 62 consecutive PATs.

1999 Won the first-ever Mountain West Conference Championship with an 8-4 season record (5-2 conf.)...A 27-20 win over Air Force marks LaVell Edwards' 250th victory as head coach of the Cougars...Junior kicker Owen Pochman becomes the school's all-time leading scorer, picking up 90 points on the season to give him a career total 247...a six-game winning streak in the middle of the season has BYU ranked as high as No. 12 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches' Poll...running back Luke Staley is named Freshman All-American and conference Freshman of the Year, leading the nation's freshmen in scoring average with 78 points in eight games...Rob Morris returns from a four-game absence to earn All-American status...Morris is picked in the first round with the 28th overall pick by the Indianapolis Colts...The Cougars finish the season ranked first in the conference in total offense and rushing defense, as well as eighth in the nation in passing offense and 14th in the nation in rushing defense...BYU makes its first-ever Motor City Bowl appearance against Marshall...Edwards concludes the season with his 20th career conference title and 22nd bowl appearance in 28 years.

2000 BYU won its last two games, including a memorable thriller at Utah, to send coach LaVell Edwards out with a 6-6 record in his 29th and final year as a head coach...Playing one of its toughest schedules in history, the Cougars played Mississippi State, Syracuse, Virginia and national power Florida State in the Kickoff Classic...Against Utah, BYU trailed by one point but went 80 yards on nine plays, including two dramatic passes from quarterback

2000: Cougars celebrate a wild come-from-behind win over Virginia

1997: Kevin Feterick leads BYU over Arizona State.

Brandon Doman to wide receiver Jonathan Pittman, for the come-from-behind victory...Owen Pochman, Setena Gali, Jr., Justin Ena and Aaron Edmonds were all named to the All-Mountain West Conference first team...Pochman and Tevita Ofahengaue are both selected in the NFL draft with Ofahengaue being "Mr. Irrelevant" as the last player selected in the draft.

2001 In his first season after taking over the BYU football program Gary Crowton led the Cougars to 12 consecutive victories and an outright Mountain West Conference title thanks to a dramatic come-from-behind victory over rival Utah in Provo...Luke Staley was named a consensus All-American and became BYU's first Doak Walker Award winner for the nation's top running back...Staley led the nation in scoring at 15.45 points per game and was third nationally in rushing at 143.82 yards per game...The Cougars led the nation in scoring offense with 46.77 points per game and in total offense with 542.83 yards per game...BYU was the first MWC school to go undefeated in conference games and boasted eight players being named as first-team all-league...Staley was named Offensive Player of the Year in the Conference and set BYU single-season records for points scored, touchdowns scored and rushing yards...Injuries took Staley out of the Cougars final two games which resulted in losses at Hawaii and in the Liberty Bowl against Louisville...BYU climbed the national polls to as high as

No. 7 on Nov. 25th and finished the season ranked No. 24 in both polls ... First-Team All-MWC defensive end Ryan Denney was named to the Academic All-American team and was drafted in the second round by the Buffalo Bills. All-MWC tight end Doug Jolley was also selected in the second round of the 2002 NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders.

2001: Crowton's offense leads the nation.

2002 For the first time since 1973 the Cougars finished the regular season with a sub-.500 record. Coincidentally, the '73 season was the second under legendary coach LaVell Edwards. His replacement, Gary Crowton, just completed his second season at BYU... For the first time in the four-season history of the MWC, BYU failed to win a conference road game, going 0-3. The Cougars combined to post a 9-2 conference road mark through the league's first three seasons... Matt Berry was the first redshirt freshman quarterback to start at BYU since Ty Detmer in 1988... Brady Poppinga led the MWC with eight sacks for minus 52 yards. He averaged 0.67 sacks per game, with all of his sacks being solo stops... BYU attempted fourth-down conversions a MWC leading 42 times this season. The Cougars converted 17 times and rank sixth in the league with a 40.5 percentage... Matt Payne led the country with a punting average of 47.6 yards... The Cougars have not been shutout in an NCAA record 350 games. BYU was last shutout during the 1975 season.

2003 BYU posted back-to-back losing seasons for the first time since 1970-71 before LaVell Edwards took over the reigns of the program... John Beck became only the second true-freshman to start at quarterback for BYU when he started against Stanford. Drew Miller was the only other true-freshman to start at quarterback... Running back Reynaldo Brathwaite recorded the longest run from scrimmage in Cougar history against San Diego State. Brathwaite, who also had an 89-yard run against New Mexico, scampered for a 95-yard score against the Aztecs on his way to 144 yards rushing on the night... Freshman tight end Daniel Coats was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-America team after posting 30 receptions for 378 yards and four touchdowns... The Cougars' NCAA-record scoring streak ended at 361 after being shut out 3-0 against Utah in the final game of the season. The last time BYU was shut out was when Arizona State blanked the Cougars 20-0 on September 27, 1975.

2001: Staley wins Doak Walker Award and leads the nation in scoring.

BYU'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

After posting a perfect 13-0 season, the Cougars were awarded gold national championships rings after winning the 1984 National Championship.

The Cougars were named No. 1 by the Associated Press, the United Press International, Sports Illustrated, CNN-USA Today, and the Football Writers of America. They won the Grantland Rice Trophy and the MacArthur Bowl. LaVell Edwards was selected as the NCAA National Coach of the Year and was invited to visit President Ronald Reagan in the White House.

The dream season featured plays like wide receiver Adam Haysbert's deep touchdown catch at third-ranked Pittsburgh, safety Kyle Morrell's timed leap over the center on a goal-line stand at Hawaii, tight end David Mill's catch with a clouded eye against Wyoming and running back Koby Smith's winning TD catch against Michigan, who had been ranked second earlier in the season.

With a TV blimp in the sky over Jack Murphy Stadium, junior quarterback Robbie Bosco left the Holiday Bowl in the second quarter with an ankle injury and returned taped to play shotgun late in the second quarter. The 24-17 victory over Michigan was the first time a No. 1 team played in a non-New Year's Day bowl. Other injuries throughout the season were to offensive lineman Craig Garrick and circus-catching wide receiver Glen Kozlowski, who came through time and again.

The Cougars ascended to the number one spot on Nov. 17 following a 24-14 victory at Utah combined with a Nebraska loss to Oklahoma and a Navy upset over unbeaten and then second-ranked South Carolina.

The Cougars rose from no ranking to 12th, sixth, fourth, down to eighth, to fifth for two weeks, back to fourth, then third, back to fourth, again to third and then first in the 1984 campaign. Baylor Coach Grant Teaff, whose team lost at BYU 47-13, in game two, was the first to cast a No. 1 vote for the Cougars.

Controversy was abundant as many of the so-called experts such as NBC announcer Bryant Gumbell and Oklahoma head coach Barry Switzer, accused BYU of playing a "Bo-Diddley Tech" schedule.

Fifteen players from the 1984 team were drafted by the National Football League. Seven different teams held the No. 1 spot in 1984, but in the end it belonged to undefeated BYU.

TY DETMER: 1990 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

"He had me running around like a chicken with my head cut off. We didn't play that bad, Detmer is just that good."

—PENN STATE LINEBACKER ANDRE COLLINS (1989 HOLIDAY BOWL)

On December 1, 1990, Ty Detmer and his teammates gathered pool-side at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel just hours prior to kickoff with Hawaii. Via satellite hookup with national TV, Detmer and the BYU faithful waited patiently and listened as Downtown Athletic Club President C. Peter Lambos announced, "Ty Detmer, Ty Detmer of BYU," —soon Ty was doused in the pool.

Detmer, a junior, became the first collegian from the Rockies to win the Heisman Trophy. Named in honor of John Heisman, the coveted 25-pound honor has been awarded annually to the outstanding college football player of the year since 1935.

A 28-21 upset over No. 1-ranked Miami in Provo vaulted Detmer to the forefront in the Heisman race his junior season. Combined with a massive public relations "necktie" campaign for Ty, the 6-0, 175, gunslinger from San Antonio, Texas, guided BYU to a Holiday Bowl berth that season and a 10-3 record with 41 touchdowns and 5,188 yards passing.

Detmer polled 1,482 points to beat out Notre Dame's Riggins "Rocket" Ismail at 1,177 and finished first in all six regions. Detmer finished third in the Heisman balloting in 1991.

"Winning the Heisman was a great honor," said Detmer. "There have been a lot of great players, like my teammates and previous BYU quarterbacks, that contributed to it. They opened the door. It shows the strength of the program at BYU."

Detmer's portrait hangs alongside other recipients on the third floor of the DAC of New York City. A duplicate portrait of Detmer also hangs on display in the Cougar Room of LaVell Edwards Stadium.

BYU'S TWO OUTLAND TROPHY WINNERS

BYU is one of only 11 schools to have two Outland Trophy winners, joining the likes of Notre Dame, Ohio State, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Texas.

JASON BUCK • 1986

Transfers Jason Buck, a defensive tackle, and Mohammed Elewonibi, an offensive guard, won the Outland in 1986 and 1989, respectively.

Buck, a 6-6, 270, senior from St. Anthony, Idaho, was a quarterback going into junior college at Ricks College. Buck led the 1986 Cougars with 218.5 defensive points and registered 26 unassisted tackles, 33 assisted tackles, 13 tackles for losses, 17 quarterback hurries and 12.5 sacks.

Buck rode a publicity campaign of "One Buck" dollar bills in leading BYU to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Freedom Bowl in 1986.

"For me it was just a thrill to be on the field every Saturday at BYU," said Buck. "To win the Outland Trophy was a dream come true."

MOHAMMED ELEWONIBI • 1989

Mohammed Elewonibi, a 6-5, 290, senior from British Columbia, Canada, spent his childhood in his native Nigeria and didn't play football until after high school, at Snow Junior College. "Mount Mohammed" led BYU to a 10-3 record, a berth in the Holiday Bowl in 1989 and graded out four times with perfect pass protection as a senior.

The Outland Trophy honors the outstanding interior lineman in the nation and was first presented in 1946 by the Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named for its benefactor, Dr. John H. Outland.

LUKE STALEY • 2001 DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER

While his teammates and coaches were watching in their hotel rooms from Hawaii, over 6,000 miles away, BYU running back Luke Staley was named the winner of the 2001 Doak Walker Award. The annual award, which was presented on the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards Show from Orlando, Fla., is presented to college football's top running back.

"This is a great honor," Staley said, "I can't express how grateful I am for my family, my teammates, my coach - everyone who made this possible."

In addition to winning the Doak Walker Award, Staley was also named as a first-team member of the prestigious Walter Camp

Foundation All-America Team. Staley is the first BYU consensus All-American since Ty Detmer was twice selected in 1990 and 1991. In addition to the Walter Camp Foundation All-American team, Staley was named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, Football News and CNN/ISI—just to name a few.

"We're very proud of Luke and all his accomplishments," BYU head coach Gary Crowton said. "Since we started this season back in August, we have been telling these guys to work hard, stay focused and great things will happen. This award, although presented to Luke, is a tribute to the hard work and commitment each and every player and coach has made this season. Luke is probably one of the best examples we have had, in terms of working hard and staying focused. This is a great tribute for a great athlete, a great teammate and a great young man. We couldn't be more proud of him."

Staley, from Tualatin, Ore., led the nation in scoring (15.5 p/game), yards per carry (8.1 y/carry) and finished the 2001 season ranked third in the nation in rushing, averaging 143.8 yards per game. He helped pace the Cougars to a 12-2 record on the season, scoring a BYU single-season record 28 touchdowns. Staley also racked up a BYU single-season record 1,582 yards rushing on the season.

ESPN's Chris Fowler interviews an injured Luke Staley after he was awarded the 2001 Doak Walker Award at the ESPN Home Depot College Football Awards show.

Legendary Cougar coach LaVell Edwards has twice been recognized as one the greatest coaches in college football. The sixth-winningest coach in NCAA football history earned the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 1979 and the Kodak Coach of the Year Award in 1984.

Along with his teams' successes during his coaching tenure, LaVell Edwards accumulated many personal accolades to match. Edwards' first national recognition for his coaching prowess came in 1979 when he was honored with the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. A panel of 11 former college football coaches selected the BYU coach. On the heels of BYU's first national championship five years later, Edwards' coaching peers honored him with what he then called his greatest personal accolade, the Kodak Coach of the Year Award.

As successful as his teams were on the field, Edwards' coaching philosophy did not reflect a win-at-all-costs mentality. He didn't bark orders or rule the sideline with an iron fist. Generally, the assistant coaches were delegated the duty of handling the Xs and Os while he saw to the administrative tasks of the program. His personal demeanor also gave him the ability to relate well with his players whether teaching them about football or other more personal matters.

"Just seeing how he handles himself with the media and with people in general ... he's always genuine with them. He treats everybody well." Former BYU quarterback and current BYU athletic administrator Robbie Bosco said, "Those are the things he'll leave with me, more than winning football games."

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY

On February 21, 1997, Steve Sarkisian became the seventh BYU quarterback in the past 22 years to win the prestigious Sammy Baugh Trophy. Presented each year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, the Sammy Baugh Award recognizes the college passer of the year. In winning, Sarkisian joined Gary Sheide (1974), Marc Wilson (1979), Jim McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983), Robbie Bosco (1984) and Ty Detmer (1991) as Cougars who have won the award. Other notables who have won the award include Bob Griese (1966), Don Strock (1972), Tommy Kramer (1976), John Elway (1982), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Steve Walsh (1988), Jeff George (1989), David Klingler (1990), Elvis Grbac (1992), Trent Dilfer (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995), Ryan Leaf (1997), Daunte Culpepper (1998), Chad Pennington (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), David Carr (2001), Kiff Kingsbury (2002) and B.J. Symons (2003). BYU has more Sammy Baugh winners than any other university in the nation.

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

In 1981, the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth, Texas, named Jim McMahon the first recipient of the annual Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award — honoring the nation's best quarterback. BYU quarterbacks have won the Davey O'Brien Award four times — more than any other school. In addition to winners McMahon (1981), Steve Young (1983) and Ty Detmer (1990 & '91), Robbie Bosco finished runner-up in 1984 and Steve Sarkisian finished third in 1996. Others who have won the award include: Todd Blackledge (1982), Doug Flutie (1984), Chuck Long (1985), Vinny Testaverde (1986), Dan McPherson (1987), Troy Aikman (1988), Andre Ware (1989), Gino Torretta (1992), Charlie Ward (1993), Kerry Collins (1994), Danny Wuerffel (1995 & '96), Peyton Manning (1997), Michael Bishop (1998), Joe Hamilton (1999), Chris Weinke (2000), Eric Crouch (2001), Brad Banks (2002) and Jason White (2003). BYU has more Davey O'Brien winners than any other university in the nation.

STEVE SARKISIAN SPOTLIGHT: After tutoring a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and winning a national championship at USC, the former Sammy Baugh Trophy winner and BYU signal caller continues to excel in the football world. In 2004 he will begin his first season as the new quarterbacks coach for the NFL's Oakland Raiders. While at BYU he had a record-setting two-year (1995-96) career. Sarkisian completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6 percent) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the seventh best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996 and a second-team All-American. As a junior, he was All-WAC and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2 percent).

THE QB ASSEMBLY LINE: This publicity photo from 1984 shows Edwards with some of his prized pupils. Since then, Robbie Bosco led BYU to the National Championship, Ty Detmer won the Heisman Trophy and Steve Sarkisian led BYU to a 14 win season—the most in NCAA History.

EVER SINCE GARY SNEIDE IN 1973, BYU AND LAVELL EDWARDS PRODUCED AN ASSEMBLY LINE OF OUTSTANDING QUARTERBACKS IN PROVO THAT HAVE EARNED UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS IN THE MARKET OF COLLEGE AND PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL.

Volumes have been written about BYU's passing game and great quarterback tradition. BYU quarterbacks own the NCAA record books and have won the Davey O'Brien award for best quarterback in the nation four times with one runner-up and one third place finish. BYU's quarterback factory has also produced a Heisman Trophy winner in Ty Detmer and many other Heisman Trophy candidates. Quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen, Marc Wilson, Jim McMahon and Steve Young have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in recent years, and several other BYU quarterbacks will likely be added to the list. In the last 19 years, two different BYU quarterbacks (more than any other school) have led their teams to NFL championships (Jim McMahon and Steve Young).

On seven different occasions, BYU quarterbacks have finished as the NCAA total offense leaders. Three of the top five career-passing efficiency leaders are from BYU. In the 29 years Edwards coached at BYU, the Cougars have led the nation in passing eight times and finished in the top five 17 times.

When Edwards was named head coach at BYU in 1972, he realized he couldn't compete initially with the big schools for the big-time athletes. So he installed a passing attack that allowed smaller, less physical-type players to win with finesse, rather than muscle.

The offense worked, and the Cougars began passing the competition. BYU became one of the first universities to use the forward pass consistently and effectively in a time when throwing the football was a mere alternative to running the ball.

The pass has been good to BYU. Prior to Edwards, the program had won a total of 171 games and had only 16 winning seasons. Since 1972, BYU has won or tied for the WAC or MWC championship 21 times, played in 23 post-season bowl games and won the national championship in 1984.

FACTOID:

Taking Turns: From 1978 to 1984 — seven straight years — a BYU quarterback was named first-team All-Western Athletic Conference. McMahon got the ball rolling in 1978 as a sophomore. Wilson followed as a senior in 1979, then McMahon twice (1980, 1981), Young twice (1982, 1983) and finally Bosco in 1984.

THE DOMANATOR:

After almost three years of relative anonymity on BYU's sidelines, Brandon Doman proved he could be considered among the Cougar greats. Making the most of what little opportunity given him, Doman stepped in for an injured Bret Engemann and Charlie Peterson as the third-string quarterback in 2000 and finished the year with two huge victories—one over New Mexico in Lavell Edwards' final home game, and a second in a dramatic come-from-behind victory over rival Utah to end Edwards' career. In 2001, Doman led the Cougars on an improbable run through the national rankings by winning 12 straight games to start the season. Doman won his first 14 starts, equaling a mark set by Robbie Bosco in 1984, and got the Cougars off to their best start since BYU's 1984 national championship, despite playing the majority of the year with a grade III shoulder separation in his throwing shoulder.

The "Domanator" racked up a slew of honors through his senior campaign, finding himself a candidate for the Heisman Trophy and a semi-finalist for the Davey O'Brien award. A unanimous First-Team Mountain West Conference selection, Doman earned BCA Classic MVP honors for his four-touchdown, 401-yard performance against Tulane. Doman finished the year ranked seventh nationally in passing efficiency and total offense by completing 64 percent of his passes for 3,542 yards, 33 touchdowns and only eight interceptions. The Domanator culminated his reign as BYU's starting quarterback with a fifth round selection by the San Francisco 49ers in the 2002 NFL draft.

SEASON PASSING EFFICIENCY & RATING RECORDS

At one time, BYU quarterbacks held season passing efficiency and rating records at all levels of competition. In 1980, Jim McMahon threw 47 touchdown passes on his way to establishing a new NCAA season passing efficiency mark at 176.9 (a record that still holds for 30-plus attempts per game). McMahon's record held up until 1995 when Danny Wuerffel of Florida set the new mark at 178.4. McMahon is currently No. 4 followed by BYU greats Ty Detmer at No. 5 (175.6) and Steve Sarkisian at No. 7 (173.6).

In 1994, future Cougar Sarkisian set a new NJCAA record at 203.8 while playing at El Camino College in Torrance, Calif. That same year, Steve Young broke the NFL mark, establishing the new record at 112.8.

Although known as the Quarterback Factory, BYU signal callers wouldn't make the record books without someone on the receiving end of their throws. With BYU's tradition of wide-open offenses, the tight end position has thrived in its offensive scheme.

Tight ends have thrived in the BYU offensive system for years. Like no other school in the nation, BYU's tight ends have earned unprecedented success as a featured position in BYU's wide-open offense. Over the years, Cougar football has emerged as the home of some of the best pass-catching tight ends in NCAA history.

Starting with "Miracle Bowl" hero Clay Brown in 1980, seven BYU tight ends have earned All-American status. Since 1976, 10 Cougar tight ends have received 15 First-Team All-Conference citations. Five BYU tight ends are currently playing in the NFL. Itula Mili of the Seattle Seahawks and Chad Lewis, Pro Bowl tight end of the Philadelphia Eagles, both entered the NFL in 1997 and are starters for their respective teams. Doug Jolley (A second-round NFL pick) plays for the Oakland Raiders while Spencer Nead (New England) and Gabriel Reid (Chicago Bears) joined the NFL in 2003. Another BYU tight end, Carlos Nuno, has been playing in NFL Europe. Two former BYU tight ends Todd Christensen and Chad Lewis have been named to several Pro Bowl teams during their successful professional careers.

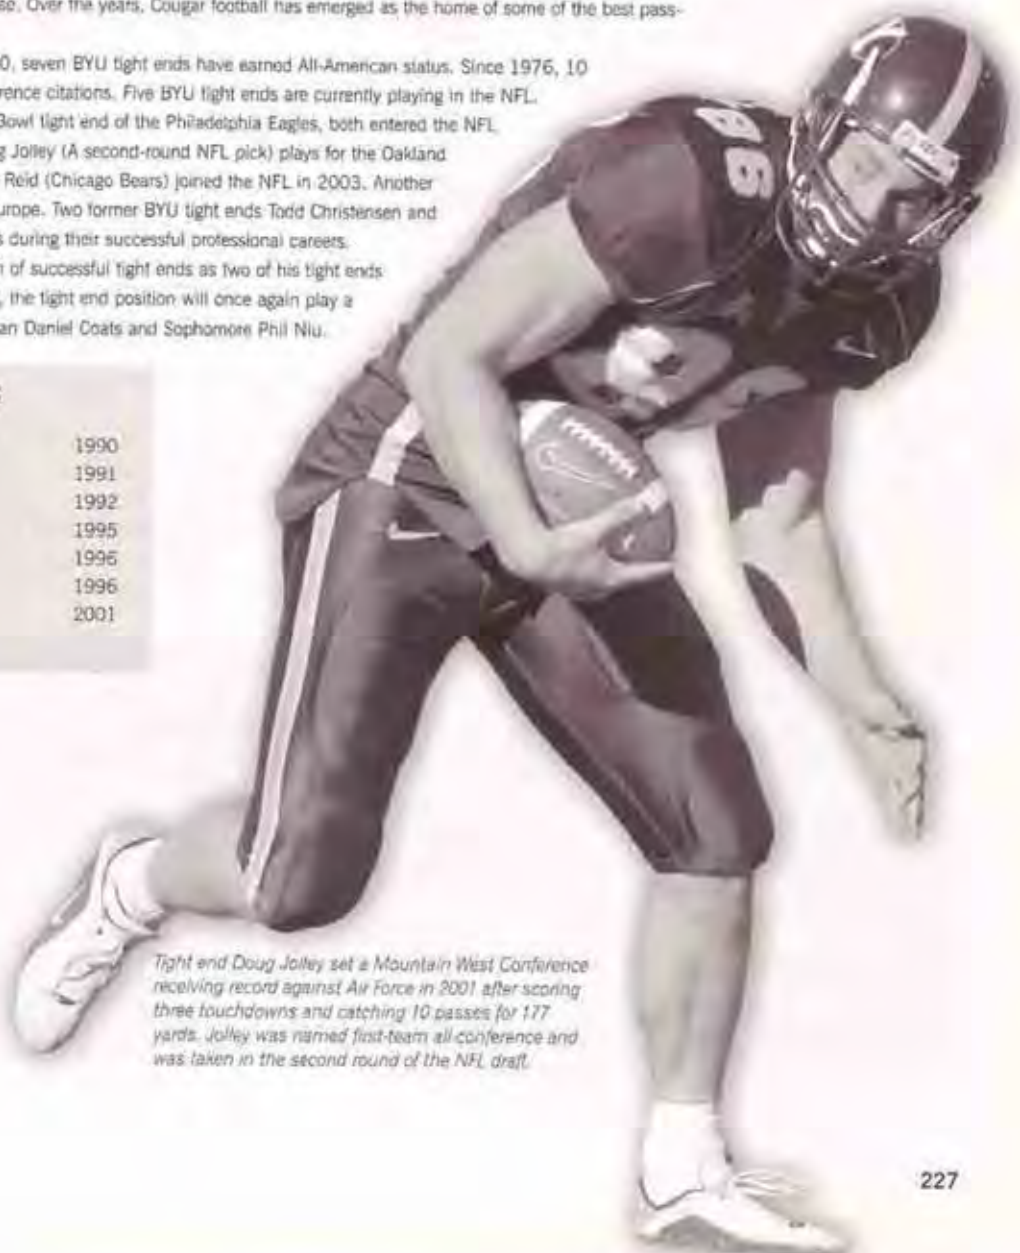

Coach Gary Crowton looks to continue BYU's tradition of successful tight ends as two of his tight ends have been drafted in the last three seasons. This season, the tight end position will once again play a key role in the Cougar offense with Freshman All-American Daniel Coats and Sophomore Phil Niu.

He was named all-conference as a sophomore and junior as well as being named a NJCAA Academic All-American. As a junior, Cook finished the season with 56 tackles and started the final six games of the season at weak safety. Cook recorded 73 tackles as a senior and was fifth on the team in defensive points with 136. Following the season, he was named Academic All-American and honorable mention All-WAC.

ALAN BOARDMAN- Alan Boardman was a four-year letterman for the Cougar football team where he recorded 204 punts for 8,636 yards, averaging 42.3 yards per kick over his career. His freshman year he ranked ninth among punters nationally with a 43.13 average per kick. He was selected a first team Freshman All-American and won the AT&T Long Distance Award against UTEP. The following year Boardman earned second team Academic All-America honors as well as Academic All-District and Academic All-WAC nods. In his senior season, Boardman put up the best numbers of his career with a 43.6 average in 44 kicks, with a career best 65-yard punt against Tulsa. For his performance he once again earned second team Academic All-American.

CHAD LEWIS- All-WAC selection who recorded 24 consecutive games with a catch. Had 10 touchdowns and 110 receptions in his BYU career. Earned degrees in both communications and Chinese and was twice named to the Academic All-WAC squad. Also named a GTE Academic All-American in 1996.

BEN CAHOON- Ben Cahoon came to BYU as a J.C. transfer from Ricks College and became the go-to receiver during the 1997 season. On the year, Cahoon led the Cougars in receiving with 57 catches for 931 yards and four touchdowns. In 1998 Cahoon became the sixth pick in the Canadian Football League draft by the Montreal Alouettes where he has gone on to win three CFL MVP awards.

JARED LEE- As a J.C. transfer from Ricks College, Jared Lee became an immediate impact player for the Cougars during the 1999 and 2000 seasons as a two-year starter and letterman. In his first year as a Cougar, Lee led the team in tackles with 96 takedowns, including 67 unassisted stops. He also led the team with four interceptions and was tied for most pass breakups with eight. In his senior season he was named First Team Academic All-American as well as a National College Football Foundation and Hall of Fame National Scholar Athlete. He received Academic All-District and MWC nods on the year and received the NACDA Foundation Pigskin Classic Postgraduate Scholarship.

RYAN DENNEY- Ryan Denney was a four-year letterman and two-year starter at defensive end for the Cougars from 1998-2001. Over the course of his career he tallied 156 tackles and 16 sacks in 45 games. As a senior, Denney had a strong season as he recorded a team leading seven sacks, was fourth on the roster in tackles, blocked two punts and returned one blocked punt 82 yards for a touchdown against San Diego State. At the end of the season, Denney was invited to play in the Senior Bowl and was named the North MVP of the game. He was also named First Team Academic All-American at season's end before being drafted in the second round of the NFL draft by the Buffalo Bills.

NCAA POST-GRADUATE SCHLARS

Since 1965, 12 BYU football players have been named NCAA post-graduate scholarship winners. To qualify for the award, student athletes must maintain a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale during their collegiate career. In addition, they must perform with distinction in varsity football.

ACADEMIC SPOTLIGHT: BART OATES

Oates came to BYU from Albany, Georgia in 1977, served an LDS mission to Las Vegas, Nevada, and returned to star for the Cougars from 1980-82. When Clay Brown was scrambling to make his miracle catch in the 1980 Holiday Bowl, it was Bart who was protecting Jim McMahon. As a BYU senior, he was second-team All-American behind two-time Outland Trophy winner Dave Rimington of Nebraska. It comes as no surprise that he was voted to the WAC All-Decade Team in the 1980s. Bart had a long and distinguished career with the New York Giants, helping them to Super Bowl titles in 1987 and 1991. He was named to the All-Pro Team in 1990 and 1991 and played in the Pro Bowl in 1990. A two-time Academic All-WAC selection, he received a bachelor's degree in accounting from BYU in 1983 and began law school at BYU as an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholar. He received his law degree from Seton Hall University in 1990 and went on to practice as an attorney for the firm of Ribis, Graham & Curtin in Morristown, New Jersey.

The College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Indiana has honored five of BYU's Football Greats. The fifth Cougar to be inducted into this prestigious hall is legendary BYU coach LaVell Edwards. He will be inducted in December 2004. Edwards is the sixth all-time winningest coach in NCAA history.

LAVELL EDWARDS

Head Coach: 1972-2000

Inducted: 2004

A coaching icon, whose success and longevity are paralleled by few,

span of 29 seasons at BYU. From 1972 until his retirement following the 2000 season, Edwards reigned the sidelines at BYU—a tenure that ranks fifth all-time among coaches at one school. In 20 of those 29 seasons, the Cougars claimed the league title. Guiding BYU to 22 bowl game appearances, including a streak of 17 straight bowl appearances, Edwards reached the pinnacle of coaching success in 1984 by winning the National Championship. His 257 wins rank him sixth in NCAA Division I-A history, and he has more victories than every other coach in BYU history combined. At the helm, Edwards compiled a program best .716 win percentage, coached one Heisman Trophy winner, two Outland Trophy recipients, four Davey O'Brien award winners and 32 All-Americans—not to mention countless players who went onto professional careers in the NFL.

BYU's success didn't come without personal reward for Edwards either. He was named NCAA District 8 Coach of the Year eight times, the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 1979 and AFCA National Coach of the Year in 1984. Named the State of Utah's Coach of the Century, Edwards is a member of the State of Utah Sports Hall of Fame. "A spectacular choice," Steve Young said. "When you think of the Hall of Fame, you think of longevity, excellence, leadership, and quality. In my book, Hall of Fame and LaVell Edwards go hand in hand. He is definitely a worthy recipient of this honor."

Edwards, who will turn 74 in October, recently returned from an LDS Church mission to New York City. Along with his wife Patti, the Edwards' served as public affairs missionaries for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Northeastern United States, as well as Eastern Canada. The Edwards have been married for nearly 53 years and have three children, Ann, John and Jim. The Edwards have 14 grandchildren.

The 2004 College Football Hall of Fame class will be inducted at the 47th Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 7, 2004 at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. The inductees will be officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend during ceremonies in August, 2005.

Other inductees for the Class of 2004 include running back Bob Anderson (Army, 1957-59), offensive lineman Tony Casillas (Oklahoma, 1982-85), linebacker Frank Emanuel (Tennessee, 1963-65), punter Ray Guy (Southern Mississippi, 1970-72), linebacker Wayne Harris (Arkansas, 1958-60), quarterback Joe Kapp (California, 1956-58), tight end James Mandich (Michigan, 1967-69), running back Lydell Mitchell (Penn State, 1969-71), defensive tackle Tracy Rocker (Auburn, 1985-88), defensive back Jack Tatum (Ohio State, 1968-70), quarterback Andre Ware (Houston, 1987-89), tight end Charles Young (USC, 1970-72) and former head coach at Navy and Virginia, George Welsh (1973-2000).

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Established in 1947 by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Inc., the first class was inducted in 1951. In order to be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a nominated player must be out of college at least ten years and a first team All American selection by a major selector during his career. The voting is done by a 12 member panel made up of athletic directors, conference and bowl officials, and media representatives. The College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Indiana and is open year round. For more information visit <http://collegefootball.org/>.

STEVE YOUNG

Quarterback: 1982-83

In December 2001 The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame inducted former BYU Cougar Steve Young to the Division IA College Football Hall of Fame.

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Steve Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks en route to setting 13 NCAA records. As a junior, he averaged 316.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-Western Athletic Conference recognition and Conference Player-of-the-Year honors.

In his senior season, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an impressive .713 percentage and led BYU to its second straight Holiday Bowl. His .713 completion percentage, along with 3,902 yards passing, 4,346 yards of total offense and 33 touchdowns all led the nation. Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for a .653 average, threw for 7,733 yards and 55 touchdowns and his 8,817 yards of total offense in only 31 games is among college football's all-time greatest career numbers.

A unanimous All-American and academic All-WAC selection, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and received a National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition for his excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community — a tradition he maintains today with the successful Forever Young Foundation.

Young retired after 15 seasons in the NFL, where he earned two MVP awards, seven trips to the Pro Bowl and led the San Francisco 49ers to the Super Bowl Championship in 1995, earning most-valuable-player honors. Young is the fourth BYU quarterback to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Gifford Nielsen was inducted in 1994, Marc Wilson was selected in 1996 and Jim McMahon was honored by the Hall in 1998.

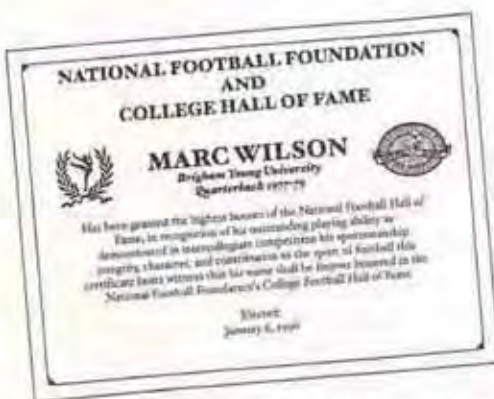

JIM MCMAHON

Quarterback: 1978-81
Inducted: 1998

In 1998 Jim McMahon (1977-78, 80-81) joined former BYU quarterbacks Gifford Nielsen and Marc Wilson, who were inducted into the National Football Foundation Collegiate Hall of Fame in 1994 and 1996, respectively.

McMahon set 70 NCAA records at BYU, was a 1981 First Team All-American by Kodak (Coaches), College & Pro Weekly, Associated Press, UPI, Football Writers Association of America, and second team NEA. In 1980 he earned First team All-America by the FWAA. McMahon balloted third place for the Heisman Trophy in 1981 and fifth in 1980. In 1981, he won the Davey O'Brien Trophy, the Sammy Baugh Award, the Utah Sportsman of the Year, and the NCAA Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Marcus Allen (Pigskin Club of Wash., D.C.). He led the NCAA in pass efficiency (155.0) and total offense (345.8) in 1981 as well as pass efficiency (176.9) and total offense (385.6) in 1980. He set 29 Western Athletic Conference records and was three-time WAC Player of the Year and first team all-league. He broke 23 school records, was MVP of the 1980 and 1981 Holiday Bowls, and has been inducted to the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. McMahon passed for 9,536 yards, threw 84 touchdowns and completed 653 of 1,056 passes during his career at BYU.

McMahon played for the Chicago Bears from 1982-88 (1985 Super Bowl Champions, 1985 Pro QB of the Year, and Pro Bowl); San Diego Chargers in 1989; Philadelphia Eagles from 1990-92; Minnesota Vikings in 1993; Arizona Cardinals in 1994; and Green Bay Packers from 1995-96 (1997 Super Bowl Champions).

MARC WILSON

Inducted: 1996

One of the most celebrated quarterbacks in Cougar history, Marc Wilson earned consensus All-American honors in 1979 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Dec. 10, 1996. In Wilson's first game as a starter, he was 15 of 25 for 332 yards with seven touchdowns in a 63-17 triumph over Colorado State and was consequently named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Player of the Week. In Wilson's career at BYU, he set ten NCAA records. The 6-5, 204 pound quarterback ranked fourth in the nation in passing efficiency with a 147.1 rating in 1979. That same year, Wilson finished third in the Heisman balloting, led his team to an undefeated regular season, and was named the Holiday Bowl's Offensive MVP.

A true student-athlete, Wilson was the recipient of the NCAA Top Five Award and its Post Graduate Scholarship. A first round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders, Wilson played eight seasons before finishing his career with the New England Patriots.

Presently, Wilson is a land developer in the North Seattle area. He and his wife, Colleen, live in Woodinville, Washington with their four children.

GIFFORD NIELSEN

Quarterback: 1975-77
Inducted: 1994

Nicknamed the "Mormon rifle," Gifford Nielsen became BYU's first Hall of Fame inductee in 1994. His prolific passing career began when he came off the bench in the third game of his sophomore season to lead the Cougars to a 16-15 come-from-behind win by completing 10 of 12 passes.

"From that point on," Nielsen said, "everything clicked, and it's just amazing what happened." As a junior, in 1976, Nielsen really made fans sit up and notice. He passed for 3,192 yards and 29 touchdowns, set 13 WAC records and made All-American. Next season promised even more. He threw five touchdown passes against New Mexico, six against Utah State and was twice named Player of the Week. For the first time, a BYU football team was nationally ranked.

"It was like a little dream world," said Nielsen, a product of Provo High School. "The numbers were just mind-boggling. Everything you could ever dream of as a kid in Provo, Utah, was in the palm of my hand." On Oct. 8, 1977, his season and college career ended when he suffered a serious injury. He left a mark, however. Over the three years Nielsen averaged an astounding 243 yards passing per game.

Nielsen played six years with the Houston Oilers and was the last quarterback to lead the Oilers to the AFC finals. He is currently a broadcaster in Houston. He and his wife Wendy have six children.

RETIRED JERSEYS & RETIRED NUMBERS

RETIRED NO. 8 JERSEY

Steve Young became the first former Cougar to have his jersey retired at LaVell Edwards Stadium on Aug. 28, 2003.

"I think it is an extremely appropriate way to honor Steve," former BYU coach LaVell Edwards said. "I can't think of anyone who is more deserving. Everyone thinks he just picked up a ball one day and, all of a sudden, became a great player. To be honest, I don't think he threw 10 drop-back passes in high school. After arriving at BYU, he had to develop the ability to take the ball from under center, drop back, make a decision and throw the football. Essentially, he started from scratch when he came to BYU."

Few rival Young's career totals. He completed 592-of-907 attempts for 7,733 yards and 56 touchdowns. He recorded five miles of total offense in only 31 games (8,817 yards), ranking as one of college football's most impressive career performances.

One of the greatest collegiate quarterbacks of all time, Young was consistently at the top of all the nation's statistical categories for quarterbacks. As a junior, he averaged 318.8 yards per game of total offense, earning All-WAC recognition and Conference Player-of-the-Year honors. One year later, he repeated as a first-team All-WAC selection, completed 306-of-429 pass attempts for an amazing 71.3 completion percentage. As a senior, Young led the nation in total yards passing (3,802), total offense (4,245) and touchdowns (33).

Following his senior season, Young was selected as a consensus All-American, won the Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh quarterback awards, and finished second in the Heisman Trophy balloting. After graduating from BYU in 1983, Young became the first-round draft choice of the Los Angeles Express in the USFL. He later played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers before signing with the San Francisco 49ers in 1987.

Throughout his 15-year professional career, he won three Super Bowl titles, including two as a back-up and one as a starter. He led the 49ers to a 49-26 victory over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX with a record six touchdowns to earn Super Bowl Steve Young's No. 8 Jersey was retired on Aug. 28, 2003. He was the first Cougar to have his name and jersey number permanently displayed in the press box at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

MVP honors. When his professional career was all said and done, he left the game as the highest-rated quarterback in NFL history, two league MVP Awards (1992-1994) and was the only quarterback in the league's history to win four straight passing titles.

While two football numbers have previously been retired, (Eldon "The Phantom" Fortie [1960-62], who wore No. 40; and Marion Probert [1951-54], who wore No. 81) Young is the first BYU football player to have his jersey retired. Banners honoring Probert, who was tragically killed in 1965 and Fortie, BYU's first All-American, were unveiled later during the 2003 season.

Young's jersey, not his number, was retired. Future players may still have the option to wear No. 8. The criteria considered to retire a jersey includes the following:

- First team All-American
- Recipient of major national award
- University graduate
- Minimum 15-year waiting period
- Significant accomplishments after BYU graduation (athletics, community, church)

BYU RETIRED NUMBERS

In 1952, Eldon Fortie re-wrote the BYU record book, breaking 21 school records. Nicknamed "the Phantom" for his uncanny ability to change speeds and directions, his single game school-record of 272 yards rushing still stands today — 37 years later.

Fortie was BYU's first All-American, and the first Cougar player to gain national recognition. He finished 10th in the Heisman voting and was named WAC Back of the Year and Back of the Week by UPI and Sports Illustrated.

Marion Probert was one of BYU's first big-name recruits. A superior receiver, Probert was named All-Skyline conference three times and was an Honorable Mention All-American and a two-time academic All-American. After passing offers to play professionally, Probert became one of Utah's brightest physicians.

On Nov. 27, 1965, the 32-year-old surgeon was killed en route to the BYU WAC Championship game in Albuquerque when the plane he was riding on slammed into a mountainside, halfway between Salt Lake and Provo.

Since BYU's first official game in 1922, only these two numbers have been officially retired: No. 40 (Eldon Fortie) and No. 81 (Marion Probert.)

Brandon Doman had three 300+ passing performances in his career. Against Tulane in the 2004 season opener, Doman gained 115 yards rushing and 286 passing becoming the first BYU quarterback to tally such numbers since Steve Young threw for 351 yards and rushed for 113 yards against Baylor in 1993.

300-YARD PASSING PERFORMANCES

Ty Detmer holds the NCAA record for most games passing over 300 yards in a career. His 34-game record more than doubles any other BYU quarterback.

OSU – Daigle 42-yard field goal
OSU – Bain 40-yard pass from Thompson (kick failed)

GAME SUMMARY:

Competing in its first post-season bowl game ever, BYU played Western Athletic Conference host to the Oklahoma State Cowboys before a crowd of 50,878. The Cougars got off to a quick start with two field goals during the first quarter before All-WAC quarterback Gary Sheldie suffered a dislocated shoulder in the last moments of the quarter. He was replaced by junior reserve Mark Giles. The Cowboys took the scoring lead during the second quarter on a touchdown run around left end, giving Oklahoma State a 7-6 halftime advantage. OSU regained possession of the ball on the Cougars' 17-yard line after intercepting Giles, but the Cowboys were unable to convert on the turnover. A field goal from 32 yards out put the Cowboys in front 10-6 at the end of the third quarter. With 1:14 remaining in the game, Oklahoma State scored another touchdown on a 40-yard halfback pass to complete the scoring. The Cougars out-gained Oklahoma State in total yardage, 301-214. Giles was 11 of 26 for 138 yards. After three losses and a tie to open the season, the Cougars reeled off seven straight victories prior to the bowl game.

OSU – Miller 6-yard run (Lisle pass from Weatherbie)

GAME SUMMARY:

Powerful Oklahoma State, sparked by All-American Terry Miller (173 yards rushing on 23 carries), used four pass interceptions and a fumble recovery to capture the 31st annual Tangerine Bowl contest. Defensively, the Cowboys yielded only 46 yards rushing. The Cougars, however, stayed close in the first half, which ended 28-14. Dave Lowry returned the second-half kickoff 102 yards (a Tangerine Bowl record) to move the Cougars to within seven at 28-21. From there, it was all Cowboys. BYU's Gifford Nielsen completed 23 of 34 passes for 209 yards and one touchdown, but the Cougars could only roll up 255 yards to Oklahoma State's 402. BYU entered the game with a 9-2 record, while Oklahoma State came in after tying for the Big 8 title. The Cowboys missed out on the Orange Bowl because of the conference tie-breaking formula. Later, the stadium was expanded and the name changed to the Florida Citrus Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

The inaugural Holiday Bowl pitted two teams with local drawing power, the Naval Academy and Brigham Young University. Despite chilly temperatures, the two teams engaged in a hard-hitting battle. Defense dominated the first two quarters. Brent Johnson put the Cougars on the scoreboard first with a 33-yard field goal with 8:26 left in the first quarter. But Navy's Bob Tata boomed a 40-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-3. Jim McMahon sent the Cougars ahead with a 10-yard pass to Mike Chronister, but Johnson missed the PAT. McMahon ran another in from two yards out in the third period for a 16-3 BYU lead. Navy cut the lead to 16-10 after three quarters and then tied the game on two field goals in the fourth quarter, but it was a 65-yard pass to Phil McConkey that did the Cougars in. Some 52,500 witnessed the game in person. McConkey was named Best Offensive Player and BYU's Tom Enlow won Best Defensive Player honors. Navy finished the year at 9-3, BYU at 9-4.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1979 season ended with BYU leading the nation in scoring, passing and total offense. At 11-0, the Cougars were one of the few undefeated, untied teams in the nation. Those kinds of credentials, along with its No. 9 national ranking in the UPI and AP polls made BYU the favorite over the at-large entry, Indiana. The opportunistic Hoosiers played the Cougars tough, holding a 21-17 lead at the half. BYU jumped ahead in the third quarter, 24-21, on a 13-yard pass from All-American Marc Wilson to Homer Jones. The Cougars fell behind, 31-24, but regained the lead at 34-31 on a 15-yard pass to Eric Lane. With 12:14 left to play, BYU padded the lead on the third field goal of the game by Brent Johnson. But midway through the fourth quarter, Indiana's Tim Wilbur returned a punt 62 yards to push the Hoosiers ahead 38-37. With 2:06 remaining, the Cougars moved the ball 69 yards to the Indiana 10. Then, with 11 seconds left, Johnson missed a 27-yard field goal that would have won the game. Wilson was voted the MVP on offense (28 of 43 for 380 yards) and Indiana's Wilbur won the honor for defense. Clay Brown caught nine passes for 142 yards. Lane grabbed nine passes for 79 yards and also scored a rushing touchdown. Jones scored a touchdown and had 126 yards on seven kickoff returns.

GAME SUMMARY:

One observer said the 1980 Holiday Bowl was actually two ball games—a contest which lasted most of four quarters and another of four minutes duration. SMU controlled the "first game," leaving the Cougars behind 20 points with only minutes remaining. Unfortunately, many fans either turned off their TV sets or left the stadium in San Diego before the "second game" began. In the final four minutes, BYU surged to a stunning 46-45 win. For 56 minutes the Mustangs taught the Cougars a lesson in running the football. The Mustangs' two great running backs, Craig James and Eric Dickerson, rushed for a combined total of 336 yards. With 4:07 remaining in the game, SMU scored to go ahead, 45-25. From there the Cougars connected on a TD pass, recovered an on-side kick, scored on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, blocked a punt. Finally, with three seconds left on the clock, Jim McMahon connected on a "Hail Mary" pass of 41 yards to Clay Brown. With the score tied, Kurt Gunter kicked the extra point to send BYU fans streaming onto the field. McMahon was 32 of 49 passes for 446 yards. It may have been the most exciting bowl game ever, with the Cougars getting 21 points in the final 2:33. Ironically, four passes on conversion attempts had failed before McMahon hit Phillips after the next-to-last touchdown to cut a 45-31 deficit to 45-39 and put the Cougars in a position to win the game with one more score. The 50-yard drive was set up when Todd Shell recovered a Brent Johnson on-side-kick at midfield. SMU got the ball back with 1:57 but had to punt. The kick was blocked by defensive back Bill Schoepflin and recovered by the SMU punter, Eric Kalles, with 13 seconds left. McMahon threw one incomplete pass intended for Brown and another for Lloyd Jones before unleashing the famous pass to Brown in the end zone with no time left on the clock.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 1981 edition of the Holiday Bowl fit the mold of its predecessors. This time it was the Cougars of BYU versus the Cougars of Washington State, playing before a crowd of 52,419. BYU held a 24-7 lead at halftime, then pushed the score to 31-7 as Tom Holmoe intercepted a pass and returned it 35 yards to give the WAC champions a comfortable edge. As the second half progressed, it appeared BYU would be the come-from-behind victim in this one. With only 59 seconds left in the third quarter, Washington State scored to make it 31-28. But Jim McMahon took over moving BYU 82 yards for a score to stretch the lead to 38-28. Statistically, it was a typical McMahon game, 27 of 43 with no interceptions and three touchdowns. Tight end Gordon Hudson had an excellent game, collecting seven catches for 126 yards and a touchdown. Dan Plater also caught a touchdown pass and Weyman Hamilton scored on the ground. Washington State quarterbacks Clete Casper and Ricky Turner completed only eight passes for 106 yards but Turner had 82 yards rushing while Don LaBarrme had 79. Each team scored five touchdowns, so the difference actually came midway through the second quarter when Kurt Gunther connected on a 20-yard field goal after a BYU drive stalled on the Washington State three.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars had their two-game Holiday Bowl win streak snapped by Ohio State, 47-17. BYU's bubble burst at the outset of the third quarter, when the Buckeyes reeled off 17 unanswered points. Tim Spencer blew through the Cougar defense for 167 yards, including a record-setting 61-yard touchdown run in the second quarter that put Ohio State up, 10-7. Steve Young completed 27 of 45 passes for 341 yards, but BYU had a tough time getting into the end zone. The Cougars turned the ball over to Ohio State three times inside the 30 and saw the Buckeyes convert each turnover into a score. The Cougars took the lead early in the second quarter with a seven-yard strike to Neil Balhorn. But Spencer's long gallop and a blocked punt put the Buckeyes up, 17-10, at halftime. Big fullback Vaughn Broadnax scored on the opening drive of the second half, and on the next play, Young was intercepted and Spencer ran 18 yards to put Ohio State in control for good. BYU's only other score came midway through the fourth quarter when Gordon Hudson caught a 13-yard pass. Ohio State quarterback Mike Tomzak had only 132 yards passing and no touchdowns, but his fleet of running backs scored six times on the ground. Ten different BYU players caught passes, led by Hudson with seven receptions for 81 yards and Balhorn with 58 yards receiving.

GAME SUMMARY:

Yet another chapter was added to the saga of impossible, thrilling Holiday Bowl finishes when BYU defeated Missouri, 21-17. The game was billed as a classic matchup between Missouri's stubborn defense and BYU's explosive offense, led by quarterback Steve Young. Missouri held BYU to just 167 yards and seven points in the first half, while BYU's defense allowed the Tigers only 167 yards and 10 points. Missouri got its first-half points on a two-yard run by Eric Drain and a 37-yard field goal by Brad Burditt. BYU's touchdown came on a 10-yard quarterback draw by Young. In the second half, Young hit Eddie Stinnett with a 33-yard touchdown pass. But Missouri came right back with another two-yard plunge by Drain. A valiant goal-line stand by BYU gave the Cougars the ball on the six-yard-line with 3:57 left in the game. Led by Young, the Cougars moved down the field to the Missouri 15 with under a minute to play. On first-and-10 at the Tigers' 15, Young handed to Stinnett, who faked a sweep right and threw back across the field to Young. The Stinnett pass barely cleared the outstretched hands of Missouri's Bobby Bell allowing Young to gather it in and scramble 15 yards to the end zone. The PAT gave BYU a 21-17 lead with 23 seconds left. Kyle Morell intercepted a Missouri desperation pass at the BYU two-yard line and returned it to the 17 to seal the win.

GAME SUMMARY:

Holiday Bowl VII lived up to all the glamour and excitement of the previous six bowls, plus it had a new dimension—national championship juster—thanks to BYU's undefeated, untied season and No. 1 ranking. The 24-17 Cougar victory marked the first time in years that a non-New Year's Day bowl game determined the national championship. The contest was played in typical Holiday Bowl fashion. After a scoreless first quarter in which Cougar quarterback Robbie Bosco was forced to the sideline with an injured knee and ankle, the game began to develop drama. BYU scored first with 8:37 left in the first half on a five-yard run by Kelly Smith. The touchdown was set up when a limping Bosco returned to the lineup and engineered an 80-yard drive. The Wolverines responded by putting together an 80-yard scoring drive of their own, culminating on Rick Rogers' five-yard touchdown run up the middle. The PAT tied the score at seven. The tie was short-lived however, as a 31-yard field goal by Lee Johnson with time running out in the first half gave BYU a 10-7 lead at the break. Midway through the third period, Michigan went on top for the first time at 14-10 on a 10-yard scoring strike from Bob Zurbrugg to Bob Perryman. The Wolverines added to their lead when Bob Bergeron nailed a 32-yard field goal to make the Michigan lead 17-10 with 14:14 to play. The Cougar offense then produced an 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard Bosco-to-Glen Kozlowski touchdown pass to tie the game at 17 with 10:51 to go. Bosco's 13-yard scoring toss to Smith with 1:23 remaining made it 24-17. Two plays later Marv Allen intercepted a pass to clinch a 13-0 season and the Cougars' first-ever national championship. David Mills finished with 11 catches for 103 yards receiving and Smith had 10 for 85. Lakei Heimuli led BYU with 82 yards rushing while Bob Perryman had 110 for Michigan.

SCORING:

OSU — Spangler 47-yard field goal
 BYU — Miles 38 yard pass from Bosco (Webster kick)
 OSU — Kolic 14 pass interception (Spangler kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

In what promised to be an offensive showdown between pass-happy BYU (11-2) and rough and tumble Ohio State (8-3), two of the nation's top defenses took center stage. In fact, the game's only touchdowns were produced by a noseguard on an interception and a reserve wide receiver on a broken play. Buckeye kicker Rich Spangler tallied the first points of the game with a 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give Ohio State a 3-0 lead. BYU attempted to answer with a long drive of its own, only to come away empty after Val Sikanema fumbled on an apparent touchdown plunge. Before the first half ended, quarterback Robbie Bosco rolled left, whirled right and found wide receiver David Miles on a 38-yard strike to give the Cougars a 7-3 half-time lead. In the second half, Ohio State noseguard Larry Kolic intercepted Bosco and took it in for a touchdown to give the Buckeyes a 10-7 lead. Leon White and Kyle Whittingham recovered fumbles but Kolic got another interception and Terry White intercepted two in the end zone to stop BYU threats—one with 3:38 to play and again with three seconds left. Ohio State was the beneficiary of six Cougar turnovers, and the Buckeyes went home the victor. Mark Bollini had 89 yards receiving while Lakei Heimuli added 10 receptions for 77 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Although BYU failed to win the WAC title, the Cougars kept alive an impressive streak of nine bowl appearances in a row by being invited to the third annual Freedom Bowl. There they met familiar foe UCLA. The two teams had met in 1985 when the Bruins came from behind to win a tough game in Provo, 27-24. The Freedom Bowl, however, proved different as UCLA outstanding running back Gaston Green broke open a close game in the third quarter and the Bruins went on to win 31-10. Green finished with 266 yards on 33 carries. The first half was all defense as the two teams punted nine times in the first 30 minutes. BYU struck first when linebacker Andy Katoa recovered a UCLA fumble at the Bruin 47 and Leonard Chitty put the Cougars ahead 3-0 with a 32-yard field goal. UCLA stormed ahead to stay with a 71-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a 49-yard run on a reverse by Bruin receiver Karl Donnell. From then on, it was UCLA most of the way. Cougar quarterbacks Bob Jensen and Mike Young managed to pass for over 200 yards, but UCLA and Green did most of the damage. Costly injuries to standouts Mark Bellini and Katoa hindered the Cougar effort, but Outland Trophy winner Jason Buck turned in another strong effort.

GAME SUMMARY:

The 11th annual All-American Bowl began with temperatures in the 40s and BYU never warmed up. The Cougars' 10th consecutive bowl appearance included several records, but BYU lost 22-16 in its first-ever meeting with Virginia. Sean Covey attempted 61 passes. David Miles had 188 yards in receptions and Pat Thompson only punted once, but BYU fell short several times. Darren Handley, BYU's leading receiver, dropped a touchdown pass in the first quarter before BYU settled for a 20-yard field goal by Leonard Chitty. However, Chitty, who set a season mark for field goals (18) and consecutive PATs (29), missed from 51 and 47 yards as Virginia took a 14-3 lead into the intermission. BYU got to the Virginia two-yard-line midway through the third quarter only to have a fourth-down pass tipped away. Later, Freddie Whittingham scampered eight yards to cut the lead to 14-9 at the end of the third quarter. Virginia, led by quarterback Scott Secules, the game's MVP, made a crucial 76-yard drive to go ahead 22-9 with 11 minutes left. Then, BYU went the same distance to score on a one-yard pass to Whittingham with seven minutes remaining. But that was as close as the Cougars would get. Ironically, nine years earlier on the same date Virginia Coach George Welsh led Navy to a 23-16 win over BYU in the inaugural Holiday Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

A star was born in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl when Ty Detmer came off the bench to earn MVP honors while leading the Cougars to an upset victory over Colorado. Cool weather didn't hamper diminutive Eric Blonkemy, who rushed 33 times for 144 yards and two touchdowns. But his heroics couldn't offset Detmer's 11 for 19 and 129 yards in the second half. Scott Peterson made an interception to set up the game-winning field goal. It was an exciting contest for the 35,941 fans (49,694 tickets were sold) in attendance. A fumble at midfield led to the Buffaloes' first score, before Sean Covey found Mike Salido to tie the score. An interception in the end zone stopped a BYU drive early in the second quarter as the Cougars trailed at the half, 14-7. A Detmer to Chuck Cutler pass tied the game in the third quarter but Colorado took a 17-14 lead early in the final quarter. BYU then moved from its own four to the Buffalo 14 and tied the game with 4:11 left on a 31-yarder by Chaffetz. Three plays later, Peterson's interception and a 15-yard penalty put the ball at the Colorado 32. With 2:33 left, Chaffetz booted a 35-yarder for the victory. Halfback Matt Bellini carried eight times for 78 yards and caught four passes for 41 yards.

GAME SUMMARY:

Two unusual plays late in the game kept BYU from downing Penn State and offset 576 yards passing by Ty Detmer—the highest total ever in a bowl game. For his effort, and thanks to blocking from Outland Trophy winner Mohammed Elewntibi, Detmer had the rare privilege of sharing MVP honors despite playing on the losing team. BYU, which trailed 41-26 with nine and a half minutes remaining, scored twice to cut the lead to 41-39 with 2:30 to play. The Cougars went for a two-point conversion to tie the game, but Detmer's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Penn State linebacker Andre Collins and returned 102 yards for two points. Down 43-39, the Cougars, led by Bob Davis, forced the Lions to punt, giving BYU the ball on its own 12 with two minutes left. Passes to Brent Nyberg, Matt Bellini, Chris Smith and Andy Boyce moved the ball to the Penn State 38 with a minute left to play. Then, what appeared to be a sack by Penn State safety Gary Brown turned into a score for the Nittany Lions. Brown stripped the ball from Detmer at the Penn State 47 and raced 53 yards for the touchdown. Penn State finished the season ranked 14th by UPI and 15th by AP and CNN/USA Today. BYU was 18th in the UPI poll and 22nd in the others.

GAME SUMMARY:

Led by quarterback Bucky Richardson and All-America running back Darren Lewis, underdog Texas A&M was out to show it belonged among the nation's elite. The Cougars entered the game beat up. Defensive backs Tony Crutchen and Norm Dixon weren't able to suit up and Heisman Trophy winner Ty Detmer was playing with a slight separation in his non-throwing shoulder. The second largest Holiday Bowl crowd ever (61,441) watched the Aggies march 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 7-0 lead. The Cougars tied the score on an eight-yard Detmer-to-Chris Smith touchdown pass, but after that, the game was all Texas A&M. The Aggies went on to score 23 points in the second quarter en route to a 37-7 halftime lead. With the game out of hand, the big story was William Thomas' crunching sack that separated Detmer's throwing shoulder and put him out of the game early in the third quarter. The Aggies continued to dominate by racking up nearly 200 yards rushing in the second half. Texas A&M's Richardson would go on to be named Offensive Player of the Game by piling up 344 yards in total offense. Thomas was named the top defensive player. BYU finished the season ranked 17th by UPI, 20th by CNN/USA Today and 22nd by AP. BYU had been as high as fourth prior to its first loss.

 BYU – Anderson 26-yard pass from Detmer (Kauffman kick)

GAME SUMMARY:

A tipped pass that was picked off in the end zone with less than 30 seconds remaining stifled BYU's hopes of knocking off seventh-ranked Iowa in the 14th annual Holiday Bowl. Ty Detmer turned in another great performance in his last appearance as a Cougar, passing for 350 yards and two touchdowns against a team that led the Big 10 in defense and sacks. Quarterback Matt Rodgers led Iowa on a 74-yard scoring march on the game's opening drive. The Hawkeyes also scored on another long drive in the second quarter. Down 13-0, BYU finally got things rolling. Starting on the BYU 22, Detmer connected on five of six passes to move the Cougars to the Iowa nine. From there, he found fullback Peter Tuipulotu for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the halftime score was 13-6. BYU opened the fourth with an 87-yard drive that culminated with a Detmer-to-Tyler Anderson touchdown from 29 yards out. Earl Kauffman connected on the PAT to tie the score at 13. Each team threatened to score late in the fourth quarter. Iowa missed a 40-yard field goal with 4:19 left. On the game's final drive the Cougars moved inside the Iowa 20 with 33 seconds left to play, but Detmer's pass to tight end Byron Rex was tipped and picked off by Hawkeye safety Carlos James in the end zone to preserve the tie. Josh Arnold of BYU earned defensive MVP honors as BYU finished the season ranked 23rd in the AP and CNN/USA Today polls, Iowa was 10th in both polls.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff booted a 48-yard field goal with 2:57 left to play, giving the Jayhawks a victory over BYU, the WAC tri-champion. Tom Young, who completed 15 of 31 passes for 262 yards in his first varsity start, was named Most Valuable Player for BYU. Tackle Dana Stubblefield, who had three of the six sacks on Young, won the honor for Kansas. Young had been pressed into action when Ryan Hancock suffered knee ligament damage against Utah in the final regular-season game. The Cougars took an early lead when Hema Helmuli scrambled 94 yards on the opening kickoff for a score. Kansas tied the game two plays later when wide receiver Matt Gay threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to tight end Rodney Harris. BYU took a 14-9 lead in the second quarter when Jamal Willis ran 29 yards for a score. Eichloff then cut the halftime score to 14-12 with a 42-yard field goal. But the kicking game would prove the downfall as the Cougars missed a 36-yard field goal in the first quarter as well as a 31-yarder and misplayed an extra point attempt in the third quarter. Young threw 10 yards to Otis Sterling for the only score of the third quarter. Kansas quarterback Crip Hillery then tied the game by directing a 75-yard drive in a minute and a half, scoring the touchdown and then running for a two-point conversion.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars took Big 10 Co-Champion Ohio State to the wire at the 16th annual Thrifty Car Rental Holiday Bowl and came up just short. BYU had four downs and 32 seconds to tie or win the game from the OSU six-yard line, but four straight John Walsh passes into the end zone fell to the ground and OSU slipped away with the win. BYU got to the Ohio State six, 14, 22-yard lines in the second half without scoring. Meanwhile, Raymont Harris, OSU's senior halfback, battered the BYU defense all night long, scoring three touchdowns on his way to a record 235 yards rushing. Despite Harris' rushing, the Cougars managed to go into the halftime break tied at 21. Jamal Willis and Bryce Doman each collected 27-yard Walsh offerings and walk-on tight end Chad Lewis made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab in the corner of the end zone to bail the Cougars out of a fourth-and-eight situation. After Harris' short touchdown run late in the third, BYU and OSU traded possessions until late into the fourth quarter. After forcing a rare Buckeye punt, BYU got the ball back on its own 42 with 43 seconds left. On first down, Walsh hooked up with senior co-captain Eric Drage who ran away from Buckeye defenders and advanced the ball 52 yards to the OSU six-yard line. Walsh had 389 yards and fullback Katin Hall rushed for 42 yards on 11 carries. Tyler Anderson returned five kicks for 145 yards, including an exciting 45-yarder. Harris and Walsh shared MVP honors.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU fans celebrated the New Year early as the Cougars dominated Oklahoma and ended its five-year winning drought in bowl games. Quarterback John Walsh and the offense clicked on all cylinders and the Cougars' defense was dominating throughout the ESPN telecast. Walsh threw a seven-yard TD pass to Bryce Doman in the first quarter and had a 25-yard pass to Mike Johnston in the second quarter. A four-yard scoring pass to Johnston in the third quarter and a 28-yard touchdown pass to Doman in the fourth quarter vaulted Walsh's stats to 454 yards and four touchdowns on 31 of 45 passes with no interceptions against the Sooner defense which had held national champion Nebraska to 13 points. BYU's defense was dominating as it held Oklahoma to just 72 yards rushing and 163 yards passing—most of those in the last quarter. The Sooners did not cross midfield until their ninth possession on the second-to-last play of the third quarter. Jamal Willis caught seven passes for 103 yards and was chosen Offensive Player of the Game. Walsh was named MVP in what would be his final game at BYU. BYU finished 10th in the CNN/USA Today poll and 18th in the Associated Press poll.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU assumed the nation's longest winning streak with a come-from-behind 19-15 victory in the 61st annual Cotton Bowl. It was the first New Year's Day appearance for both 14th-ranked Kansas State and fifth-ranked BYU. More than 40,000 purple-clad Kansas State supporters out-numbered the 15,000 Cougar patrons as 71,928 fans filled the Cotton Bowl. BYU got on the board first with a safety, then turned the ensuing punt into a field goal to lead 5-0 in the first quarter. The safety came when linebacker Shay Muirbrook, the game's defensive MVP, collected one of his six sacks. Kansas State took a half-time lead with a 41-yard Hall Mary pass and a successful two-point conversion with no time left on the clock. The Wildcats increased the lead to 15-5 in the third quarter when offensive co-MVP Kevin Lockett caught a 72-yard TD. Fueled by consecutive controversial interference no-calls, quarterback Steve Sarkisian engineered two fourth-quarter drives capped by touchdown passes of 32-yards to James Dye and 28-yards to K.O. Kealahuli. Sarkisian, an offensive co-MVP, completed 21 passes to tie a Cotton Bowl record held by Roger Staubach of Navy. KSU drove the length of the field before Cougar cornerback Omar Morgan juggled an interception from a Wildcat slant pattern at the 12 yardline to secure the game.

BYU backs Brian McKenzie, Mark Alualua, Ronney Jenkins celebrate the Cougars' victory in the 1997 Cotton Bowl.

GAME SUMMARY:

In BYU's first ever appearance at the Liberty Bowl, the Cougars ran into tenth-ranked Tulane that entered the New Year's Eve game with a perfect season record. The Cougars struck first on an 11-yard pass from Kevin Feterik to receiver Ben Horton. Tulane would score 20 unanswered points in the first half. With just 41 seconds remaining in the half, BYU looked to put an end to the Green Wave momentum, but came up short as Feterik was sacked by Phil Henderson for a 10-yard loss to end the half. Things didn't get much better for the Cougars in the second half, as Tulane scored its third touchdown of the game on the opening drive of the half. On its next possession, the Green Wave would strike again on a 13-yard pass from King to Jamaican Darte to give Tulane a 34-6 lead with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. On its first drive of the final period, BYU scored for the first time since the 8:49 mark in the first half on an Aaron Cupp three-yard run. Tulane answered with a six-play drive that covered 76 yards, giving the Green Wave a 41-13 lead with just over nine minutes remaining in the game. Trailing by 28 midway through the fourth quarter, BYU finally crossed the Tulane 20-yard line for the first time since the first half and went on to score 14 unanswered points before time expired. Feterik completed an 18-yard pass to Cupp, while Junior Mahe capped off the BYU scoring with a three-yard plunge into the endzone.

GAME SUMMARY:

BYU squared off against Marshall in the first meeting between the two schools at the Cougars' first-ever appearance in the third annual Motor City Bowl. The Cougars scored first on a field goal by Owen Pochman with 1:58 remaining in the first quarter. That score was set up by a pair of 20-plus yard receptions by Donny Atsala and Jonathan Pittman. In the second quarter, Marshall drove the ball down to the BYU five-yard line, but failed to convert as a 22-yard field goal attempt by Billy Malashevich missed wide to the right. On the Herd's next possession, Chad Pennington put Marshall on the board with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Doug Chapman. On BYU's ensuing drive, Feterik connected with Margin Hooks for a 67-yard pass play that took the Cougars all the way to the nine-yard line. However, the Cougars couldn't capitalize inside the red zone and Feterik suffered a collarbone injury off a blind-side corner blitz. Pochman, who had connected on 18 of 25 attempts in the regular season, missed wide left on his field goal attempt. Feterik attempted to play in the second half, but left the game midway in the third quarter when Freshman Brett Engemann took the QB controls. Just before the end of the third quarter, Marshall struck a big play when Chapman rushed 87 yards for a touchdown. Marshall was given an opportunity to score in the fourth quarter as Rogers Beckett picked off an Engemann pass and ran it back to the BYU one-yard line. Chapman, to cap off his MVP performance, scored Marshall's final touchdown. The Cougars missed a final chance to score when Brian Gray had a clear path to the end zone, but dropped a sure interception.

GAME SUMMARY:

The Cougars ended the 2001 season facing off against Conference USA Champion Louisville, who, like BYU, was recognized for its offensive accomplishments during the 2001 campaign. The Cardinals, led by quarterback Dave Ragone, took an early lead, scoring on a one-yard dive by Henry Miller that was set up by Zek Parker's 70-yard return of the opening kickoff. The remainder of the quarter featured tough defensive play as both teams struggled to get anything going offensively. Midway through the second quarter the Cougar offense came alive, driving to the Louisville 10-yard line before dipping into Gary Crowton's bag of tricks. Quarterback Brandon Doman dropped back and rolled right as if to pass, then turned to his left and threw the ball to Dustin Rykert on a tackle-eligible play. At 6-foot-7, 305 pounds of offensive tackle outran the Cardinal defense to the corner and rumbled 10 yards to the end zone to tie the game 7-7. Just before the half Crowton's daring play calling, which had paid off all year long, proved costly for the Cougars when a fake punt just before halftime was stuffed at the line of scrimmage and gave the Cardinals the ball at the BYU 40. Louisville just managed to take a 14-7 lead into the break, scoring with only 14 seconds left. Hoping to get back into the game in the second period, the Cougars' offense continued struggling and only managed a 29-yard field goal with just over seven minutes remaining in the third quarter. Louisville contained the Cougar attack for the remainder of the game while reaching the end zone twice more themselves. Although Louisville went on to win 28-10, BYU's defense played one of its best games of the season, holding the Cardinals' high-powered offense to 228 yards passing and only 58 yards rushing. Despite losing to end the season, Crowton's first campaign could be called nothing short of a success as he took BYU to a 12-2 mark that opened eyes across the country and raised expectations for the future.

Tackle Dustin Rykert rumbles into the endzone for BYU's first score. This piece of trickery helped the Cougars even the score at 7-7 in the second quarter.

BOWL RESULTS

1981: Jim McMahon led BYU to a 38-36 victory over Washington State in the Holiday Bowl. McMahon's arm accounted for three touchdowns on 27 of 43 passing.

1996: One of BYU's bowl highlights was a 19-15 win over Kansas State in the 1997 Cotton Bowl, BYU's first New Year's Day bowl game. The victory gave the Cougars their 14th win of the season and a No. 5 ranking in the final polls.

Ornarr Morgan's timely interception in the 1997 Cotton Bowl sealed a 19-15 victory over No. 14 Kansas State. BYU ended the 1996 season ranked No. 5 in the nation.

BOWL RESULTS

Tony Crutchfield recorded interceptions against Penn State (Holiday Bowl XII) and Iowa (Holiday Bowl XIV).

Clay Brown had a BYU bowl record three touchdown receptions against SMU in the 1980 Holiday Bowl.

Scott Phillips scored two touchdowns and added a crucial two-point conversion in BYU's 1980 Holiday Bowl victory over SMU.

Former BYU quarterback Blanton Dornen was selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft.

John Tait proved why he was a first-round draft pick and one of the NFL's best last season as he helped pave way for RB Priest Holmes to set the NFL single-season TD record while totaling 1,420 rushing yards for the NFL's top scoring offense (Kansas City).

During his seven seasons in the NFL, Chad Lewis' high-flying athleticism has helped him gain over 2,000 receiving yards in 93 games. Lewis has caught 20 touchdowns and 195 receptions during his career.

BRIAN BILLICK
Baltimore Ravens
Head Coach

- Played at BYU from 1975-77 under Coach LaVell Edwards
- All-WAC first team as tight end in 1976
- All-American honorable mention, Associated Press
- Started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at BYU
- Coached the Baltimore Ravens to Super Bowl title in second year as head coach
- Was an offensive coordinator for Minnesota Vikings from 1992-98 and led the Vikings into the NFL's top 5 in yards per game, passing yards per game, completions and 3rd down conversions.

ANDY REID
Philadelphia Eagles
Head Coach

- Played at BYU from 1978-80 under Coach LaVell Edwards
- Offensive tackle and guard on three Holiday Bowl teams
- Graduate assistant under Edwards during 1982 season
- Assistant coach with Mike Holmgren at Green Bay Packers from 1993-98, winning Super Bowl XXXI
- Has guided the Philadelphia Eagles to the playoffs the past three seasons
- Named ESPN Magazine's "Favorite Coach" in July 2001

MIKE HOLMGREN
Seattle Seahawks
Head Coach

- Coached with LaVell Edwards as quarterback coach from 1982-85
- Coached quarterback greats Steve Young and Robbie Bosco
- Assistant coach for BYU's 1984 National Championship team
- Head coach of the Super Bowl XXXI Champion Green Bay Packers
- As head coach at Green Bay, coached quarterback Brett Favre to three league MVP awards
- In 17 NFL seasons Holmgren's teams have posted a 177-93-1 (.655) record, hit double digits in the win column 10 times, made the postseason 12 times and won three Super Bowls

TOP OF THE CLASS: BYU's rich football tradition has bred some of the top football minds in the country. Three former BYU players and coaches are currently successful coaches in the NFL. Former BYU tight end Brian Billick led his Baltimore Ravens to the Super Bowl title in 2001 while former BYU offensive lineman Andy Reid led the resurgent Philadelphia Eagles into the playoffs for the third straight year. Former BYU assistant coach under LaVell Edwards, Mike Holmgren, has also won a world championship when he led his Green Bay Packers to the 1997 Super Bowl title.

BYU's football influence also extends to other football leagues. In 2003, former BYU linebacker Todd Shell was named Arena Football's Coach of the Year. Shell is the head coach of the New York Dragons in the Arena Football League (AFL).

PRO SCOUT DAY: Every year a large contingent of NFL scouts converge on the BYU campus to get an up close look at BYU's future NFL hopefuls. Every year more than 60 NFL personnel, representing every NFL team, visit Provo. The Cougars had eight players taken in the last three NFL drafts, while many other Cougars signed free agent contracts.
